ABJOINING FIRE OFFICE

HAVING HAD THE EXPERIENCE IN LEARNING the exact wants of this community in clothing, and having met with a success while here, I have therefore established myself permanently in Dayton, and have to announce to the public that I have further success, and satisfaction to my customers, I respectfully call the attention of my patrons and all who may desire to buy their winter clothing, to my present stock, which is selected and goods would advance this fall at least thirty per cent. I purchased and ordered to be made up my entire stock of Winter Clothing for less than I could, when prices were ranged low, and am therefore enabled to offer inducements to all those who may favor me with an early call. My stock of clothing comprises the following articles, viz:

LONG FROCK RIDING COATS.

BLACK & BLUE SACK COATS,

FROCK CASTOR BEAVER COATS,
SACK AND FROCK PILOT OVERCOATS,

CHINCHILLA FROCK OVERCOATS,

BUSINESS MATCH SUITS OF ALL QUALITIES, STYLES AND COLORS.

FINE BLACK DRESS COATS

AND PANTS,
SILK, FLUSH & VELVET VESTS,

TOGETHER WITH A DESIRABLE STOCK OF YOUTH'S and CHILDREN'S Overcoats & Suits.

THEIR STOCK OF
TRAVELING SHIRTS,
NECKTIES,
COLLARS,
TRUNKS,
HATS, and
VALISES is complete.

I again thank my patrons for past favors, and do promise and warrant to give full satisfaction to all those who may give me a chance this winter, at No. 108 Main Street, first door North of the Empire Office.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS PAID ON TWO LOSSES IN THIS CITY WITHIN THE PAST SIX MONTHS.

Among all the contrivances of men to protect the family circle from want, none can be found more simple in its character, noble in its features, or certain in its results, than Life Insurance. It is the prop which the flying gale of death leaves to...

It is the unseen hand of the provident father, reaching forth from the grave, and still nourishing his offspring, and keeping together the family. By it, the faithful...

Let any husband, father, son, ask himself.

"If I was to Die To-Night, Would those who are dear to me be safe from the Pangs of Want?"

Would these children have a comfortable home, and the means of education? Would this wife be independent of the cold charities of the world? Would this aged and feeble parent be provided for? Would my estate pay my debts? Would there be no sacrifice of property for forced heirs? Would my children be able to live in comfort? These are questions which every man should ask himself, and which the life insurance policy answers in the affirmative. It is the only plan by which a man can secure the best for his family, and which is both feasible and unobtrusive.

LIFE INSURANCE!

YOUNG MEN

Just starting in business, whose chief capital is their energy and integrity, should insure their lives to the amount of half their liabilities. Such an act of disinterested humanity who knows to their credit, would justly increase their confidence in them.
