☞ STANDARD HOMŒOPATHIC MEDICINES.—The agent of Humphrey's Homœopathic Specifics has received a very important addition to his list of Humphrey's specifics Homœopathic Remedies in the shape of Specific No. 11, which cures diphtheria and ulcerated sore throat. These specifics have obtained a wide celebrity among the medical practitioners and are very largely used by them, being prompt, efficient, reliable and convenient. An extended advertisement in another column gives a list of the different species, the diseases which they remedy, and the prices. The cases for family use are especially worthy of attention, and also the new department of veterinary specifics. The headquarters of Humphrey's Specific Homœopathic Medicine Co. is at 562 Broadway, New York.

"Great men not minister to a sick man's need,
And, with some sweet, obtrusive antidote,
Cleanse the foul body of the nerious mist
That weighs upon the heart."

Certainly; PLANTATION BITTERS will do it when nothing else will. Melancholy, Depression, Hypochondria, Insanity, all spring, more or less, from a diseased stomach, and this PLANTATION BITTERS is a sure cure for. There is no mistake about it; Dyspepsia, Headache, Dullness, Ague, and Low Spirits must yield to the health-giving and genial influence of the PLANTATION BITTERS. If you are in doubt, make one trial and be convinced.

☞ AN INVALUABLE REMEDY.—None, except those who have suffered all the horrors of threatened Consumption, can fully appreciate the value and efficacy of DR. HALL'S BALSAM—a sovereign remedy in all the various stages of this much dreaded disease.

☞ DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are constantly becoming more and more popular. They are acknowledged to have no rival in the cure of such diseases as Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Fever of all kinds, Jaundice, Costiveness, Pain in the Stomach, Side, Head, Back, and Bowels, Bilious Complaints, Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Scrofula, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Colic, Pleurisy, Pimples and Sores on the Skin, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Pain or Weakness of the Breast, Diseases of Spine and Kidneys, Sore Eyes, Diarrhœa or Dysentery, Cold, etc.

Most of the above-named diseases may be prevented by taking DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS in season, or when the liver becomes first deranged, which carry off, through the bowels and the secretions of the skin and kidneys, those poisonous humors that clog the stomach, bowels and skin, and become accumulated in the blood. There has been as great a progress in science, and especially in that of medicine, within the past few years, as there has in the arts. To such perfection have they brought this science, that the medicinal properties are condensed and concentrated into the resins or salts of the plant, which they extract from it, and leave the inert or woody matter. The old mode of extracting these medicinal properties—by boiling for a long time in water—is found, in most cases, to render the medicinal qualities wholly inert, or even decomposing them.

DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are composed of chemical vegetable extracts, mostly from plants growing in our own country; some of these plants have a direct action on the liver, others upon the skin, others on the kidneys, and others upon the bowels and lungs. It is by a peculiar chemical combination of all these extracts that these Pills are made possessing the most extraordinary efficacy for curing the above-named diseases.

☞ No lady should be without DR TOWNSLEY'S INDIAN TOOTHACHE ANODYNE in her family. If she has children that have the toothache it will cure them. If any of the family have scurvy on the gums it will cure it. If some of the cousins have diseased gums, rendering their mouth very unpleasant it will cure the disease, and render the gums red and of a beautiful color.

Local Matters.

LOST.—Between the corner of Fifth and Ludlow and Wilkinson and Water, a ladies Fitch Fur Cape. The finder will please leave it at this office.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—The Rev. D. Steck will address the people on the subject of Temperance, at the Temperance Hall, on to-morrow (Sabbath) afternoon at three o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

We noticed quite a liberal supply of quails, rabbits and other specimens of wild game in the market this morning. The venders of these luxuries are perhaps not aware of the fact that the game law prohibits their sale after the first of February, under severe penalties. If any of the offenders should be obliged to pay a fine of $25, which the law requires, it would materially diminished the profits of their sales. We give this word of caution gratis.

A DAYTON LADY SWINDLED OUT OF $250.—A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer, from Chicago, gives the following particulars of almost shameful piece of villainy, perpetrated there on Thursday:

A widow lady named Mrs. Henrietta Watts, who formerly resided near Dayton, Ohio, accompanied by her two children, arrived in this city by the ten o'clock train, over the Michigan Southern Railroad. Just after leaving Toledo, the cars being very much crowded, the seat by her side was taken by a dignified looking man, who, by paying considerable attention to the children, attracted her attention.

