Scarlett's New Eagle Corn and Cob Mill!

ESPECIALLY adapted to grinding all kinds of shelled grain, as well as corn and cobs. This mill took the first premium at the Ohio State Fair, and at twenty-four counties in this State, this fall.

No Farmer should be Without one,

As facts given by our most reliable and practical farmers, throughout the country, prove that it is a saving of at least one-third by grinding all kinds of shelled grain for feeding Horses, Cattle and Sheep, and one-half or more in feeding hogs, by boiling the meal.

The undersigned having purchased the right for the counties of Montgomery, Greene, Clarke, Miami and Dark, is now prepared to manufacture those valuable Farm Mills to order, at the Buckeye Foundry, Third street, Dayton, Ohio. Call and examine them, or send for a circular.

Orders promptly attended to. Farm and School House Bells manufactured by the undersigned, at wholesale and retail. 1200 were sold the past season.

Address B. C. TAYLOR,

A RARE CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—By the investment of a mere trifle, a hand machine to manufacture an article useful in every public and private house, can be purchased if applied for at once. Any person, male or female, can enter into a lucrative business by applying immediately at the Franklin House, where the article can be seen.

LECTURE.—Rev. Mr. Leavitt will lecture at Wesley Chapel, 3d st., to-morrow (Sabbath) evening. Subject—"God and His Attributes." The course thus far has been of the highest interest to Christians and Bible students generally and we would be pleased to see a large attendance to-morrow evening.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. S. P. Carlton, of Springfield, will preach at the Universalist Church, St Clair Street, to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours. All are invited.

Episcopal Church.—Rev. Wm. G. Spencer of Terre Haute will hold Divine Service in Christ Church to morrow at 10½ A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.

The Sunday School will hereafter be held at 2½ P. M.

—Rev. Mr. Twitchell, of Xenia, will preach at the Congregational Chapel to-morrow. Service at 10½ o' clock A M. and 3 o' clock P. M.

THE FAIR TO-NIGHT.—The Fair will commence this evening at Huston Hall. It will be one of most attractive ever held in this city. There will be a concert on every evening, and music by the Band.

☞ There was a fire in West Alexandria on Tuesday morning. A broom factory, and a stock of groceries in the same building, were consumed. The loss is about $1000. It is claimed to have been the work of an incendiary.

FIRE.—Edward Smith's mill, on the canal in Wayne township, narrowly escaped entire destruction by fire on Friday last. It appears that on account of the low state of the water the steam engine was fixed up, some of the gearing at the roof got hot and ignited, and before it was discovered some fifteen or twenty feet of the roof was in a blaze. By the timely aid of the neighbors the fire was put out before serious damage was done.

BOLD ROBBERY.—The residence of George Wogaman, Esq., of Harrison township, was last night entered by burglars, who succeeded in stealing about $15,80 in cash, and a double cased silver lever watch, worth $25. They effected their entrance with an "outsider," and when they departed, left the door unlocked.

110.—Prof. Pratt will again hold forth to the great public this evening at 110 Main st., rain or shine. He will give the folks something extra in his novel programme, and will offer them the most valuable remedy ever sold. Be on hand, when the gas is lighted!

☞ We have received a funny communication which treats of a young shoe-maker who was enamored of a charming young lady up town, and through a "friend" importuned her to permit his "addresses." The other day the family were "butchering," and it occurred to the young lady that she would reward the persistence of her adorer, and she accordingly cut out the eyes of a dead pig, and wrapping them up nicely, sent them to him! He did not relish this thing of his Dulcinea throwing pig's eyes at him, our correspondent says, and charged that she was a great deal more swinish than he had supposed! At last accounts a serious rupture was threatened and it was believed that the lady would be obliged to send the irate youngster a "whole hog" to appease him! Our correspondent says the "fat is in the fire," and believes the Union to be in danger!

HARPER FOR JANUARY.—The January number of Harper is here, and it certainly eclipses any thing we ever saw in the magazine line. The illustrations and reading matter seem to improve—(if that be possible!)—with each number. It is for sale by Willard & Wheaton, 3d st.

Paynes, Main st., near 2d.

Shulls, corner of Main and 3d.

Get it—every body.

TAXES!—Taxes are onerous, yet they are necessary for the support of Government and our institutions, and have to be paid. The time for the half yearly payment of taxes with, out the penalty is nearly here, and those who expect to escape the "impending crisis," had better fork over without delay. The 20th will soon be here when 5 per cent will be put on. Hurry up!

☞ The trial of W. H. Gibson, late Treasurer of State, on an indictment for embezzlement, is now progressing at Columbus. The report of one day's proceedings occupies four columns of small print in the Cincinnati Gazette. It will fill a large book.

