

THE SEVILLE JOURNAL

The paving on the Medina pike road was completed last week Wednesday and a mighty good job, critics say.

The Dorris Construction Co. have moved their machinery near Creston, where the grading has been done and is ready for paving. Weather permitting, they expect to reach Seville Corporation by October 1.

Say, you Medina folks, sit up and take notice, that all good roads lead to Seville, and see what might happen, if Seville merchants should decide to have a Golden Rule day. Get busy and pave the other end of the pike road that leads to Medina.

The C. L. Matteson Co. furnished The Dorris Construction Co. with 10,000 barrels of cement for the pike road.

The Guilford township schools have been centralized and with the exception of the Wood school will be brought to Seville.

Jake Dennis and Geo. Houghton are working in Burbank on a new church.

The girls of the fifth and sixth grades of school with their teachers, Mrs. Riffy, pleasantly surprised Elizabeth Day Friday afternoon, the occasion being her twelfth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Day, mother of Elizabeth, served a delicious lunch at the supper hour. The girls had a jolly good time as it was a complete surprise to Elizabeth. Wishing her many happy returns of the day, all started for home.

The Merry Matrons club spent a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Cook last Wednesday, it being the annual picnic of the club. The committee had arranged the picnic tables in the back yard under the apple trees along the banks of Chippewa creek, a delightful place. There were 18 members of the club present and a few little folks. The first Friday night in October is the time set for the first meeting of the year. One of the excitements of the afternoon was watching the Dorris Construction Company moving their large roller machine over Chippewa bridge, which they thoroughly braced underneath and then put large logs over the top and ran the machine over the logs. We women got excited and expected to see the bridge, machine and all go into the creek. There were experienced hands on the job.

THE MOST IMPORTANT PROBLEM THAT CONFRONTS ALL THOSE WHO SAVE is securing a safe and profitable investment for their savings without taking chances of loss. Before any investment can be considered desirable it must meet three fundamentals—(1) SAFETY, (2) SATISFACTORY INCOME RETURN, and (3) READY CONVERTIBILITY INTO CASH WHEN NEEDED.

The Queen Esther girls and home guards of the Methodist church had a delightful time at their picnic held at the church Tuesday evening. Miss Bessie Wilder was appointed leader of the home guards and Queen Esther. Mrs. Rev. Gardiner having resigned.

Twenty-three little girl friends of Ruth Friggel surprised her Monday afternoon because of her moving to Cleveland this week. They carried their lunch and had a farewell picnic.

Miss Mildred Coolman is attending Bible conference at the Wooster University this week as a delegate from the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church.

The sad news of the death of Will Harner of Newark came to his sister, Mrs. E. G. Cross, last week. He had a second stroke and died in the hospital, where he was taken after having the first stroke.

Mrs. L. K. Hosmer spent the week-end with friends in Akron.

Fred Bowers with his wife and baby and Mrs. Bert Daniels and daughter had a narrow escape on Saturday evening when coming home from Akron. An auto coming up back of them, in passing, struck the front end of Mr. Bower's car, throwing them into the ditch and putting the car out of commission. Mrs. Bower's arm was badly cut and the party who ran into them took her back to Akron to the hospital. Several stitches had to be taken, but she was able to come home afterward and will get along alright. Fortunately none of the others was hurt in the shake-up.

One good feature of the Seville Chautauqua this year, is, we have an excellent hotel, which we have not had for the past two years, where good meals and lodging can be had.

Rev. M. H. Woolf attended the Woolf reunion at Muzzie Lake this week. What a howling time they must have had with all those Woolfs there.

Mrs. H. H. Kindig with her son Mac and daughter Virginia started in their auto for Richmond, Ind., Tuesday morning, where they will visit Mrs. Kindig's brother and other relatives, whom she has not seen for forty years.

We take great pleasure in announcing to the people of Seville and community that in place of the Botting-Mohler Co. and Mr. Lowe, we will have the famous Illingworth Concert Co. of London, England, who will give a full program in the afternoon and a prelude in the evening of the third day. We are able to do this because of the fact that the seven-day circuit upon which program these players have appeared throughout the season, has been completed. Above all do not miss this number.

A free Junior meeting will be held in Central park Friday p. m. at 4 o'clock. All children between the ages of 6 and 14 years are cordially invited.

Have you got your ticket for Chautauqua? I have.
