TULSA BOY TWIRLED FOR THE PRODUCERS

FORESMAN LET THE ORPHANS DOWN WITH ONLY 6 HITS.

WAS A LISTLESS GAME

Tulsa Won In the Eighth By Batting In Five Runs.

"Red" Foresman, a Tulsa native, may go back for several years to find a better record of amateurism than that of any other pitcher, and the record for the Producers yesterday was no exception. Foresman pitched the orphans down to four hits in the ninth inning, the record of the game being set for the most striking out with an even and down strike.

The game was one of the most listless pitched here this year. Tulsa led in the first to 3 to 0. By the end of the game both teams had hit only one run.

Although Foresman was a professional ball player, he was steady at all times and pitched a fairly good game. John Young, who has attended to high school baseball since the time of his last year, will likely pitch in Tulsa's minor. Young is a Tulsa lad and has entered the local high school to study electrical.

That man who holds a berth on the Tulsa team tomorrow will be a Tulsa boy. Foresman pitched a listless game, but he was steady at all times and pitched a fairly good game. John Young, who has attended to high school baseball since the time of his last year, will likely pitch in Tulsa's minor. Young is a Tulsa lad and has entered the local high school to study electrical.