Oh! What a Pity!

A few days ago we noticed two fights that occurred in our sister city, Miami—now we regret we are called upon to record another—the facts of which our poick has reduced to verse. We can't admire the "symmetry" of his lines:

Miami City had another fight,
Which took place 'bout 10, last night;
The fight took place at a skating party—
Both young men were hale and hearty.
The Printer grasped in his hands a skate,
And whanged away at an awful rate—
On the Doctors head he struck the blow,
Which caused the blood in streams to flow.

The "Old Nick" must be in that city—
It is, indeed, a pity, pity;—
Come, young men, do quit your fighting—
Turn your minds to Franklin's writing;
"Stoop!" don't be caught in fighting—shame;
For no good thereby will you gain;
Let your minds in goodness rove,
And learn each other how to love.

A Signal Failure.

The attempt made by the Dayton Journal, yesterday morning, and persisted in this morning, to make the people of this District believe that Mr. Vallandigham, speaking clearly and distinctly as a Western man, had insulted them by saying that he was not a Northern man, and had "little feeling and no sympathy for the North," has most signally failed.

☞ Nobody of common sense believes anything the Journal says to the discredit of Mr. Vallandigham.

"Poor Tom's Cold."

Corwin is about played out. His grimaces don't seem to take as of old. The motley has got into the brain at last, and pity, nearly akin to contempt, succeeds laughter. "Poor Tom's cold." Won't somebody please to bury him.

☞ We enjoyed a great treat last evening by attending Prof. Harrison's Laughable Monologue Entertainment, at Beckel's Hall, last evening, which was patronized by a large and enthusiastic audience of ladies and gentlemen, who were convulsed with laughter at the comicalities of the Professor, who has the happy faculty of making people laugh against their will. He is a perfect genius in the way of making up poetry and songs impromptu—he solicited written subjects from the audience, as a test; some twenty five were given him, which he sang upon for thirty five minutes, as easy as one can talk, to the astonishment of all; his comic song, and lectures were admirable.—His "Oil" for aches and pains went off like hot cakes. He gives a full characteristic entertainment this (Saturday) evening, if the weather is favorable, otherwise it will be postponed until Monday. The price of admission is only 15 cents.

☞ One of the most extensive, and at the same time one of the most elegant Dry Goods Houses in the country, is that of DeLaud, Gossage & Cuyler, 74, West 4th st., Cincinnati As Stewart is styled the Prince of New York Merchants, so may these gentlemen be properly designated the Princes of Cincinnati Merchants. Dry Goods in every conceivable branch of the trade are to be found in their house in the abundance and gorgeousness of an oriental palace; and their very magnificence and cheapness makes them sought for by the thousands who frequent their palace, 74 west 4th st. Besides, this, the members of the firm are the right kind of men, and with high social qualities unite that of the strictest business probity. We recommend our readers who deal in Cincinnati to call at 74, west 4th st.

AHEAD OF TIME.—It is customary for the Shulls to receive literary papers here, about three or four days prior to the date of them!—This is considered fast; but then so many thousands of these are printed and sent throughout the world that before near all of them reach their destination, the day is up to the date, or beyond it. We notice that book publishers are taking up the same style of ante-dating, but without any color of reason. We received a book from a publishing house the other day which had been from the press more than a month, and it hailed from "Boston, 1860!" It may be possible that the publishers do not expect to sell any of them until next year!

☞ We would say to our lady friends this sloppy and slippery weather, that it is as necessary for them to be as well shod on foot, as to be shod with the gospel. This fact being admitted, we would recommend them to go to No. 351 West Fifth street, opposite the Indiana Central railroad workshops, and have their shoes well covered with rubber soles. This is the best institution to prevent wet feet, and to walk on slippery pavements, out of town. Those who have tried the experiment, cannot do without the rubber soles.

All work warranted.

☞ The "squawking" of persecuted geese rose high above the tempest of sleet and snow this morning. We don't know what that poet was thinking about who related that the "songs of geese once saved Rome!" Their "singing" reminds one of the filing of a cross-cut saw. It is barely possible that the poet aforementioned had "no music in his soul," and that he was unable to distinguish between the cackling of a goose and the singing of a lark.

HOLIDAY'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The Universalist Society has engaged Huston Hall for holidays and are making preparations for the occasion. In connection with a Fair and Festival they contemplate introducing some novel and amusing entertainments.—They will open on Christmas Eve. Dec. 24th, and continue through the following week.

They are also to celebrate Christmas by appropriate services on the evening of the 25th, which comes this year on Sunday, and are to decorate and illuminate the church.

