2:30 to 5:20—Concert at park bandstand.
4 p. m.—Patriotic address by Senator John Golobie.
7:30 to 10:30—Band concert on lake peninsula.
8:30—Gorgeous fireworks display begins on west banks of lake.
6 p. m.—Park closed to all vehicles. Cars may park on Irving hill by traversing Duluth to north of park.

An unusual patriotic address by Senator John Golobie of Guthrie, band concerts afternoon and night and a gorgeous fireworks display will feature the annual municipal Fourth of July program at Owen park today.

Senator Golobie will arrive early this morning over the Katy. He will be tendered an informal luncheon at noon in Hotel Tulsa by newspaper friends here and members of the park board. He speaks at 4 o'clock on a special platform erected in the shade of the giant trees at the park.

Prothero's band will give a concert this afternoon from 2:30 until 5:30 o'clock and tonight from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock. The concert tonight will run simultaneously with the fireworks. A bandstand will be erected on the little peninsula in the park lake.

Free water in barrels will be available throughout the park. Refreshment stands have also been put up. Firecrackers will be offered for sale at these stands.

Two Hours of It.
The fireworks display will start at 8:30 o'clock and last nearly two hours. Frameworks for the big set pieces were erected yesterday on the west banks of the lake. The place has been enclosed with a barbed wire fence so as to keep all spectators at a safe distance.

At 6 o'clock sharp the park will be closed to all vehicles. Automobiles may be parked on the numerous contiguous streets or on Irving Hill, which can be reached by driving down Duluth street immediately to the north of the park.

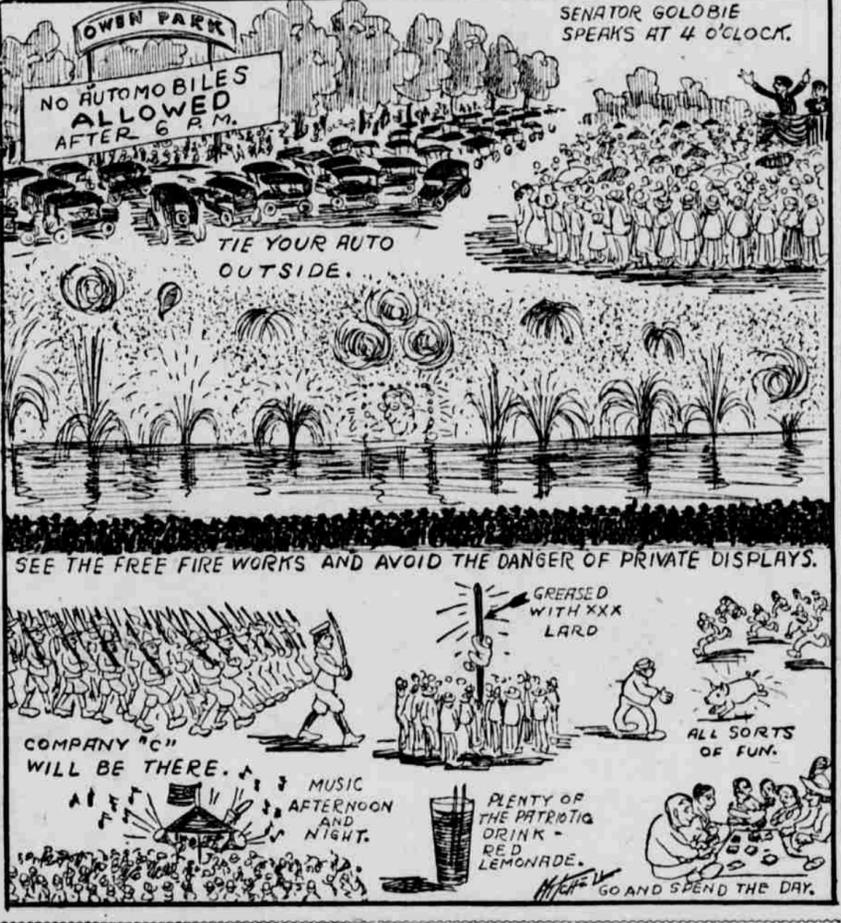

Scores of families and organizations will hold picnics at the park today. They will bring flocking to the recreation spot early in the morning.

Everything Closed.
The wheels of government and commerce will practically be at a standstill here today. Flags were flying last night from thousands of homes, but there was a noticeable lack of colors in the business district. Perhaps the business men are too busy to exhibit their patriotism.

U. S. TROOPS GUESTS OF HONOR IN PARIS

Battalion of American Soldiers Marches Into City.

PARIS, July 3.—A battalion of American troops arrived in Paris this morning to parade on July 4. The Americans were crowded by wildly enthusiastic crowds when they marched to Neuilly barracks, where they are quartered. The Americans arrived at the Austerlitz station at 7:45 o'clock.

