By order of Rep. Ex. Com.
JOHN T. RAPER, Sec'y.

THE warnings of the German authorities against emigration to South America appear to be fully justified. Eighty emigrants have just returned from Brazil to Berlin in a miserable condition, having been forwarded from Antwerp at the expense of the German Consul At Hanover several residents supplied them with provisions and clothes.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY is on the war path to refute another slander, that of the girl Bessie, who testifies that she caught the frisky Susan seated on the lap of the fascinating Tilton. Susan denies this in toto, and her word is good enough in this instance, whatever a cold world might think of her at other times.

MR. N. F. DAY, a man of large means in Bristol, Vermont, left by will five thousand dollars to help pay the public debt, and his executor has paid over the money to Secretary Bristow. This is an exhibition of practical patriotism worthy of imitation.

THE Republicans of Jackson have put in nomination the following gentlemen. For Infirmary Director. W. S. Shellenger; for Prosecuting Attorney, J. L. Jones; for Commissioner, Geo. W. Brown; for Sheriff, R. W. Hubbard.

MRS. TILTON and Mrs. Ovington, of Brooklyn, are now camping out at Lake Waumaug, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Congressional Convention.

On the 27th of August, the Republican Congressional Convention assembled at Portsmouth, at 11 o'clock, and was called to order by James W. Bannon. On motion Mr. Little of Hocking, was chosen chairman, and the appointment of a Secretary was dispensed with.

Mr. Johnson, of Lawrence, moved that Hon. Hezekiah S. Bundy be declared the nominee of the Convention, which was carried unanimously.

On motion of Captain A. B Cole, of Scioto, the existing Congressional District Committee was extended for the ensuing two years.

The convention then adjourned.

Death of a Centenarian.

Mrs. Hannah Waits, a colored lady, was buried from the residence of her son-in-law, Wm. Thomas, corner of Twelfth and Findlay streets, last Sunday. She was born in Richmond, Virginia, September 5, 1767, and had she lived until next Saturday she would have been 107 years old. She was born in slavery, and her master moved from Richmond to Tavis Valley when she was between seven and eight years of age. She remembered distinctly being frightened by Washington's soldiers pointing their guns at her in sport, when she was a good sized girl, on the "old plantation." Washington's sergeants were at that time recruiting in that part of Virginia for the revolutionary army, and she remembered vividly the stirring scenes connected therewith. After this the family history is not very distinct up to times within the recollection of her daughter, Mrs. Lucinda Thomas. This lady was born in Cabell County, West Virginia, and she has no definite record of the date when her mother was sold and removed from Eastern Virginia. They all lived in Cabell county in slavery, up to the close of the rebellion, when they were made free, and moved to this city, where they have lived ever since. The The old lady had all her senses up to the time of her death.—She had her second growth of hair, and was in every way remarkably smart for one so old. She died peacefully without a struggle.

CITIZENS of Henryville, Indiana, offer a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the murderer of August Gardner, who was robbed of his money and then tied to a railroad track. Bob Thomas and Lewis E. Clark have been arrested on suspicion of being the murderers, and there are threats of lynching them should the evidence indicate their guilt.

A STATUTE to Daniel Webster, to be placed in Central Park, New York, is offered by Mr. Gordon W. Burnham. The statue is to be of bronze, colossal size, with granite pedestal. The great statesman is certainly deserving of such a memorial.

THE statement is published that a German house at Leipsic, which is publishing a translation of the first volume of Beecher's Life of Christ, has discontinued the publication, and offers for sale at actual cost all on hand in consequence of the disreputable disclosures about Beecher.
