The Indian Chieftain

The INDIAN CHIEFTAIN was first established in 1883, a bold and energetic effort to bring into the homes of the best people of Vinita and the surrounding territory, reliable and honest news, and to give the people honest and right trade in the best goods that money can buy.

We offer both publications, the Republic Sunday Magazine and the Republic Daily, as a special inducement for those who may desire a true and complete publication at a very reasonable price.

The regular price of this one year subscription is $1.25 a year.

Only $3.50 for both.

If you want the most complete and reliable publication that money can buy, then the Republic Sunday Magazine and the Republic Daily are your only choice.
