Federation Next Event of Moment.

The next event of moment, which will occupy the center of the stage in Tulsa will be the biennial meeting of the Oklahoma Federation of Women's clubs, which meets here November 10 to 14 inclusive. While this important meeting of women will be of special significance to the club women, all Tulsa is interested in the good things from an intellectual point of view, which are in store for those who attend. The great meeting, all the sessions of which are to be held in the Presbyterian church, will be inaugurated with a meeting of the official board of the state on Monday evening, November 10, with the federation proper will open the following day, Tuesday, November 11 at the Presbyterian church. A reception to honor the presence of the visitors has been arranged for Tuesday evening at the Elks' hall, this to be the important social event of the federation. Wednesday morning, November 12, the work of the convention will be commenced in earnest, the evening session to be known as president's night, when Mrs. Irl A. McDaniel of Sapulpa will give an address. Delightful plans for the evening are underway yet except to Mrs. McDaniel but much of interest is being anticipated for the time. Thursday evening a concert participated in by delegates from the music clubs of the state will be given and on the Friday afternoon following, Mr. Edward Wenner, a noted organist and authority on music in the middle west, will speak before the meeting on the subject of "Good and Bad Music in the Public Schools and Sunday Schools" with the evening of the same day, Mr. Kreiser will appear before the body of club women in recital, the occasion being the compliment of the Hyechka club to the federation. Dainty will be completed by the closing work of the committees. A tea at the Tulsa Country club, an automobile ride over the city and many other smaller courtesies are being planned for the visitors as a whole and individually.

For Miss Benning and Miss Stebbins.

The Misses Ethel and Helen Carter made informal presentation of their guest, Miss Judith Benning of Kansas City, Friday evening, and at the same time extended Miss Gladys Belle Stebbins, next week's bride-elect, the pretty and substantial courtesy of a kitchen shower. Jack o'lanterns and other conceits gave proper honor to the season of Hallowe'en and the evening's diversions were appropriate to the season. As an aid to Miss Stebbins, whose duties as a new housekeeper will be many, the guests were called upon to bestow bowels for her linen chest, the young men of the party bending valuable contributions to the task. Quilt and sheets were combined in the gifts of kitchen furnishings to the bride-elect. At the opening's close Mrs. E. C. Carter, mother of the hostesses, Mrs. Grant C. Stebbins, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. W. A. Jeffrey passed the refreshments of plates containing delicacies appropriate to the season of Hallowe'en. Guests of the evening were Misses and Mesdames Dolph S. Harvey, Charles T. Wilson and Garland Marrs, Mrs. S. A. Lloyd of Wichita, Kan., Misses Estelle Horne, Martin Harmon, Irma McDonald, Mattie Carter, Leona and Ethel Cox, Gladys Brown, Ruth Brooks and Florence Spurgeon, Messrs. Jack Petrie, Stuart Pierce, Mosier, Lawrence Richmond, Dick Bourne, Tom Wilson, Jay Painter, Walter Brown, Stanley Oliver Johnson, Jack Finch, Tom Carnahan, Chesley Dyer and R. Otis Mechling.

Rose and Handkerchief Shower.

A floral shower of rose and handkerchiefs descended upon Miss Lucile Lane, a bride of the week on Monday evening when Miss Alice Monroe was hostess at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Lane on South Cheyenne Ave., entertaining a party of twenty young matrons and girls in Miss Lucile's compliment. Cupids and colors red and white were seen in the decorations of innumerable red lights shed about the rooms and red bells falling at intervals from the ceilings. For diversion the members of the party were asked to write recipes the unscientific containing directions for making most things to eat afterwards passing the pages of a booklet to which the bride will no doubt often turn for reference, as a home maker and keeper. The gifts of hose and handkerchiefs were made by the little Misses Catherine and Louise Lane who came into the midst of the guests carrying gayly decorated red baskets which held the shower for the bride. Refreshments of fruit salad sandwiches, pickles and punch were served. Guests who enjoyed the evening were Mesdames B. C. Conner, Ray Fellows, J. W. Cheney, Augustus Edwards, O. G. Watt and the Misses Adelia Berry, Ethel Williams, Ethel and Faye Elliott, Mary Bunch, Helena Schenk, Carol Eesley, Maxine Emmons, Winifred McMichael, Edith Thurman, Flo and Kate North, Ella and Florence McMichael and Helen Cunningham.