☞ We had three "styles" of weather between 4 and 7 o'clock this morning. It first snowed: then it sleeted finely; and finally it rained like forty! The streets and sidewalks were a sloppy glare, and we do not remember a more decidedly unpleasant style of weather than that of this morning. At one time we saw three careless persons flat on their backs on the slushy sidewalks!

SHORTLY TO APPEAR.—Stover and Pflaum, Webster street, opposite the new depot building of the D. & M. Railroad, will have a lot of fine sugar cured hams, of their own curing, ready to supply their numerous customers, on Christmas. We can recommend their hams as an extra nice article, and advise all lovers of good ham to give them a trial. They will also have on hand a lot of fine fat turkies. Pickled Pork, corned beef, and choice fresh meats always on hand. Remember the nice sugar cured hams on Christmas, and procure a supply of Stover & Pflaum.

GAME, OYSTERS.—Quails, Oysters, Fish, &c., at Brandenburg & Co's, 800, Third st.

An Unwarrantable Falsehood.

The Dayton Gazette, of yesterday, uses the following language:

"Mr. Vallandigham repeated the remark of a Southern man, that Sherman ought to be hanged for endorsing Helper's book."

The following is the telegraphic report from which he got his information:

He repeated what he had said, that the man who endorsed Helper's book, containing insurrectionary sentiments, and intended to sow the seeds of discord, and strife, and civil war, was not fit to be Speaker, or a member of this House. The gentleman from Virginia, (Millson) the other day, went further, and said that such a man was not fit to live; yet the Republicans received this remark as mute as fishes, and as gentle as lambs.

Let honorable men judge of the fairness of the man that could be guilty of such perversion.

☞ The Republican party certainly must be, as Cox said of the Irishman's Elephant: "it's got a tail at both ends." Read the following from the Dayton Gazette.

Mr. Corwin made an amusing speech, in the course of which he misrepresented the principles of the Republican party of Ohio. He asserted that it is not pledged to the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, when it is notorious, that a resolution of repeal, reported by the Committee, of which he was Chairman, was unanimously passed by the State Convention, supported by every Republican paper in the State, and advocated by Mr. Dennison in all his contests with Judge Ranney. If we are not greatly mistaken, he advocated its repeal himself, on the stump, and declared, that he would not have voted for its enactment had he been in Congress when it passed. He preferred the law of 1793, and now announces that the South is entitled to a "GOOD LAW" to catch her fugitive property.

A Challenge.

A petition, got up by Black Republicans, is in circulation requesting Vallandigham to resign. His crime is being a WESTERN MAN, and not a Northern man! He was born on Ohio soil, has Western sentiments, and is Western in his feelings. This is his whole crime.

We dare the whole crew of the abolition party to send it on.

SEND IT ON!

Do you hear that, old Pecksniff? Are your ears open, Brother Denny? And what have you to say, ye old line abolitionists? Send it on!

WE DARE YOU.

Democratic Victory in N. Hampshire!

We find the following in the Boston Post:

"DEMOCRATIC MAYOR IN MANCHESTER"—Manchester, (N. H.,) December 13.—We have elected E. W. Harrington, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, by THIRTY majority! Great Democratic triumph.

This is a great victory, as Manchester has been Republican hitherto by from three to five hundred majority. It is the town in which the Republicans rang the bells on the occasion of John Brown's execution. This demonstration had something to do with the result.

Can't Please them All.

The correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette complains of Vallandigham because he makes a speech. The "dunderhead" of the Germantown Independent in an article headed "Why is he silent?" growls because he don't speak.—It is a growling set all around. The truth is that Black Republicans must find something to grumble about. An angel from heaven wouldn't please them.

☞ Talk about your rare, austere Puritan beauties! One has only to visit the Opera to see warm, palpitating Southern women, and, if he has a spark of poetic fire, something like this will be extemporised:

How fair these daughters of the Sun!
These black-eyed, sparkling things!
These jewels of the Holy One!
These angels without wings!
When keys of love the soul unlocks,
In all the gilded South,
The softest, sweetest music box
Is woman's rosy mouth!

—N. O. Picayune.

☞ The funeral of Mrs. Wood, the wife of the Mayor elect of New York, took place at his residence at Bloomingdale on Monday. It is estimated that between seven or eight thousand persons participated in the ceremonies. It was by far the most imposing private funeral that ever took place in that metropolis, or perhaps in the country.

☞ The cold rain this morning was "heavy" on our country friends who attended market. It washed the very color out of their meat and poultry. The rabbits exposed for sale reminded us of the stories we had read about the Chinese' taste for pies, and we declined them at "3 for a quarter." Strange, is it not, that a man's stomach will sometimes oppose his judgment!

