Monday Offering of $35, $40 and $42.50 Fall Suits at $27.50. There are just half a hundred of these suits—one of a style—for you to choose from. They are long coat suits with French tunics and flared skirts. The materials are fine quality gaberdines, imported chevots, broadcloth and English suitings, in navy blue, prune, Russian green, black and the season's most popular shades. Very attractively trimmed with silk braid, fur and velvet. An assemblage offering a remarkable range of models, materials and colors. Not only ultra-fashionable in style, but faultlessly tailored, exhibiting not only superior quality in the material itself, but in the trimmings, lining and findings. In fact, they're of the usual high grade Harlow quality. Monday only, garments $27.50. —Visit the Garment Section

Two Dress Items That Will Bring You Here Early. New Dresses and Frocks at $19.50. Emphasizing the supremacy of Harlow's as the house of economy, as well as the style center of eastern Oklahoma, $22.50, $25.00, $27.50 and $30.00 Dresses, Monday $19.50. In the offering here Monday will be the newest creations—Cape de Chine, Crepe Meteor, Charmeuse and Velvet and Charmeuse Combinations, and other dependable silks in dark, rich shades. Basque and semi-basque and redingote styles predominate. Long tunic skirts and long waist lines are features. Semi-fitted sleeves and the new Napoleon collar and cuffs of white and self materials gives an added charm to these attractive Dresses. We have never offered better values. Monday $19.50. Serges and Charmeuse Dresses, $9, $12, $15. Perhaps the most wanted dress styles being shown for winter are the Combination Charmeuse effects, always correctly anticipating the demands of our patrons. We show a large and varied collection of these beautiful garments in navy and black. Most all have serge skirts and bodice, with satin sleeves, front or skirt bottoms. The redingote and semi-basque prevails. Some have deep satin girdles. Dame Fashion never has approved a more beautiful style than these clever combinations. The values are very unusual, being especially priced for Monday's selling at $9.00, $12.00 and $15.00.
