GENUINE BARGAINS

Genuine bargains in clothing are scarcer'n hens-teeth till you strike the When atmosphere. There genuine-ness begins.

The window of BOYS' $3 SUITS

Are representatives in their particular line. You'll go a long way and cross many a slippery threshold to pay four, five dollars for such sights unless you give our ads. some little show of credence.

A pretty good one on pants comes across the counter.

"I bought a pair of those things they call pants, which they're selling so many quarters below nothing. Wore them to my work in the morning; come home in a barrel at noon; went immediately to bed and sent my wife to the When for a pair of pants.

"I'm working in 'When' pants this afternoon and all they cost was 75 cents."

There is a difference in pants.

If you want all the protection, wear and looks your money stands for, keep in mind at all times that the When Clothiers are manufacturers as well as retailers, and for your interest and theirs they draw the line taut between poor and good and make only such garments as will give satisfactory wear, whatever the price.

OVERCOAT

Business is booming, and why shouldn't it, with reliable garments at $2, $4, $8 $10 and $12, without a word about how much they were and how much the reduction?

If you want an overcoat, come to the When without fail.

SENATORIAL STRUGGLES.

Exciting Scenes in the Joint Session of the Indiana Legislature—Result in Doubt.

C. S. Senators Chosen in Several States.—(Continued from the New Jersey Legislature.)—Spies-Van Zandt—Telegraph for the Republican Readers.

Special to the Republic: INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 19.—The joint session of the house and senate was organized by President pro tem, of the senate, Green Smith. A peace resolution was reported from the joint conference committee authorizing Speaker Sayre, of the house, to preside over the convention and allowing protests to the votes of members whose seats are in contest. Mr. Niblocke nominated David Turner, and the nomination was seconded by Mr. Parker.

Senator Huston nominated Hon. Benjamin Harrison, and in a brilliant speech Mr. Griffith, of Marion county, seconded the nomination. The speech was greeted by fully five minutes of tumultuous applause. Mr. Glover presented the name of J. H. Allen, which was seconded by Mr. Johnson.

On roll-call Senator Robinson (republican) objected to the votes of Senators Brannaman, Johnson and Smith.

Thereupon the democratic senators protested against allowing any of the republican senators to vote. This rally caused considerable laughter and confusion.

The first ballot was taken and resulted as follows: Harrison, 71; Turple, 75; Allen, 4. The excitement at this time was intense, but subsided.

A motion to adjourn was lost.

The second ballot was taken and resulted the same as the first. The convention then adjourned until noon, tomorrow.

A SHERIFF'S NERVE.

He Positively Refuses to Allow the Spies-Van Zandt Marriage to Take Place.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Sheriff Mason positively refused to allow the marriage of Spies, the condemned anarchist, and Mina Van Zandt to take place. He says: "I am surprised that her parents have even permitted the girl to visit the jail, and much more that they would consent to let her go to prison, and that they will not attempt to save their own child from a never-ending shame and disgrace. I shall see to it that Spies is given the best of care, and that he is given the best of food."

Miss Van Zandt appeared quite indifferent to the sheriff's decision, and refused to be interviewed on the subject. Miss Van Zandt was refused access to Spies this morning.

A STARTLING STATEMENT.

General Smith Makes Various Charges Against General U. S. Grant.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Jan. 19.—The Free Press this morning prints the full text of a letter written in July, 1864, by General Wm. S. Smith to the late Senator Foster, a small portion of which was published in the September number of the Century Magazine.

In the letter General Smith charges General U. S. Grant with intoxication and with surreptitiously procuring liquor, and intimates that General Grant relieved him from the command of the Eighteenth Corps to please General Butler, and from fear that Butler would expose his (Grant's) intoxication.

A YELLING MOB.

Wild Scene of Confusion in the New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, Jan. 19.—In the House this morning the contested election case of Walker vs. Jones was taken up. A scene of great confusion ensued. The democrats protested against certain rulings of the speaker, and the proceedings degenerated into a yelling at the top of their voices.

Threats were made to pull the speaker from the chair. While the yelling continued papers were scattered about the chamber, and the democrats, finally, when all absentees were brought in, the noise ceased, and Walters (democrat) was declared entitled to a seat and was immediately sworn in.

Big Fire at Alliance.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.—A special from Alliance, Ohio, reports a big fire raging there, the loss already reaching more than $100,000. The fire started in Evans & Co.'s shoe store, about 3 o'clock this morning, and spread quickly to the adjoining buildings on both sides. At 10 o'clock six brick buildings had been totally destroyed and the fire was still raging.

Later dispatches state that the flames were extinguished without further damage. Six three-story buildings were burned out, and two others were badly damaged by fire and water. The total loss will be about $150,000, probably two-thirds covered by insurance.

Amendments offered by Messrs. Crisp, Anderson, Holman and Henley were agreed to, and the joint resolution was passed.

The joint resolution provides that the secretary of the interior be authorized to appoint and fix the compensation of three competent persons, said compensation not to exceed $5,000 per annum to each and the necessary traveling expenses and board bills, for which the proper vouchers shall be returned, to be approved by the secretary of the interior, and also to appoint a stenographer, if necessary, and fix his compensation, whose duty it shall be to examine into the working and financial management of the Pacific railroads (or such thereof as may seem expedient) that have received aid from the government in bonds or land; $30,000 is appropriated to the purposes of the investigation.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

A Hungarian Trunk Does Terrible Damage in a Baggage Car.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.—The baggage car attached to the New York limited express, which arrived here at 10 o'clock yesterday night, was almost blown to pieces by dynamite, or some other terrible explosive, a few miles east of Altoona. Pa. Baggage-master Harry Minges was pretty badly hurt. The trunk was put on the train at Duaneburg, near Harrisburg, and checked through to Pittsburgh. Minges, who was arranging the trunks in the car, was standing on an ordinary trunk and threw it on top of some other baggage. An explosion followed which lifted the top of the car as though it was made of paper and scattered its fragments in all directions. The owner of the trunk was arrested when he presented his check. He said that he was a Hungarian contractor and that his name was John Kaceman. He came from Hazleton in search of work, and strenuously denies that there was any explosive in his trunk.

John Mack Badly Used Up in a Fight and Then Locked Up.

Last night a lively racket occurred at the boarding house of John Mack, near the East street shows. Mack got drunk and insulted one of his boarders, named James Patton, and the latter proceeded to whip Mack in the most approved style. When Patton got through with Mack, the latter's own mother would have scarcely known him. He was badly beaten, and his head was gashed terribly. Patton skipped, and the police did not get him, but they arrested Mack. The gash on Mack's head was sutured together by Dr. W. H. Harkness, which the fellow, who was still pretty drunk, was lodged in the station-house.

Martin for the railroad, agreed upon a confessed judgment today of $200 for the plaintiff, the road to pay the costs.
