Gabs Between Jobs

October 1. Don't forget date. Fine football weather, eh? This affair may finish Carl Morris.

Abc Attoll Sued for Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Sue for divorce was filed today in the superior court against Abe Attell, who lost the world's featherweight boxing title to Johnny Kilbane three years ago at Los Angeles, by his wife, Ethel M. Attell.

TWO NEW OIL TRAINS ON FRISCO

Expected to Greatly Relieve Traffic From Tulsa to Kansas City. Beginning today two special oil trains will be run by the freight department of the Frisco from Tulsa and its vicinity to Kansas City and St. Louis.

Chames Time, who looks after the business affairs of Mr. Ross, is expected to arrive here not later than next Friday.

The business men of Tulsa, who are responsible for bringing such excellent pugilistic exhibitions to this city, are entitled to no little credit.

Harry Lindsey, Jack Scott and Freddie Hermann are the ample gentlemen who are doing the heavy work conditioning Signor Ross for his forthcoming encounter.

One thing's certain about that Tulsa high school football squad. They, every man of them, have the strength and pep, and in football both of these are important.

While a certain gentleman named Ross is not bragging about his qualities as a box fighter, he is certain there can be only one outcome of the October 1 affair. A win for Ross.

You who contemplate witnessing this all-important show are urged to take no chances with your seat reservations. Today may mean disappointment and you shouldn't be disappointed.

This promises to be the best football year in Tulsa's history, and that's saying something, as all years in this particular game have been good. The material is good and should make a good showing.

Now the guys who squawked about Carl Morris being "afraid" of Tulsa's Ross and declined to match with him on account of that fear, are conspicuous because they can't be found around their old stampering grounds.

There are any number of baseball fans in Tulsa who would witness the world series in the east, were it not for the fact that their bank accounts would look like a check account if they drew as much as two-bits therefrom.

The curtain raiser and preliminary of the big October 1 show will be in themselves worth the admission price.

Tony's got the pep and Carl's got the pep. Now we'll see which of these qualities have the making of champion pugilists.

Chames Time, who looks after the business affairs of Mr. Ross, is expected to arrive here not later than next Friday. Confidence? Well!
