Once more the unexpected has happened and for the next two years the city affairs of Tulsa will be in the hands of a republican administration, with the exception of H. F. Newblock, who went along with the republicans.

Hundreds of people went to bed Tuesday night feeling confident that the entire democratic ticket had won out, but they were greatly surprised Wednesday morning to learn that T. J. Evans the republican nominee and all of his ticket, except one, had been elected by a small majority, Mayor Hubbard having lost by 206 votes.

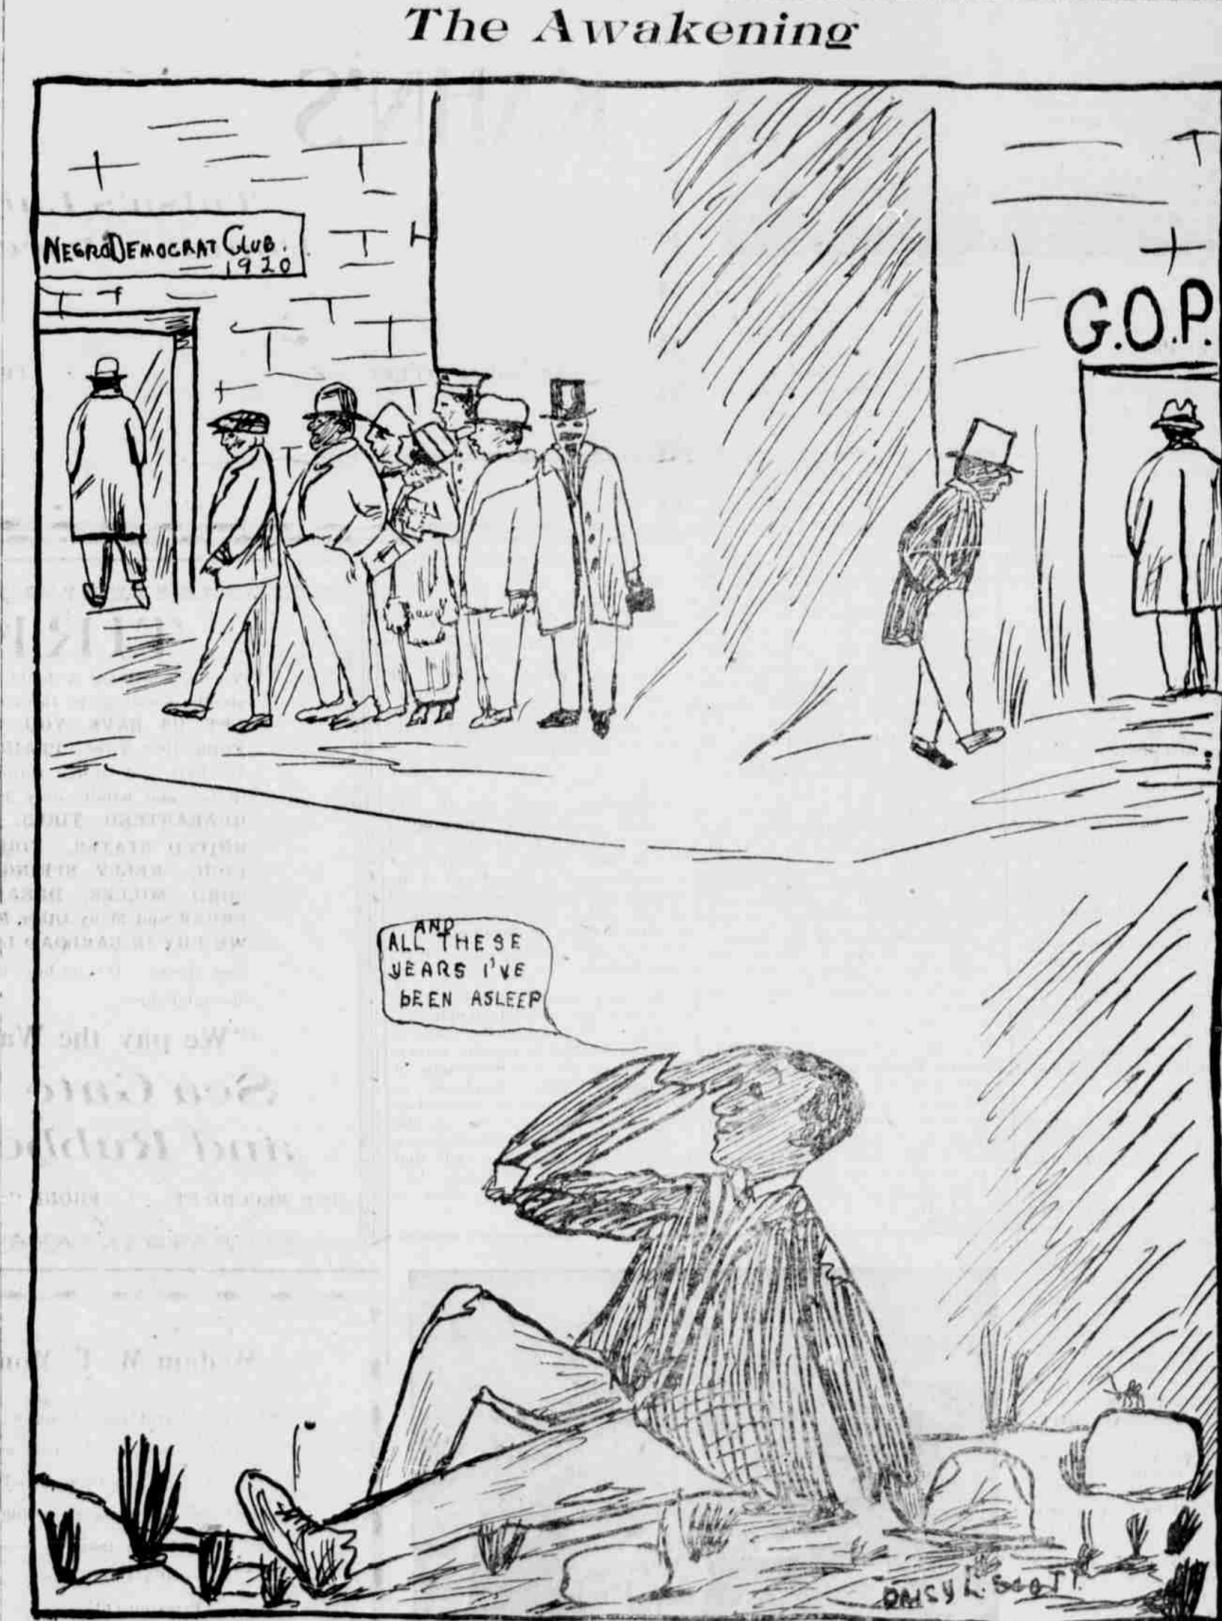

The defeat of the party nominees in Tulsa is chargeable to the same disgruntled element which four years ago turned the city over to the infamous Simmon's administration. This element supported the republican ticket in order to vent their spleen on the city administration, who had incurred their ill will. But notwithstanding this element of the party most of the people of Tulsa in both parties before the election felt confident of Hubbard's re-election and because they felt so, no doubt, many of them remained away from the polls. This contributed largely to the success of the republican ticket.

Colored Precincts Go Democratic.

In precinct 23, where practically all the voters are Colored, the democratic ticket won by a big majority. In precincts 1, 3 and 10 where a large number of Colored people vote, the democratic ticket also won.

This is a decided victory for the Colored democrats and a confirmation of the Star's prediction that more than fifty per cent of the Colored people would vote the democratic ticket.

The total number of votes cast in precinct 23 was 565. Of this num-

Colored Citizens Win Long Fight For Passage of Bill.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 4.—In view of the lynching on March 29, of Grant Smith a Negro, at Millersburg, Kentucky, by a mob which overpowered the sheriff and the police as they were taking their prisoner to jail, it is interesting to note that only one week prior to this occurrence Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky signed a bill providing for the punishment of lynchers and for the removal of the peace officer who surrenders his prisoner. The bill was signed in the presence of a committee of Colored citizens headed by Dr. E. E. Underwood, President of the Frankfort Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to whom the gold pen used by the governor.

The bill makes the penalty for lynching death or life imprisonment and that for attempted lynching confinement in the penitentiary for not less than two years or more than twenty-one years.

The fight to secure a lynching law in Kentucky began with the Legislature of two years ago, when a bill was passed submitting to the people a constitutional amendment to make error was presented.