WATER PROOF!—Those who want to keep their feet dry this very wet weather, should get the boots and shoes of Wilson, Main st., below Market. He has an extra article of thick soled shoes for the ladies, and best article of boys boots. They are double-extra and no mistake.

☞ Does the editor of the Gazette endorse the sentiments in Helper's Book?

—The following is true, as regards the factotum of an inland city daily, and its expression is as felicitious as the fact is wearisome:

One of the most interesting chapters in Disraeli's Curiosities of Literature relates to the peculiarities of different authors as to the time occupied in composition. A more striking literary curiosity would be to tell the hour of the entire diurnal round of old Sol, when an editor of a daily paper is not engaged in his work, physically or mentally. Like Mantalini's mangle, it is "one damnition perpetual grind."—[Lou. Journal.

THE END OF THE FORREST DIVORCE CASE.—The decision of the Referee, Mr. A. C. Bradley, in this celebrated case, has been made.—The Referee awards to Mrs. Forrest $4,000 per annum from the commencement of the suit in 1852, and compels Forrest to give bond and mortgage security for its prompt payment. And aside from this he has a fair prospect of paying alimony for many years to come. This case must have cost Edwin a fabulous sum; but he has a plethoric exchequer.

The accusation against Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, for stabbing R. S. Fay, jr, the Treasurer of the Middlesex Mills, has been withdrawn because the prosecutor found that no complaint against him could be sustained. The fact is that Dr. Ayer merely defended himself as best he might, with a penknife he happened to have in his hand, against a cowardly assault made on him from behind, with the premeditated intention to dishonor and punish him for the exposure he has made and is making of the wrongs practiced by the officers upon our manufacturing corporations. This community not only upholds the Doctor's successful defense of his person, but it heartily approves his course in publicly denouncing the Tite-Barnacle Family management—the abuses of our public property for private ends. Dr. Ayer's medicines, however valuable, are not all for which the masses of our people hold him in regard.—[Boston Herald.

—A woman named Ann Coleman has been committed at Blaina to the Monmouth (Wales) Assizes, for the very novel offense of having two husbands living with her at the same time—one being at the works in the day and the other on the night turn. Evidence of her first marriage at Wolverton, Somersetshire, eighteen years ago, at the age of 18, and of her recent marriage, within a few weeks of the present time, was produced, and the certificates were read. Her age was given in this certificate at 24, which confirms the opinion of the male sex as to the difficulty of estimating a female year.

☞ A bill has been introduced into the Missouri Legislature to establish a State Military Institution to be located at Jefferson City, for the purpose of instructing 200 cadets from 14 to 22 years of age. These to be constituted a public guard of buildings, arms, munitions of war and other property—the work to be done by convict labor. The Institute to be supplied by annual appropriations.

TO THE LADIES!

P. H. D'ARCY, Post Office Building, 3d street, wishes to say, that having fitted up his Ladies' Departments in the best style, he is fully prepared to accommodate them, during the Fair, and until after the Holidays, with all the delicacies of the season. Special attention will be given to this department, and everything that can contribute to the comfort and convenience of the "fair sex," will be strictly observed. Our Gentlemen's Department is as usual fully up to the mark. Ladies, call and see us; we think we can, (at least we shall endeavor) to please you. dec16-2td

Electricity as a Remedy in a Class of Diseases!

DR. B. PICKERING has shown by his practice, embracing a period of ten years, that Electricity is a reliable remedy in affections otherwise incurable. He has in his possession testimonials of numerous cases that he has cured, of spasms, rheumatism, palsy, neuralgia, partial deafness, perished limbs, mercurial disease, etc., etc., showing conclusively that positive reliance can be given to this treatment.

Charges moderate. Consultation free.

CONFESSION IN RHYME!

"Our flag is there!" Ah, you see it loom
Before Christopher's Auction and Toy Room!
Our banner is sure—the emblem of our trade;
Prime goods, and nice—where bargains can be made.
Our stock consists of every useful thing,
And toys and notions—a variety we bring.
We're "fixed" for Christmas, and for New Years, too,
And can supply nice goods all fresh, and bright and new.
We have so many good and pretty things—
From childhood's toys, to ladies' golden rings—
That we can't name the tenth, if we would try,
But come and see the goods—we know you'll buy.
Then come! ye old and young, the goods are nice and cheap,
And buy them singly, or buy them in the heap;
Buy them by the item, or in the pile;
Their very cheapness will cause you to smile.
Then, come, every body, before the rush sets in as it did last year, when many had to go away disappointed. We have the largest and best assortment of dolls and bodies, of any in the city, and we might say in the West, at any one establishment.