Dancing Party for Group of Visitors.

The event of the week among the younger girls and boys of society was the dance of which Messrs. William Nelson and Clyde Fixmer were hosts Tuesday evening at the Elks' club. The affair was to honor a group of visitors in the city, including Miss Lorena Crace, daughter of Governor Lee Cruce, Miss Alice Wilson of Oklahoma City, the Misses Nelne Russell and Doris DeValon and Messrs. Jay Bexell and Francis Johns of Muskogee, Mr. and Mrs. James Thorpe and other members of the Giant-White Sox teams among them Messrs. Lee Meece, Wilks and Weavers. Chaperones of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frey, Mrs. R. S. Lynn, Mrs. E. R. Perry and Mrs. Scheiffer of Nowata. The Hummigat orchestra of six pieces played for the dancing. Among those in the party in addition to the guests honored were the Misses Lura Lynn, Grace Hane, Marie Wheeler, Kathleen Lewis, Edith Lynn, Florence Kuhns, Ruth Bridy, Lillian Rauch, Patti Arthur, Marie Kinney, Olga Lasmon, Ethel Kuhns, Frances Breach, Helen Hartman, Helen Neyes, Beryl Butler, Norma Miller, Myrtle Sanderson and the Misses Alexander and Josephine Nye of Nowata, Messrs. Earl Crandle, Bill Bailey, Pat Lewis, Ed Shields, Earl and Mert Duffield, Bernard Gillespie, Forest Kramer, Ray Hubbard, Eddie Suppes, Paul Reid, Carl Cox, Mark Rouse, Tom McAlister, Gene Elder, Allen Butts, Tom Rhodes, John Cruse, Walter Nelson, Harold Delaney, Al Avery, Carl Probst, John McMahon, Eugene Braden and Ed Payne.

Friday Bridge Club Opening.

The matrons of the Friday bridge club were 'at home' Friday evening with Mrs. E. B. Miller, of Carleton Place, entertaining their husbands at the opening meeting of the 1913-1914 season, with a delightful Hallowe'en affair. The club composed mainly of matrons who formerly lived in Robinson, Ills., and which has for the past two seasons been a club without a name, has this year taken the name of Friday bridge. Pumpkin lanterns and other Hallowe'en conceits combined with yellow chrysanthemums, decorated the entertaining rooms, wherein six tables were placed for the playing of bridge. Mrs. Floyd J. Bradford made high score among the matrons trophy being a handsome sewing set in leather case. Of the men players Mr. Paul Madansky scored highest, his award being a pottery set of scissors and paper cutter. The game was followed by the serving of a delicious dinner and five course at the card tables. Guests of the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames A. M. Meeks, J. H. Brooks, C. E. Dent, L. C. Wells, T. L. Munroe, C. W. Titus, F. J. Bradford, Paul Madansky, H. M. Baker, Clyde Pape, J. R. Ramsey, Mrs. Kessler of Robinson, Ills., Mrs. H. A. Russell, Miss Irene Held of Hot Springs, Kansas and Miss Tracy of St. Louis.

Youngsters Guests at 'Stag' Party.

Mrs. A. G. Hooper entertained a party of several boys, who are friends of Master Douglas Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, with a 'stag' Friday evening, honoring Master Douglas' tenth birthday anniversary. Hallowe'en pranks were played and a treat of the season's goodies was given the boys.

To Give Program of Readings.

Mrs. Jeanette Sargent-Haskell, widely known as a reader and impersonater, has arrived in Tulsa and will give a program Monday evening at the First Christian church. Mrs. Haskell, in addition to a generous share of natural talent, has had the advantage of several years' European travel, which makes her a most interesting entertainer. During her visit in Tulsa, Mrs. Haskell will be entertained by Mrs. Lena Smith, an old-time friend.

Luncheon.

