ALL PEACEFUL SO FAR

Only Thing the Soldiers Have Aroused Is Much Curiosity.

PRABLER CRACK, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Under the protection of the United States troops an effort will be made at once to resume operations of the Pacific Electric company's mine No. 7. This statement came from reliable sources here today and it is generally believed that Franklin Denny, president of the company and appointed by the federal court as receiver, now is in the federal prison awaiting trial for this work.

This mine was the scene of the big battle of July 12 between the mine owners and the soldiers and miners then employed by the company. At the same time the surface workings, valued at $4,000,000, also were burned, since it has been held in custody since it is thought that the mine owners would be able to get the mine back in operation.

Although there are only a handful of miners now residing at Prabler, scores of thousands of soldiers visited the mine's camp during the day. No signs of hostility to the presence of the troops was noticeable. Major McClure has issued orders, however, holding the troops away from the mine's camp. Later, it was stated, the command may be separated, one troop going to Hartford, and another to Midland.

The federal grand jury, which was called today at Fort Smith to investigate the Hartford Valley disturbances, adjourned at noon today until November 17 to enable Judge Frank Youmans to hold the regular session of court at Hot Springs, Ark. COTTON LOAN PLAN VIOLATES NO LAW

ATTORNEY GENERAL DECLARES LOAN FUND IS LEGAL.

Gave the Opinion at the Request of the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—No federal law is violated by the cotton loan fund plan, recently perfected by bankers and members of the federal reserve board, according to an opinion handed down late today by Attorney General Gregory at the request of President Wilson.

The plan was perfected recently by bankers and members of the federal reserve board and Mr. Gregory's opinion was rendered after his conference today with President Wilson. The treasury department made public tonight the following correspondence: What Wilson Said. Writing Mr. Gregory, the president said: "I am sending the enclosed papers, submitted to me by the secretary of the treasury, in order to ascertain whether, in your opinion, the proposed 'cotton loan fund' may be lawfully formed. I know that it is contrary to the practice of the department to give opinions beforehand on contemplated transactions and I think that such opinions ought never in ordinary circumstances to be given, but the circumstances with regard to the handling of the great cotton crop which has been created by the European war are most extraordinary and seem to justify extraordinary action. It is for that reason that I venture to ask you to depart in this case from the usual practice of your department."

"It occurs to me that the fund contemplated stands in a class by itself. It is a fund of the American people, and arrangements should be made which would be followed in the regular course of business or under ordinary conditions. They are an exceptional case and the circumstances are such that they are meant to deal with and can hardly be looked upon as, by possibility even, dangerous precedents. It is for this reason that I feel the more I am asking for your opinion in the present case."

"In reply, Mr. Gregory wrote: Gregory's Reply. 'I have the honor to reply to your request for my opinion as to whether the federal anti-trust laws that so-called 'cotton loan fund' are violated by the carrying out of a plan which has been devised for raising and administering a fund of $125,000,000 to be lent on the security of cotton.'"

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTEST IS REPORT

GEISSLER DOES NOT CONCEDE THE ELECTION OF WILLIAMS.

BEGIN OFFICIAL COUNT

Returns From Fifty Counties Indicate Election of Williams by 5,000.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 7.—Returns that contest proceedings will be brought against Judge J. L. Williams of the official count shown on the face of the returns that he has been elected governor were heard in political circles today. Arthur H. Geissler, Republican state chairman, declined to state whether or not contest proceedings were being contemplated. He stated, however, that he does not concede the election of Judge Williams.

"We are waiting for the completion of the official count," said Geissler, "before we can take any action. It is not for me to say as to whether or not we will contest the election of Williams. The official count of 50 out of 77 counties, made in the state election today, shows J. L. Williams, Democrat, 51,000 votes; Arthur H. Geissler, Republican, 46,000 votes. Williams is elected governor by a plurality of about 5,000 votes. The official count from the 50 counties is as follows: Williams, Democrat, 51,000; Geissler, Republican, 46,000. Williams is elected governor by a plurality of about 5,000 votes. The official count from the 50 counties is as follows: Williams, Democrat, 51,000; Geissler, Republican, 46,000. Williams is elected governor by a plurality of about 5,000 votes."

Geore by 10,000. The official report on United States senator in the 50 counties was as follows: Gore, Democrat, 53,212; Burford, Republican, 41,038; Sagle, Socialist, 23,312; Crawford, Progressive, 2,421. Senator Gore's lead over his Republican opponent in the 50 counties is 12,174, indicating that his total plurality over Burford will exceed 60,000 votes. The official results on the state held were not determined by the board today, but as independent compilation made from the official returns on state auditor shows that E. B. Howard, Democrat, secured a plurality over his Republican opponent, George H. Foster, of 23,496 in the 50 counties. This indicates that the Democratic ticket other than on governor will have a plurality over the Republican ticket.

Favored Amendments. The returns on state questions were not canvassed this morning, but indications are that they are all carried. Each of the 50 counties received a majority of from two to one in favor of one in most of the 50 counties received by the state board. The total vote on these, however, fell somewhat below the total vote on the head of the ticket. This is because the counties that the most votes may yet defeat the progressive, although they have double received a big majority of the votes cast upon them. Ed Trapp, elected lieutenant governor, watched the election of the state board, and indicated, as it is possible that the adoption of the West amendment reducing the size of the legislature would abolish the office of lieutenant governor and transfer away with the power now exercised by the lieutenant governor as presiding officer of the state senate.

The state election board this morning also completed the count on members of the state senate. The board showed that Thomas H. McLennan, Socialist, was elected to the legislature from Beckham county and indicated the defeat of C. S. Gilkerson, Democrat, for the state senate from the second district, by a Socialist.

The official returns were signed by Ben Hiley, chairman of the board, and E. A. Haines, a Republican, and J. Morris, Democrat, members of the state election board, as stated in the count. The official count was watched during part of the three personally by Arthur H. Geissler, Republican state chairman, and all of the time by two of his representatives. The Democratic and Progressive headquarters also had representatives present.

Chairman Ben Hiley announced at the conclusion of the session of the board that the count will be resumed at 6 o'clock Monday morning. It is believed that all the returns of the counties will have been made their official returns to the board.

The vote on governor, as captured by the state election board today, gave the following results by county: Williams 1,255; Fields 1,344; Stephens 1,229; Williams 1,273; Fields 873; Oague 1,771; Fields 1,535; Adair 1,182; Fields 1,028; Delaware 1,090; Fields 782; Canadian 1,294; Fields 1,748; Jackson 1,123; Fields 597.