He ascertained she was in search of a situation as housekeeper, and by false representations that he was a widower and the owner of a large farm in Wisconsin, and the father of two children, he employed her to take charge of his household, which was acquiesced in and on coming here they went to the same hotel together. Before retiring to her room he told her if she had any money she had better leave it in the safe. Unsuspecting, she gave him $250, all she had, with which the villain left, leaving the widow penniless.

ARTEMUS WARD ON THE "BEAST."—Artemus Ward is now lecturing in the South. He was in Montgomery, Alabama, on the 19th ult. A Mobile paper, referring to his lecture, says, "a vast shout came out of the crowd when, after describing the immense amount of silver-ware possessed by Brigham Young, Artemus declared that probably no man in the world had so much of it, except General Butler."

STILL MARCHING ON.—The New York Tribune in its late issue, still insists that "John Brown's soul is marching on!"

We think so, too—and this is the way it "marches": John Brown, in the body corporate, marched on through Kansas and elsewhere, stealing horses and other property. He marched to Virginia to steal niggers and break laws till at last he marched into eternity by a different line. And now we judge his soul is marching on! It marched through the army, stealing all it could reach. It marched through custom-houses, post-offices, collector's bureaus, legislatures and Congress, stealing by the gross. It marched away from the White House lately with ninety large boxes in charge, and left the President's Mansion gutted. It has marched with its mortal counterpart Ben. Butler from New Orleans to Lowell, and through all the Departments at Washington, and it is still further proposed to keep this essence of abolitionism on the march until the white man, in all his political and social rights, is supplanted by the negro. That is the programme, and it is in a fair way of being carried out, unless the devil should suddenly put down his heel on old "Ossawatomie" Brown.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE OPERA-HOUSE.—The largest audience of the week graced the auditorium of the Opera-House last evening, to witness the entertainment for the benefit of Miss Kitty Blanchard. The "French Spy" was well put up, and the petite Kitty did all that could be expected of her. She is certainly the most graceful and respectable representative of that difficult part we have seen for many a day. She was well supported by Messrs. Duncan, Green and Hayden; a repetition of the piece would insure even a larger audience.

Her impersonation of Wan the Good-for-nothing was good, and the piece was generally commme il faut.

To-night she appears as Capitola Black in the "Hidden Hand," being her last appearance during this engagement. "We shall meet, but we shall miss her." The chair will not be found vacant, however, for next week we are to have the gifted actress and authoress Miss Matilda Heron. The bare announcement of her name is a sufficient card to fill the house from "pit to dome," and the managers deserve great credit for the success of their efforts in giving us so rich a treat. Miss Heron will make her debut on Monday evening next, in Camille, her own, original part. She plays her own translation from the French of Dumas' "Lady of the Camelias," and the elite and fashionable to witness the fate of a dear[illegible]

BECKET HALL.—Green's Mocking Bird Minstrels are giving nightly entertainments at Becket Hall on Friday evening next, in their inimitable concerts. Let this fact be kept in mind.

REMEMBERED.—We had the pleasure, on last evening, of meeting the jolly, good humored comedian, Harry Davies. He had just arrived from the home in Jeffersville, and comes to do the funny at the Opera House, taking the place of Mr. Coles. He will make his first appearance on Monday evening next.

THE MEDARY MONUMENT.—As our readers are already apprized, it is proposed to erect a Monument to the memory of the late Samuel Medary. This is intended as a tribute, by the Democracy of Ohio, to one of their noblest champions. A meeting of the friends of the measure was held at Columbus on the 27th of January, and an association organized, of which Hon. A. G. Thurman is President; Dr. William Trevitt, Treasurer, and W. S. V. Prentiss, Secretary. At this meeting it was Resolved, That subscriptions to the Monument be forwarded to Dr. Trevitt, the Treasurer, and that the amounts, with the names of the donors, be published, from time to time, in the Democratic papers of Columbus, Ohio, the total amount being carried forward from one publication to another.

Resolved, That the friends of the Monument in the several counties of the State, and elsewhere, be and they are hereby respectfully requested to interest themselves in the matter, and forward the subscriptions from their respective localities.

We have no doubt that the many friends of the late Governor Medary in this county will be glad to embrace the opportunity thus offered of contributing something toward the erection of a suitable Monument to perpetuate his memory. Large sums are not expected from any one, the object being to make the Monument a popular tribute from the people to a friend of the people. Any money sent to Dr. Wm. Trevitt, Columbus, Ohio, will be properly acknowledged and applied.

