WILLIAM A. RADFORD, EDITOR

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 175 West Jackson boulevard, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose two-cent stamp for reply.

If you have $2,000 to put into a house, and have family enough to need four or five bedrooms, you probably could not find a better plan than the one here presented. It is large, roomy and sensible. This house looks well when it is new; and it never will go out of fashion, because there are no faddy notions worked into it, and it is so thoroughly well built that it will defy time and the elements for a good many years.

A house as large as this, practically 27 by 45 feet, should have a lot at least 50 feet wide. The appearance of a good-sized house is often injured by placing it on a narrow lot. There is no sense in economizing at the wrong place. A 50-foot lot may cost one or two hundred dollars more than a 40-foot lot; but in five years' time, if the neighborhood improves, as good residence neighborhoods usually do, the owner would consider a couple of hundred dollars a very small compensation for a slice of ten feet taken from one side of his handsome lot. This is one of the side issues in building that some men are prone to overlook. Successful men are the ones who look ahead a few years before making their final arrangements to build.

One of the first considerations before starting to build is the drainage. On this account an elevation is worth a great deal. The sewers may cost greeable, steamy sewer odors that is anything but pleasant. I have noticed this on lower ground, but I think it is a great deal more common on the hills. I do not know that this escaping sewer steam is detrimental to health. As a usual thing, plumbers are supposed to get rather more than their share of sewer perfume, but so far as I know they are a very healthy lot of fellows. At the same time, if I knew that a sewer opening would act as a ventilator, I should very much prefer moving my house a block or two away from it; but, as Josh Billings used to say: "Them is some of the things that no feller kin find out." No matter what we do, we have to take some chances. The man who builds a house is no exception.

nearly as much per lot on high ground as they do through the lower sections of the town, because usually the lots are wider, although the diameter of the sewer may be considerable less. Sewers start from the higher levels, and increase in size as they go downhill. Those living on the lower lots may have plenty of outlet; but I have noticed that new sewers are needed oftener, and extensive repairs are a good sized family, where there are several children. There should be children in every family, and there should be plenty of house accommodation to make things pleasant and comfortable for them. They should have their bedrooms to themselves as much as possible, and the rooms should be furnished to their liking. The tastes of children are simple and easily catered to, and it pays to do it.

Before the carpenters go away, have them make a flagpole, and put it high up, where it will show well. Then buy a good flag, and help the "kids" to hoist it every holiday, but especially the morning of the Fourth of July. It will give them a lesson in patriotism that they will never forget.

Arrange a playground for the children in the backyard. Give them a corner with a load or two of sharp sand. Put a cover over the sand pile if you can afford it, but give them the sand pile anyway. It will be worth a great deal to the "kids" in health, and it will save you a great deal of anxiety, and probably some expense in doctor's bills. Build them another playhouse in the attic for stormy days. Don't you remember, when you were a "kid," how you used to enjoy playing in the woodshed on rainy days? The neighbors' youngsters came in and helped to raise a great row, and your mother usually put up with it patiently. Well, we haven't got any woodsheds now; firewood trees are all burned up, and we don't need much of a building to hold coal; but we still have the children, and we can make comfortable playrooms for them if we have the inclination to do so. Rainy days are long days for children, unless they have some place to go other than the kitchen or the living room. They love to make all the noise they feel like making.

great deal more aggravating, in the hollows than they are on the hills.

There is only one sewer objection that I know of on the higher ground, and that is that the air in the sewers has a habit of moving to the highest points of escape. This is not always the case, but I have often noticed in passing sewer openings that there is quite an outward draught of dis-

'CASCARETS' FOR LIVER; BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

What Do Socks Hold?

Before the first Christmas eve two old maids were planning for the holiday.

"Sister Mollie," said the younger, "would a long stocking hold all you'd want for a Christmas gift?"

"No, Elvira," said the elder; "but a pair of socks would."

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

There's nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. You are lame when you awake. Pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to rest and next day it's the same old story.

Pain in the back is nature's warning of kidney ills. Neglect may pave the way to dropsy, gravel, or other serious kidney sickness.

Don't delay—begin using Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has been curing backache and kidney trouble for over fifty years.

A TEXAS CASE

"Every Picture Tells a Story." J. H. Lee, 412 W. Walnut St., Cleburne, Texas, says: "For four years I had intense pains through the small of my back. I could hardly pass the kidney secretions and morphine was the only thing that relieved me. I had gravel, too. Finally, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they permanently cured me. I haven't suffered since."
