The Lion and the Lamb.

The conservatism, natural to every true citizen in dangerous times, is beginning to develop itself more powerfully every day. In the New England states, at one time supposed to be hopelessly given over to sectionalism, a better feeling begins to prevail; and many who were violent republicans before, are now falling into democratic and conservative ranks. The same is true of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The reaction that must finally sweep the entire country has begun in those States whose interests are indissolubly connected with the South. The manufacturers of New England never knew the dangerous tendencies of their radical republicanism until the exasperated people of the South initiated the practice of non-intercourse. This opened their eyes. They began to see that it was not mere party feeling they were encouraging, but the feeling of hostile "sectionality," and that it was about to be returned in a spirit as hostile and sectional as their own.

The reaction in the North is now spreading to the West. Western republicanism never was so violent and radical as northern republicanism. But it now bids fair to be dissolved entirely. The masses of the western people see that their leaders have gone too far. The leaders themselves tremble to see the precipice upon whose verge they are standing. And the result of it all is that republicanism is now undergoing a backward, retrograde movement in order to accommodate itself to the changed views of the masses. The most powerful confession ever made by a self-convicted party of the error of its former ways was the invitation of the southern legislatures to Columbus, and triumphal progress of those gentlemen through the State Ohio. Republican voters and republican leaders are everywhere in the front rank doing honors to the guests. Republican members of the Legislature move that $3000 defray the expenses. Republican gentlemen get on committees and vote that the same annon, which used to thunder for victories over the constitutional rights of southern States, now pour forth its music in honor of their representative bodies. Truly southern gentlemen will never cease wondering.

All this is right. It shows that the people are right. It is gratifying to see republican brethren so smooth and mild in the presence of the "task masters." We love the amiability. Were we ill-natured we might complain that they had sought almost to monopolize the honor of entertaining those whom we had been so often taught by them to believe were our own peculiar friends. But the spectacle of republican leaders and voters embracing their dear southern friends, fresh from enactments in their legislatures against free negroes and black republicans, and in favor of slave codes, fugitive slave laws and slavery in the territories, is so refreshing a sight that we would not disturb it for the world.

EDITOR EMPIRE—Permit me through your columns to offer a few reflections on the past, the present, and the future of the Democratic party. With the past we have little or nothing to do, only so far as we gather wisdom from its councils, to so shape our course for the present and future, as to avoid the stumbling blocks that have been cast in the way of our progress by so unscrupulous opposition. It is a matter of history that the country has been fearfully agitated on the subject of negro slavery for the last fifteen or twenty years, and that this agitation was constantly weakening the bonds of union cemented by the blood and treasure of our Revolutionary Fathers. Patriots of the old school, Statesmen of other days, saw and felt that a crisis in our history was fast approaching; hence their efforts to stay the tide of fanaticism, that was sweeping over the country, by the introduction of measures into the national councils, calculated to give peace, harmony and prosperity to the whole country; had they been taken in the spirit in which they were conceived. And as a further earnest of their good intentions, during the years 1854-5, sought for and found, in the person of James Buchanan, a Statesman of the old school, one in whom they could safely confide the destinies of this great nation as its chief magistrate. Hence the singular unanimity of the Democratic party north and south during that memorable campaign which resulted in the elevation of Mr. Buchanan to the Presidency.

I wish to ask the simple question—whether or not Democrats have accorded to the administration of James Buchanan the hearty support that had always been accorded to Presidents elected by the suffrages of the Democratic party? For my part I think the party as a whole have failed in this respect; and that the appointed politicians of the Democratic fold (to use a mild expression,) when they did not openly oppose, gave but a negative support to the administration measures; and that to, at a time the elements of the opposition had combined with traitors, and, assassins of the Brown stamp, to rend in twain, if possible, the heritage of our fathers. For my part I am convinced that if the support had been given to Mr Buchanan's administration to which in justice it was entuled, notwithstanding the trying period in which its fortunes have been cast, it would have been one of the most successful in the history of our country.

No man now has the hardihood to attack the foreign policy of the present administration; all acknowledge it to have been firm and dignified, adding lustre to our name, wherever our flag has been unfurled. It is only in the miserable "Kansas imbroglio" that the administration of Mr. Buchanan is said to have failed. But the past two months has unfolded to the world, the desperate nature of the enemy he had to contend with. The Harper's Ferry emeute has fully vindicated Mr. Buchanan for the adoption of precautionary measures that he did for the peace and quiet of the Territory of Kansas, to counteract the treasonable and murderous plottings of Brown and his aiders and abettors there.

It is seldom indeed that history begins so soon to vindicate an administration so much vilified as that of Mr. Buchanan. It often takes a life time to clear away the venom entailed by the tongue of slander. I predict then, if prudent councils prevail in the ranks of the Democratic party, that the latter part of the present administration will be of incalculable benefit to the country.

Yours,

K.

INDIAN DOINGS.—A letter from Santa Fe, December 29, says:

Last night an express came in from Abiquin, sixty-five miles north west of this, bringing the news to Sub Agent Pfeiffer, of Abiquin, that the Utahs near Abiquin and Taos Agencies had just returned from an expedition against the Navajos, who are at war upon all, bringing with them four scalps, twenty three children, fifty or sixty goats, ninety-six Indian ponies, and two hundred and eighty head of fat sheep—rooting them effectually.