LITTLE MIAMI RAILROAD.—An election for Directors of the Little Miami Railroad Company was held in Cincinnati on the 30th ult., and the following gentleman were elected:

W. H. Clement, Nathaniel Wright, Jos. R. Swan, James Hicks, Jr., Henry Hamm, Joseph C. Butler, Alphonso Taft, Charles H. Kilgour, Abram Hivling, John Bacon, Joseph Torrence, Larz Anderson.

The following gentlemen were subsequently elected officers for the ensuing year:

President—W. H. Clement; Superintendent—E. W. Woodward; Auditor—D. G. A. Davenport; Treasurer—S. E. Wright; Secretary—C. H. Kilgour.

MONUMENT TO OHIO SOLDIERS.—It has been determined to erect a monument to commemorate the names and the deeds of the gallant men of Ohio who fell in the late war. An organization has been perfected, styled the "Ohio Monument Association," of which Governor Cox is President. The Columbus Journal says that the Executive Committee of the Association met in the Governor's Room in the Capitol, Wednesday evening. Governor Cox, Auditor Goodman, Surgeon McDermott, Parsons, Dechler, Gilmore, Coggeshall, Dyer and Janney were present, comprising the whole Board. The rule restricting subscriptions to the Monument fund to one dollar, was stricken out, and the people are invited to contribute any amount they feel able. It is the purpose of the Committee to push the collections, and have the monument erected at an early day.

INTERESTING TO RAILROAD TRAVELERS.—The following "rules of the road" are based upon legal decisions made at various times, and may prove of general interest. The Courts have decided that applicants for tickets on railroads can be ejected from the cars if they do not offer the exact amount of the fare. Conductors are not bound to make change. All railroad tickets are good until used, conditions "good for this day only," or others admitting time of greater ness, are of no account. Passengers who lose their tickets can be ejected from the cars unless they purchase a second one. Passengers are bound to observe decorum in the cars, and are obliged to comply with all reasonable demands to show their tickets. Standing on the platform or otherwise violating the rules of the company renders a person liable to be put from the train. No person has a right to monopolize more seats than he has paid for; and any articles left in the seat while the owner is temporarily absent entitles him to his seat on his return.

HOW THEY PAY TAXES IN HAMILTON CO.—The Commercial of Thursday, says:

In the County Treasurer's office the opening of envelopes, of which there were several bushels, containing greenbacks, for payment of taxes, has just got through with—the amount counted up, footing $1,200,000—being nearly twice the sum that was paid in over the counter.

TREGLER HOUSE.—The saloon formerly kept by John Colsmier, and known as the Merchants' Exchange, was taken charge of by the subscribers Wednesday morning, January 31, 1866. The saloon has been thoroughly refitted, and it is the intention of the undersigned to make it first-class in every respect.

WIT AND WISDOM.

THE NEGRO JUBILEE—"WHAR'S DE TICKETS:

"Chalk and ivory! Heels and shins!
Sambo's glory now begins!
De way white man! You don't know
How to vote right—dat is so.
Yaw, yaw, yaw! Yaw, yaw, yaw!
De happies day I ebber saw.

What's de tickets—Fetch em straighs,
I voted early—I voted late—
I voted often—I voted right—
I's no ignoramus, white
Man and brudder—equal born—

De called I was from Africa!
Oh kinky, kinky, kinky oh!
If dis ain't glory, tell me so."

There is a great deal of theology in the idea of the little girl who wished that she could be good without obeying her grandmother. She said it was easy enough to read good books and to pray, but it was pretty hard to mind grandmother.

You have plenty of weal in your place, said an illiterate butcher to the owner, who was standing in the yard with a lot of calves. Yes, and woe too, said the poor man, misunderstanding his meaning, having lost his wife and one child the day before.

"You can't deny that we have mustered some of the finest armies ever seen on this globe," haughtily said the rebel General Wade Hampton to Kilpatrick, during the negotiation of Johnson's surrender to Sherman. "Yes," quietly replied the dashing cavalryman, "you mustered 'em and we peppered 'em."

Why is a stock gambler like a railroad train? Because he may be expected to smash up at any moment.

"Old age is coming upon me rapidly," as the archbishop said when he was stealing apples from an old man's garden, and saw the owner coming, cowhide in hand.

