THEATRICAL NEWS

If it ever happens again I am going to call the sisters or brother's name right out in church. The people of Tulsa come clean, and don't try to bulldoze. It will not get you anything.

There was a brawl outside the Bell Kitchen Saturday night and no doubt before many moons some one will have to account for this nuisance. It is rubbing it in too strong boys.

The enterprising firm of Walker and Willie are doing so much business that they could not take time to sit down or eat. Had to eat on the run. Well that is doing some business.

Mr. Pytle is a very busy man. He was seen on Main street with nothing (but several feet in the air) signs of prosperity.

Mrs. Smith of 311 E. Archer St. is a very intimate friend of Madam Cordelia McClain. Mr. McClain is stopping at their residence.

Send the Star and be glad to see it. We have the news of the world at your breakfast table every Saturday morning.

The way the advertisements are coming in the Star is shooting upward. This is a good sign of the times. Tulsa is booming. When a paper can jump two pages in two hours that is some jump.

Prof. Wm. E. Glenn and Prof. J. B. McCullough of Muskogee were visitors at the Star office this week.

A company has been organized in the east end to operate a soda pop and the ice cream factory.