The New York Tribune says the annual income of the Sheriff of the county amounts to $60,000, while the service rendered should not at the out side cost more than $3,000.

A Good Sign from Georgia.

The Democracy of Chatham county, Ga., which includes the city of Savannah, at their late meeting to appoint Delegates to the State Convention, passed the following excellent resolutions:

"RESOLVED, That the Democracy of Chatham, desiring simply the harmony of the party and the success of its principles, express no preference among the many distinguished names connected with the Presidency, but pledge to any sound Democrat, the nominee of the Charleston Convention, their cordial and individual support.

"RESOLVED, That while we leave our Delegates to Milledgeville untrampled as to their action, we request them to shape their course according to the spirit of the foregoing resolution, which was adopted."

The spirit of the above is very different from that manifested in Alabama and Mississippi.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills,

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excesses and removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, price One Dollar, bears the Government stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeit.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN

STEREOSCOPIC EMPORIUM!!

E. ANTHONY,

308 BROADWAY, NEW YORK,

After May 1st, 1860, at 501 BROADWAY, two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel.

The Stereoscope is the most instructive, interesting, entertaining, amusing and exciting of modern inventions.

None are too young, none too old, none too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth and beauty.

No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate every where.

It presents to your view every part of the world, in all the relief, boldness, perspective, and sharpness of detail, as it you were on the spot.

Photographers are everywhere exploring Europe, Asia, Africa and America, in search of the grand and the beautiful, and the results of their skill are constantly enriching our stock.

We have an immense variety of paper Views of Scenes in Paris, London England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, the Rhine, Versailles, St. Cloud, Fontainebleau, Tuileries, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Athens, the Holy Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groups Historical, amusing, marriage scenes, breakfast scenes, pic-nics, statuary, &c., &c. An exquisite assortment of Illuminated Interiors of Palaces, Churches, and Cathedrals of France, Italy, &c., &c. The effect of these illuminated views is most remarkable.

EVERY GENTLEMAN OF WEALTH AND REFINED TASTE should have in his drawing room some of our exquisite views on glass, with a revolving stereoscope, showing 12, 16, 30 or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more fascinating, and one can offer no greater treat to a friend fond of the picturesque and the beautiful.

Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscopic Views are the latest Photographic wonder. They are taken in the fortieth part of a second, and everything, no matter how rapidly it may be moving, is depicted as sharply and distinctly as if it had been perfectly at rest. This gives an additional value, for to the beauties of inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous Views of American life and scenery.

Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the Scene of the Fulton Street Prayer Meetings, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our Catalogue.

Our Catalogue of subjects and prices will be forwarded to any address on receipt of a stamp.

Parties at a distance sending us $3, $5, $10, $15, $20, or $25, can have a good instrument and such pictures as they may request, sent by Express.

Views alone, (without instrument,) can be sent by mail.

Parties who wish to be advised of everything really valuable in the line that comes out, may send us their names to place on record, and we will keep them posted at our own expense.

Most of leisure will find Photography a most fascinating and delightful amusement. We are prepared to get out amateurs with everything necessary for their success, together with instructions "How to take Stereoscopic Pictures."

E. ANTHONY,

Importer and Manufacturer of Photographic Materials, Stereoscopes and Stereoscopic Views.

☞ Merchants from every section of the country are respectfully invited to make an examination of our stock, as our discount to the trade will be liberal.

TO PHOTOGRAPHERS.—First-class Stereoscopic Negatives wanted.

MANHOOD,

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just Published in a Sealed Envelope,

ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒ, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions, inducing Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

By ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

Author of "The Green Book" &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without Medicine and without dangerous Surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 488 First Avenue, New York, Post Box 4586. jan12-2m

S. M. LOGAN W. J. OGDEN.

Logan's Fire and Water Proof Patent Improved Composition Roofing.

Patented Dec., 27, 0659.

FROM a long experience in business, the inventor has discovered the chief causes of the failure of all Composition roofs heretofore in use, and after a complete system of chemical, artificial and natural experiments, and a thorough, practical test, he has produced a roofing composition superior to any composition ever offered to the public. This composition will not burn or freeze, and consequently will not crack either from expansion or contraction. Samples may be seen at the City Hotel. State and County rights for sale. For further particulars apply to S. M. LOGAN & CO.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, at Public Auction, on the premises, on

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY, 15TH, 1860,

His Farm, situate on the east side of the Dayton and Troy Turnpike, being the first farm south of Vandalia, Montgomery county, Ohio, and 7½ miles north of the city of Dayton. This farm contains ¼ section of land, all under good fence, and 60 acres under cultivation, and the balance in good timber, upon the north, the south, and the east sides.—There is on the premises a good, substantial two-story brick house, a large stock barn, a grain barn, and other out-buildings, with running water from the house through both barn yards; and running water on the south-west quarter of the farm, and a good spring on the north-east quarter. Also, a large young bearing orchard of as good grafted bearing fruit as any in the county.

The tract can be divided into four or six equal parts, with equal quantities of timber on each part. It is deemed