What is the difference between a mosquito bar and a bar-room? One is closed tightly to keep suckers out, the other is kept open to draw suckers in.

I feel thick, said a fleshy, lisping damsel, to her landlord, after eating a hearty dinner. Yes, said he, you look quite fat after the meal. Oh fie! you mistake I thaid I feel thick at the stomach. Yes, said he, I understand, thick around the waist. She arose and fled in disgust.

A girl who had become tired of single blessedness thus wrote to her intended husband: "Dear Bill, come rite off if you're comin' at all. Edward Reiderman is insistin' that I shall have him, and he hugs and kisses me so continually that I can't hold out much longer."

"My dear Polly, I am surprised at your taste in wearing another woman's hair on your head," said Mr. Smith to his wife. "My dear Jos, I am equally astonished that you persist in wearing another sheep's wool on your back."

HOPING TO PUT A MAN OFF THE CARS.—What is the matter with you, you scrawney little wretch, said a vixen of a wife to her poor hen-pecked husband as he came in at the gate with a scratched and bloody face. Why, why, said the poor devil, trembling from head to foot, I just helped to put a man out of the cars. You did, ha! she fairly screamed, why any kind of a man could hurl you head foremost through the panels of the window. Yes, just so, said the little wretch, that is the way I went; I found I had to go, so, as the man pitched I sprang with it, thinking the faster I went through the less I'd be scratched. The vixen led him into the house by the nose.

"How do you like the character of St Paul?" asked a person of his landlady one day during a conversation about the old Saints and the apostles. "Ah! he was a good, clever old soul, I know, for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions, for conscience's sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."

PROVED TOO MUCH.—A story is related of a Judge of one of the New York Courts, who is not remarkable for the excellence of his morals, or the correctness of his deportment. He was trying a case, not long since, in which suit had been brought against a woman for keeping a house of ill repute, and one of the witnesses, a habitue of the place, was asked what he had seen in the establishment. The witness declined to answer. The Judge insisted, and finally threatened the man with incarceration unless he made immediate response.

"Well, if I must, I must," said the witness. "The last time I was there, I remember distinctly that the Court was there also, and very drunk, and the proprietress of the concern was busily engaged in putting him out."

"Stop! stop!" cried the Judge, at this stage of the proceedings. "We wish to hear nothing more from that most untrustworthy witness."

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Columbus.

[Special Dispatch to Cincinnati Enquirer.]

COLUMBUS, February 2.

There was no legislation to-day in the House. No quorum in the Senate—hard to get, and still harder to retain one. Both Houses adjourned until three o'clock on Tuesday.

The temporary appropriation bill was not passed. The Auditor of State refused the members orders for their pay—appropriation exhausted—great suffering.

Free railroad passes enabled the members to go home. Landlords are generally willing to trust them until they return.

Bad feeling exists because the Legislature did not pass a bill to allow State officers to take money out of the Soldiers' Relief Fund, and the refusal of members' pay is attributable to this fact. Members have mostly gone home.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, February 2.

The pressure upon the radicals in regard to the Freedmen's Bureau bill was so strong as to compel them to postpone the vote upon it in the House until Monday, to allow Kentucky to be heard. This was accomplished by direct personal appeals to Mr. Colfax, and to Mr. Elliot, Chairman of the Committee on Freedmen. The bill will be thoroughly ventilated by Mr. Marshall, of Illinois, and Messrs. Rousseau, Ritter and Shanklin, of Kentucky.

Mr. Brooks administered a scathing rebuke to the radicals to-day, and achieved a signal victory in compelling them to withdraw a motion to reconsider a resolution to have his testimony in his contested election case printed.

In the Senate, two Senators, besides Mr. Cowan, voted with the conservatives against the second of Mr. Trumbull's negro bills; they were Messrs. Norton and Van Winkle.

The President bears Stevens' attack smilingly. He threatens an early and thorough onslaught on officials bearing executive appointments.

The unintentional insertion of a word only in the abstract of the bill regulating the elective franchise in the District of Columbia, reported by Senator Anthony, was a material error. The bill grants the right of suffrage to all such persons as were entitled to vote in 1865, and to all others who may reside here one year prior to any election, and who are qualified. It makes no distinction of color.

Papers relative to the organization of an Imperial Mexican express company to this country, under the authority of the so-called Emperor, Maximillian, were transmitted to the House to-day by the President. On October 29, 1865, Senor Romero called the attention of the Secretary of State to this exercise of authority by an adventurer called Don Fernando Maximilian, of Hapsburg.

