F. P. Grode, president and manager of the school and office furniture company, is sanguine over the outlook for the new factory's success. Mr. Grode is active and energetic and will make good. He has just moved his family here from Indiana and now resides at No. 821 East Noble.
Contractor Ben Daugherty of Sulphur is here attending the meeting of the board of regents for the state normal schools.

FRESH TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Modern Woodmen Initiate.
The Modern Woodmen lodge last night initiated several candidates into the mysteries of woodcraft last night at Odd Fellows hall. Thirty candidates secured by Deputy J. M. Fife during the past week were voted in as members, which makes a gain of 116 members for the lodge in three weeks. The lodge will give a box supper and entertainment on Tuesday night, January 25, and a big masquerade ball at the city hall auditorium Tuesday evening, February 1.
Germana Will Give Annual Ball.
A committee is making extensive preparations for the annual German masquerade ball to be given in the city hall auditorium on Thursday evening, February 3.
Kids Having Sport.
There was much sledding today among the school children, many of whom played truant to enjoy the rare sport. It was again quite slippery early this morning following the slight snow, heavy sleet and hard freeze last night. The Patterson Furniture company took advantage of the situation this morning and used a sleigh to help their wagons deliver the goods sold at their pre-inventory sale.
Requisition for Woman.
Governor Haskell is in receipt of requisition papers from the governor of Colorado for Mrs. Tokia Davis, who is said to be under arrest in Oklahoma City. She is wanted on a felony charge.
Divorce Case Transferred.
The divorce case of Helen Tillman vs. Edward C. Tillman was transferred from the district to the superior court Tuesday at request of the plaintiff.
Raided A House Joint.
Sheriff Mahoney late Tuesday afternoon raided an alleged joint under the McDaniels tailor shop, corner Second street and Harrison avenue, and arrested Arthur Nash and another negro charged with selling liquor to a United States witness who filed a complaint. A lot of poker chips and some whiskey was confiscated by the sheriff. One of the negroes was identified by the complainant as the party who had robbed him of $10 when he had purchased some fire water there early in the afternoon.

SHORT CUTS TO THE NEWS

The case of James D. Larkford vs. O. D. Wallace was appealed to the supreme court today from the district court of Atoka county.

The City Federation of Women's clubs will hold a meeting next Saturday at the Carnegie library for the purpose of electing the officers of the body for the ensuing year. The local federation is composed of eight clubs, namely, Acorn, Altrurian (formerly the Excelsior), Cambridge, Domestic Science, Oread (for young women's club), Etude (musical), and the Shakespeare club. The local Benevolent association is also an honorary member of the federation. The meeting next Saturday will be the regular annual meeting of the federation and at the meeting the delegates will be chosen to represent the local federation at the state meeting which will be held in Muskogee some time during the summer or early fall. Delegates will also be chosen to represent the local Federation of Women's clubs to be held at Stillwater some time next May. All the committees of the City Federation will be called upon for their report at the meeting and a general summing up of the year's work will be had and new plans perfected for the work of the new year.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hinton, of 616 East Cleveland avenue, are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Monday.
Mrs. Rogers of Kingfisher is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McNeal and family, on West Cleveland avenue.

Paul McNeal has returned to Cayce, where he is engaged in the banking business, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McNeal.
F. B. Little was elected president of the Carnegie board yesterday, succeeding Mrs. W. L. Rhodes, deceased. Mrs. Frank Dale was re-elected vice president, and Mrs. A. C. Hiss was re-elected secretary and treasurer. The board contemplates making some radical changes in management of the institution later on in the year.
