SUCCESSES OF ALLES RENEW LONDON CHEER

Anglo-French Troops Occupy Strumitsa and Land at Enos.

STRONG RESISTANCE TO SERBIAN INVADERS

Enemy Plans to Subdue Turkey Before Assistance Can Reach Her.

LONDON, Oct. 18 (10:40 p. m.)—Sir Edward Carson, attorney general, has resigned from the British cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 19 (12:10 a. m.)—Major General Charles Carmichael Murray has been appointed to command the Dardanelles expedition in succession to General Sir Ian Hamilton, who is returning to England to make a report. This appointment is made by the war office.

LONDON, Oct. 18 (10 p. m.)—The reports that the allies have occupied Strumitsa and landed at Enos, which was recently transferred from Turkish to Bulgarian rule, has caused a more optimistic feeling throughout the allied countries.

Give Strong Resistance.

All along the line the Serbians and their Montenegrin neighbors, who also are being attacked, are offering very stubborn resistance to both Austro-Germans and Bulgarians. While they have been a number of towns and positions they have not yet reached the line on which they expect to make their last stand.

A Strategic Point.

On the other hand, it is pointed out, the capture of Strumitsa is of real strategic value as its occupation permits the defense of the southern end of the railway and compels the Bulgarians to keep a force there. Enos, too, is of value as although not a good landing place, its occupation threatens Dedeshtitch, which has a great harbor and is fortified and mined. The civilian population has already fled, leaving the town entirely in the hands of the military under German officers.

The Italians, according to the latest reports, will send a contingent to the Balkans but no operation of their kind in the Aegean where an allied fleet has already gathered, is looked for.

Russians on Offensive.

There has been plenty of heavy fighting on both the eastern and western fronts but in neither case has either side attempted a general offensive. The Germans are still making a great effort between Riga and Dvinsk and have met with some minor successes but there is no Russian advance, wherever there has been any fighting it is the Russians who are attacking, and they, too, claim some gains.

Much the same conditions prevail on the western front. The British have been attacking east of Verdun, according to the Berlin report, while the Germans attacked the French rear between the Vosges. None of these attempts is making any marked alterations in positions of the armies.

Money Order Men to the County Jail.

Committed in Default of $1,000 Each, Following Arraignment.

MEMBERS OF GANG? Police Are Convinced Arrests Were Most Important in Months.

L. E. Custer and O. E. Hoffman, arrested last Saturday night for passing several worthless express company money orders on business people, yesterday were turned over to the county authorities and taken to the county jail, where they will be detained, pending further developments. It is thought the money orders are only two members of an organized band of swindlers, and that ultimately they will give information which may lead to additional arrests.

Important Arrests.

The arrests of Hoffman and Custer, made by Detectives Pete Joyce, Bewley and Harry Stege, are considered the most important of their kind made by the Tulsa police in several months. The men evidently came here with the express intention of passing all the forged Wells Fargo money orders they had. Exactly how many orders were accepted has not yet been ascertained, but at least ten were put out, and additional ones are expected.

SHOE COMPANY DEFENDANT IN BIG TRUST SUIT

United Shoe Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis Is Made Defendant.

ALLEGED UNFAIRNESS TO COMPETITORS

Sell Upon Condition That Purchasers Refuse Goods of Competitors.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—The first important government suit under the Clayton anti-trust act was begun here today by Attorney General Gregory against the United Shoe Machinery company. The petition filed in the federal district court charges the shoe company with unlawful practices that substantially lessen competition and tend to monopolize.

The suit is distinct from that against the same concern under the Sherman anti-trust act, begun several years ago, in which its dissolution as an unlawful trust and prohibition of its operations in restraint of trade was sought and which now is before the United States supreme court. The present action does not seek dissolution but asks the court to enjoin the company perpetually from further engaging in alleged unlawful practices. There also is the usual prayer for such other "general and further relief" as the court may see fit to give.

Seek Temporary Injunction.

One of the unusual features is that the petition contains a request for a temporary order restraining the United Shoe company from resorting to the practices complained of until determination of the suit.

The government's petition charges: "That the United Shoe Machinery company is a monopoly controlling 98 per cent of the trade in shoe machinery in the United States, its principal business being the making and leasing of the machinery."

"That certain instances it has fixed and is fixing the prices of such machinery on the conditions and with the agreement that the lessee or purchaser shall not use the machinery, supplies or other commodities of its competitors."

Alleged Discrimination.

That it grants rebates on prices fixed in some instances in consideration of the use by a lessee or other of its machines; that other leases contain clauses whose effect is to establish prices for machinery to those who agree not to use the machinery supplied by competitors than those who do not so bind themselves.

The petition alleges further that