Under date of November 1, Mr. Seward says: When such agents, or citizens of the United State acting with them, shall infringe in any way the laws or treaties of the United States, or the laws of nations affecting the Republic, then proper measures of redress will be promptly taken.

The following message, from the President, was received by the House to-day:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

Believing the commercial interests of our country would be promoted by a formal recognition of independence of the Dominican Republic, and while such recognition would be in entire conformity with the settled policy of the United States, I have with that view, nominated to the Senate an officer of the same grade with the one now accorded to the Republic of Hayti, and I recommend that an appropriation be made by Congress toward providing for his compensation. ANDREW JOHNSON.

From New York.

NEW YORK, February 2.

A weekly paper states, as if by authority, that it feels warranted in saying to the public, that the revelations of last Tuesday will justify us in announcing now that the Government has decided that Jefferson Davis shall be tried for treason and other high crimes, before a military commission.

The significant summons to Washington therefore of such distinguished generals as Sherman, Sheridan and Meade, and the recent arrival also of Barton Harris, who was the private Secretary of Davis during the rebellion, may now be understood.

At a recent meeting of the Northern Pacific Railroad, held in Boston, it was announced as a plan of the company to enter upon the immediate construction of seven hundred miles of the road, connecting the waters of Lake Superior with the navigable waters of the Columbia River. The work is to be completed in three years.

Fenian Excitement in Canada.

[Special to the Cincinnati Enquirer.]

PORT HURON, MICH., Feb. 2.

The address of the Canadian Fenian Brotherhood to the American Fenians has just been received, dated yesterday, declaring their confidence in O'Mahony. They denounce the proposition to invade Canada, and pledge themselves to join their American brethren for the liberation of Ireland.

There is intense excitement in all Upper Canada, through fear of a raid from the Fenians. Troops are under arms. Engines are fired up to run off the rolling stock of railways from the frontier points at the first notice of alarm.

From Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 2.

The Junction City (Kansas) Union says the Commissary and Quartermaster's warehouse at Fort Riley was burned on Wednesday. The loss is estimated at one million dollars. Nothing was saved.

Great excitement prevails at Cass Jackson, Lafayette County, Missouri, on account of the threatened organization of the old bushwackers to attempt to rescue some of their number now in jail.

Fire at New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., February 2.

The large bolt factory of the Screw Manufacturing Company, at Plantsville, was destroyed by fire this evening. The fire made a rapid and clean sweep. A large number of persons are, by this disaster, thrown out of employment. No further particulars have been received.

Fire at Ottawa, Illinois.

OTTAWA, ILL., February 2.

Eleven stores and several other buildings, all wooden, were destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is heavy and mostly insured.

Swindler Arrested.

ST. LOUIS, February 2.

Gen. [illegible], who has been engaged in various swindling operations in different parts of the country, was arrested here to-day.

Monetary and Commercial.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of this morning contains the following:

There were startling rumors on Third street yesterday—rumors of a character to astound the most incredulous of the denizens of that vicinity. It was stated, and by some believed, that a prominent business man, a banker and emigrant agent, had suddenly disappeared from the scenes of his usefulness.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, February 2.—Money is active at 6@6 per cent. for call loans. Sterling is dull and nominal at 109¾@109¾. Gold is firm opening at 140¼, declining to 139¾, and closing at 140¾.

Cincinnati Markets.

CINCINNATI, February 2.

FLOUR—An unchanged and steady market. Superfine is in demand at $7@7 50; extra at $8@9; family at $9 25@10; and fancy at $10 25@11.

GRAIN—Wheat is steady and in demand at $2 22 for prime old red, and $1 80@1 85 for No. 1 new. Corn in large supply, but the demand is good at 64@65c. for No. 1 bellied. Oats are in better demand; No. 1 are held at 36c, with buyers at 35@35½c, and new at 36@37c. Rye is steady at 75c. for No 1.

GROCERIES—There has been no material change in the market. The demand is fair at 25@31c. for fair to choice Rio Coffee; 18@19c. for Raw sugar; 19@19½c. for hard refined; 20@20½c. for N. Orleans.

WHISKY—Small sales of free are occasionally made at $2 22@2 24; but in lots prices are nominal, and it could not be forced at over $2 20. Bonded is quoted at 98c.