Headed by their own band, the soldiers carrying their rifles and field packs, fell in and marched off to the barracks. The crowds waved American and French flags. Hundreds of Americans were in the throng.

As the troops swung thru the streets French girls pinned bouquets and American flags on the soldiers' breasts. Flowers were scattered along the route. The band played "Yankee Doodle," "Dixie" and other American airs.

Several times groups of shop girls on their way to work slipped thru the police lines and kissed the soldiers to their great embarrassment. Now and then an American voice would be heard calling out "hello boys," "welcome to Paris" or "good luck."

The regimental colors were carried past, men bared their heads. The Americans were greatly surprised to see a number of children kneel in the streets as the flag was carried by. They were orphans from an institution in the neighborhood.

The soldierly bearing of the men impressed the military observers. They were lean and brown and the new field packs gave them quite a different appearance from British or continental soldiers.

ST. LOUIS POLICE CALLED-COWARDS

Civil Officers and Militiamen Censured for Not Suppressing Race Riots.

FURTHER TROUBLE EXPECTED

Death List May Not Exceed 28; Stories of Brutal Killings Related.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 3.—Thirteen companies of national guardsmen tonight patrolled the streets of East St. Louis in an effort to prevent a recurrence of the race riots here, which since yesterday morning, have resulted in a death list of 28 persons, the injury of 75 or more and the destruction by fire of 310 negro homes, covering 1 1/2 acres of ground.

The entire community of eighty thousand persons is terrorized by the events of the last two days and that they fear the inability of the guardsmen to cope with the situation was intimated today when the chamber of commerce demanded to know from Adjutant-General Dickson why the troops had not displayed more energetic activity last night.

Police Accused.
The police force, which numbers sixty, also was charged with negligence in attempting to quell the violence. Of the incidents of the riot related today not one told of a single act of bravery on the part of the police or guardsmen.

Many Flee City.
Today some of the negroes walked out of town on the railroad tracks, more crossed to the Missouri side, where all was tranquil and still others fled to the suburbs. Some of the augmented force of soldiers, returned to their homes but did so in fear and trembling. Some whose homes were burned were cared for in a camp hastily arranged by the chamber of commerce.

MANCHU MONARCHY IS ESTABLISHED IN CHINA

Emperor Hsuan Tung Regains Throne; Offers Amnesty to Political Offenders.

PEKIN, July 1. (Delayed).—The imperial emblem is everywhere displayed marking the restoration of the Manchu monarchy. There has been no disorder.

In a long edict Emperor Hsuan Tung, who was restored to the throne today explains how, being youthful, he was forced to relinquish sovereign power to Yuan Shi Kai, late president of the Chinese republic.

The country being threatened with disintegration and party strife and the people appealing to him to take over its administration to save the people from suffering, the young emperor says he was compelled to take action. China's future government will be based on the following:

"The country shall be administered according to the constitutional laws promulgated by the late emperor. Expenses of the imperial household shall remain the same as those fixed by the republic.

"Blood princes shall not be allowed to interfere in politics. There shall be no difference between Manchu and Chinese. Marriage between them is allowed.

"Foreign treaties and contracts shall remain in force. The stamp tax and other petty taxes are abolished.

"The republican criminal law code is abolished and that introduced the first year under Hsuan Tung's government is reinstated.

"Political offenders are pardoned. The wearing of queues is optional. A hundred Japanese have arrived to strengthen the legation guards. There is no news of President Li Yuanlung's expected resignation.

Russia Urged to Unite Behind Army Marching to Death and Victory

PETROGRAD, July 3.—The provisional government has issued an appeal to the Russian people urging all citizens to forget personal interests and to mass as a single man behind the army which "is marching to death to save the revolution and to free the Russian people."

Minister of War Kerensky, in view of the new offensive movement, has forbidden all leaves of absence of soldiers unless necessitated by ill health. Units of four Russian armies are co-operating in the Galician advance, covering a front of about twenty miles. These units, with the approval of the commander-in-chief, are resolving to do or die in the supreme test of Russia's manhood.

They are called respectively regiments, battalions, companies, batteries and squadrons of "death". They wear black and red stripes on their cuffs with a death's head on crossed swords.

AUSTRO-GERMANS YIELD BRZEZANY

Russians Continue Advance on Lemberg; Prisoners Taken Approach 20,000.

In eastern Galicia the Russians continue their advance toward Lemberg and it is reported unofficially that the Austro-Germans under the pressure of the Russians are evacuating Brzezany, the center of much heavy fighting in the last few days.

Around Zlochoff north of Brzezany and east of Lemberg General Brusiloff's soldiers have occupied three villages and driven the Austro-Germans beyond the little Stripa river. Berlin admits this reverse and declares that only German reserves were able to stem the onrush of the Russian tide.