Mrs. W. Albert Cook paid the delightful compliment of a luncheon to Mrs. John A. Woodard, a bride of a few months and her sister and guest, Miss Grace Campbell of Chattanooga, Tenn., on Monday. Invitations were extended to a company of the young matrons and the older girls of society who were met at the door by small Miss Elizabeth Cook, daughter of the hostess, in the guise of a Hallowe'en sprite, and informally received by Mrs. Cook and the two honorees. Sprays of beautifully colored autumn leaves were used profusely throughout the house. Hallowe'en was duly honored in the dining room, where light was given by many smiling Jack-o'-lanterns. A large pumpkin face topped off with numerous yellow and white candles was the table centerpiece and around which all sorts of Hallowe'en conceits were effectively placed. The place cards held appropriate favors, which the guests took home with them after enjoying the elegant menu of five courses. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Governor and Party Honored.

The week's visit of Governor Lee Cruce and party to Tulsa ended Friday night with a delightful box party at the Grand theater, which was a courtesy from the management to the visitors and several prominent Tulsans who were in the party. All the lower boxes of the east side of the house, which had been decorated in the official colors of the week, confirmed with big pumpkin lanterns, expressive the spirit of Hallowe'en were reserved for the official party, every member of whom enjoyed the performance most heartily. In the party were Governor Lee Cruce, Miss Lorena Cruce, Miss Adah Bennett, Miss Lavinia Woods, Adjutant General Frank M. Canton, Mrs. Canton, Lieutenant Charles A. Thuis, Mrs. Thuis, Captain E. B. Clark, F. S. E. Amos, Captain Edgar Waite, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hunt and daughter and their guests, Mr. W. A. Hunt of Calgary, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus S. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burr Gibbons and Mrs. C. A. Sanderson.

On Hallowe'en.

The young women of the XII club were guests of Miss Mabel Douthett at a jolly Hallowe'en affair Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Taylor on South Boston Ave. Black cats peered from the corners of the rooms, by the light from many Jack-o'lanterns and other appropriate conceits together with yellow chrysanthemums completed the decorations. After assembling in the Taylor home the guests formed a party to the Governor's reception, afterwards returning to the scene of witches and sprites for a series of Hallowe'en games. Miss Josephine Ruch carried off the prize for performing the evening's feats. The refreshments plates passed at the evening's close consisted of the godies of the season of Hallowe'en. Miss Douthett's guests were the Misses Josephine Ruch, Mildred Kelsey, Lillian Mashason, Charlotte Barton, Aline Vawter and Jeanette Cody.

Miss Clark Hostess.

The matrons of the Tuesday bridge club were guests of Miss Sarah Henry Clark Wednesday afternoon, Miss Clark acting as hostess in the home of her sister Mrs. Arthur G. Hooper of South Cincinnati Ave., with whom she is spending the winter. Several rounds of bridge were played, ending with Mrs. George Berry holding high score. Her favor for superior skill at the game was a hand embroidered lunch cloth the work of the hostess. Consolation favors were awarded Mrs. Charles E. Dent. As a final touch to the delightful afternoon the guests were bidden to the dining room, where the witches and black cats of the 'scotch' of Hallowe'en, prevailed. A large Jack-o'-lantern grimaced to the guests from the center of the table, which was done in the season's conceits and from which refreshments were served. Mrs. Charles E. Dent invited to club to play in her home next week.

Mrs. Scott Brings Honors From Nurses' Meeting.

Mrs. Kate B. Scott of South Main street, who with Miss Solliday and Miss Pankley, also of this city, has been in attendance at the Oklahoma State Association of Graduate Nurses in El Reno the past week, returned home yesterday, bringing the honors of election as Oklahoma's delegates to the national association meeting in St. Louis next June. The association is identified with the Oklahoma Federation of Women's clubs and will be represented by three delegates at the meeting here in two weeks. Mrs. Idora Scroggs of Norman, Mrs. Scott and Miss Etta McAllister of this city will sit as delegates from the nurses of Oklahoma in the meeting. Enid was voted as the place of the state meeting next year.

BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS-PAPE'S

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound relieves all grippe misery.

Don't stay stuffed up!

Quit blowing and sniffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages, stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and cost only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.—Adv.
