

Do not blame a bachelor, if he lacks a single life, if he lacks a single life, if he lacks a single life...

What has become of all the money? The Herald started an inquiry the other day that we should like to see answered...

It is in this direction that the Herald must look for a solution to the question. If you inquire at Ball, Black & Co., you will ascertain that since 1850 they have worked up...

To CLEAN BRASS.—Clean a brass kettle before using it for cooking, with salt and vinegar. Brass and iron should be done up in paper and put in a dry place during the summer.

BRITANNIA WARE.—Britannia ware should be first rubbed gently with a wooden cloth and sweet oil, then wash in warm soda and rubbed with soft leather and wringing.