The number of prisoners taken by the Russians is approaching twenty thousand. In Volhynia there are signs that the Russians are preparing for an offensive and already attacks have been made against the Teuton positions along the Kovel-Lusk railroad in the direction of Kovel. Some of the fighting activity also is reported from around Riga and near Smorgonsk, north of the Pripiet marshes.

The British and Germans continue to raid each other's lines on the northern end of the western front and in Champagne and on the left bank of the Meuse in the Verdun region, the Germans and French still are fighting intensely at isolated points. There have been no important actions in the other fields of the war.

NEGRO SENTENCED TO DIE FOR MURDER OF JACOBS

Muskogee Jury Deliberates Less Than Twenty Minutes in James Brown Case.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.
MUSKOGEE, July 3.—Death in the electric chair is the penalty James Brown, alias Jerry Moore, negro, must pay for his part in the brutal murder of Glenn Jacobs, young traveling salesman, here May 19. Execution of Brown was ordered by a district court jury this afternoon after deliberating on his case less than twenty minutes.

It was alleged that Brown, with a negro named Sam Shaw, held up and robbed then killed Jacobs, north of Muskogee, May 19, one of the negroes shooting him thru the heart. Brown claimed Shaw fired the shot, but Judge Degraffenried instructed the jury that it was immaterial which negro actually shot Jacobs. Shaw will be brought to trial Thursday.

The murder of Jacobs, a young salesman employed by the Coca-Cola company, was one of the most brutal in the annals of Muskogee's criminal history, and there was talk of a lynching when the negroes were captured several days after the tragedy.

He began his penitentiary career in 1917 when he was sentenced to one year's imprisonment for shooting a county sheriff in Newton county. With other prisoners he killed a warden and escaped, returning to Newton county, where he killed a man and woman at whose home his wife was living. He shot another woman at the same time.

YANKEE GUNNERY TRIUMPHS OVER TEUTON TORPEDO

At Least One Submersible Destroyed; No American Life or Ship Lost.

ENEMY WELL INFORMED

Attacks Troop Ships This Side of Danger Zone on Night of June 22.

MANY TORPEDOES LAUNCHED

All Miss Mark; Grenades Used in Defense; Wreckage and Oil Prove Hits Made.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Safe arrival at a French port of the last ships of the first American overseas expedition was announced tonight by Secretary Daniels in a statement revealing that twice on the way across the Atlantic, German submarines attacked the ships in force and were fought off by convoying American warships.

The Americans did not lose a man, a ship or animal. At least one of the undersea enemies was destroyed. The work of spies, thru whom the Germans knew secrets of the expedition, is disclosed by the news that the first attack was made far at sea, before the transports and their convoys reached the point at which a rendezvous had been arranged with the American destroyer flotilla operating in European waters.

The submarine commanders apparently knew where and when to expect the Americans bound for the fighting lines in France, and were assembled in force to meet them.

It was just a week after the first troops landed that the last vessels put into a French port. They were slower craft, carrying supplies and horses. The good news came to the navy department last afternoon from Rear Admiral Gleaves, commanding the convoy squadron, and was made public at once as an appropriate announcement on the eve of the Fourth of July. Secretary Daniels' statement, which tells all of the story deemed wise to publish, follows:

Every Man Safely Landed.
"It is with the joy of a great relief that I announce to the people of the United States the safe arrival in France of every fighting man and every fighting ship.

"Now that the last vessel has reached port it is safe to disclose the dangers that were encountered and to tell the complete story of peril and courage.

"The transports bearing our troops were twice attacked by German submarines on the way across. On both occasions the U-boats were beaten off with every appearance of loss. One was certainly sunk and there is reason to believe that the accurate fire of our gunners sent others to the bottom.

For purposes of convenience the expedition was divided into contingents, each contingent including troopships and naval escort designed to keep off such German raiders as might be met.

An excellent rendezvous also had been arranged with the American destroyers now operating in European waters in order that the passage of the danger zone might be attended by every possible protection.

Enemy Informal.

"The first attack took place at 10:30 on the night of June 22. What gives it peculiar and disturbing significance is that our ships were set upon at a point well inside of the rendezvous and in that part of the Atlantic presumably free from submarines.

"The attack was made in force, although the night made impossible any exact count of the U-boats gathered for what the destroyers became increasingly scattered and inaccurate. It is not known how many torpedoes were launched, but five were counted as they sped by bow and stern.

"A second attack was launched a few days later against another contingent. The point of assault was beyond the rendezvous and our destroyers were sailing as a screen between the transports and all harm. The results of the battle were in favor of American gunnery.

"Not alone did the destroyers hold the U-boats at a safe distance, but their speed also resulted in the sinking of one submarine at least. Grenades were used in firing, a depth-charged explosive, timed to go off at a certain distance under water. In one instance oil and wreckage covered the surface of the sea after a shot from a destroyer at a periscope and the reports make claim of sinking.