It was possible to effect the automatic removal of any peace officer who permitted a mob to secure a prisoner in his custody. The bill submitting the amendment was championed by a committee of Colored citizens, who succeeded in securing its passage without a single dissenting vote in either branch of the Legislature.

This law will not become effective, however, until the expiration of the 90 day's required by law because the emergency clause was not attached.

Y. W. C. CLUB

One of the most interesting meetings of the Young Women's Christian Club was held at the tubercular Clinic Thursday, April 1. We had the pleasure of having with us Mrs. Cordella A. Winn, National field worker from New York city, who lectured to us on the work of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Winn spoke very encouragingly of our club work and the future looks bright for a Y. W. C. A. branch here. She also spoke to an unusually large number at Mt. Zion Baptist Church on Wednesday night, March 31.

part of the administration will retire from office with the reputation and well deserved honor of having given the people of Tulsa the best administration this city has ever known. They will not retire fighting the party or retarding in any way the progress of Tulsa and its institutions. They will join hands with other good citizens in pushing our city to the front and helping to redeem it from the slanderous reputation given it by their opponents in the recent campaigns.

It will be well for the incoming administration to pattern after the retiring administration in conducting the affairs of this city. If they do this, and follow the policy of, according fair and equal consideration to all the people of Tulsa, regardless of race or color, as the democrats have done, then—but not until then.—Will we admit that they merit the vote which put them into office?

ber 314 or nearly sixty per cent voted the democratic ticket—a decided victory for the democrats.

The Star fought diligently and persistently for the democratic ticket because we believed, and still believe that the Race would realize more under their administration than under a republican administration. Our only regret now is that our choice has lost. But we bow to the will of the people and extend congratulation to the successors of our friends hoping that they will do at least as much for our group of citizenship as the retiring administration has done. The Tulsa Star will still twinkle under democratic colors and will continue to advocate the true principles of democracy and fight as we always have for the interests of the Race in common with other people. Mayor Hubbard and the other
