RED TAPE MAY DEPRIVE SOLDIER BOYS OF VOTE

Ballots Can Not Be Sent to Camps and Returned in Time to Be Checked.

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, May 22.—The law relative to furnishing ballots to soldiers in camp must be followed according to an opinion from the attorney general to J. L. Lyon, secretary of state. The latter asked the attorney general if ballots without the official rotation as to candidates' names, provided in the election laws, could be prepared and sent to the soldiers in a sufficient time before the election to remove the returns promptly.

The attorney general replying said nothing but the official ballot supplied by the state election board could be used. This cannot be printed until after the names of all candidates who desire to file for office have been received. Whether or not ballots can then be printed and delivered to the soldiers on or before election day, is the question.

WANTS TO FIND HIS SON

Father of Ira Hagler Very Ill, Has Not Heard from Boy for Months

In an attempt to get information concerning his son, whom he has not heard from, nor been able to locate for several months, J. O. Hagler, Mayfield, Ky., has written several Tulsa people and the local police in an effort to trace him. According to a letter received from Mr. Hagler, he was advised that the boy, Ira L. Hagler, was employed by the Standard Roofing company. No record of him has been found here.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, not one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

NEGRO FINED ON CHARGE OF THREATENING WOMAN

Rooming House Porter Alleged to Have Made Improper Advances Fined $100.

Written complaint was demanded and ordered furnished in the case in police court yesterday afternoon, wherein Walter Rogers, negro porter at the Carleton Rooms, was charged with soliciting Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick for immoral purposes. It was brought out in testimony that the negro is in the habit of doing his sort of thing, and that this was his first offense along these lines. Rogers was given the maximum fine of $100 and pay notice of appeal, which bond was set at $200. Mrs. Kirkpatrick, according to testimony, was registered at the Carleton Rooms, Friday night. That night the negro is alleged to have made improper advances to her at a time when he knew no one but Mrs. Hobbs, who is the manager. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and himself were in the house. Mrs. Hobbs, on the stand, swore that she knew the negro's character thoroughly, and believed him to be a respectable man. The attorney for the defense attempted to show that Mrs. Kirkpatrick herself bore a bad reputation, but did not succeed in breaking down her testimony that she is a waitress, wife of a soldier who is at present in the army. She stuck to facts and her story did not vary under cross-examination.

"Billy" McClain Poorly Rewarded for Efforts

"Billy" McClain, negro sport promoter, who "fell, died and died" in the recent election for the Democratic ticket, received his reward from the city commissioners yesterday when they gave him a permit for a boxing contest at Convention Hall "Billy" got it, however, on one promise that he will be his last. He appeared before the commissioners Tuesday and asked for the use of the hall but it was refused. He came back yesterday, however, with such a "hard" story that the commissioners relented and told him he could have the hall this time, "but never again," they asserted. McClain had already spent a lot of his good "Democratic" money advertising his attraction and for other expenses and incurred an opportunity of getting this back. "Billy" promised that all over $500 of the receipts will go to the Red Cross and that it was principally for the Red Cross that he was giving the "entertainment." He said he had been appointed not only director of the Red Cross soliciting among the negroes but was also a "four-minute speaker."

MAJESTIC. Beautiful Gloria Hope is the star of "The Guilty Man," which is the attraction at the Majestic tomorrow evening. It is a specially good road, including Vivian Reed, William Garwood, J. P. Lockney, Charles French, and Hayward Mack. Miss Mack has done more than her share towards making "The Guilty Man" a success. As the daughter of a Parisian dancer, she is the mother of her stepfather in the film of the mother and is prosecuted for the state by her own mother, who, recognizing his crime in deserting the mother and this beautiful daughter throughout the years, takes them back, urging the law to show mercy, and causing them both in his arms, asks their forgiveness.

The "guilty man" had a long and extremely successful run on Broadway, New York, and was written by Ruth Heller-Taylor and Charles Klein from the French of Prospero Coppé. It is a gripping human story of struggle and sacrifice and depicts the life of a Parisian dancer, the beautiful illegitimate daughter, Gloria Hope and Vivian Reed painted these two women's characters with strong, sure touches on the white canvas of the screen.

FORMER POLICE JUDGE EVANS

HE COULDN'T DECIDE whether he was guilty of speeding or not, when brought before Judge Warren yesterday afternoon. In fact, Allen Wade seemed to believe it was up to him to make a decision along those lines. He was allowed to assume the privilege, but it cost him $5 and he was allowed to go under Judge Warren's "suspension" system.

MRS. ANNA GILDART'S child was playing in Mrs. George Tucker's yard. He wouldn't let Mrs. Tucker's little girl alone, and Mrs. Tucker chased him home. The homes are next to each other on South Boston yesterday afternoon. In fact, Allen Wade seemed to believe it was up to him to make a decision along those lines. He was allowed to assume the privilege, but it cost him $5 and he was allowed to go under Judge Warren's "suspension" system.

TWO BROTHERS, C. L. and W. T. Whitaker, were before the court yesterday for disturbing the peace. It developed that the peace of no one except the defendants was disturbed. They had been having a little brotherly scrap and someone, it seems, got alarmed. Five dollars in each case was the assessment.

"AH'S A RESPECTABLE man's man," Judge, said "Ah is," said Viola Brown, negro, who, with Correne Stamps, was before the police court on the charge of prowling. Their defense seemed reasonable, in spite of their not remembering just exactly where they had been, or where their husbands work. However, the ordinance did not cover the exact degree of prowling they were accused of doing and they were discharged.

"THESE CASES wherein black women come in wearing green hats and carrying umbrellas," says Judge Warren, "are entirely too common. Even should they be found in company with a white man in the middle of the night they can always find a convenient husband."

RELIEF that his wife was not the right person to fity raise their babies caused C. B. Kemmerling to come to Tulsa from Okemah in quest of them. Kemmerling stated in police court that his wife had left him, taking the babies with her. He wanted them and came after them. In the argument that followed, after he had located his wife at 420 South Guthrie street, he found that she was getting ready to leave that night train Tuesday night for her mother's home in Okemah. He tried to take the babies, and was arrested for disturbing the peace. This case was dismissed and he was extended the sympathy of the court.

"NO ONE BUT LAWYERS and the accused are allowed to stand in the courtroom," said Mr. MacIntyre, whereupon Mr. Kemmerling sat down and created a great deal of confusion to the local gentleman.

LACK of a complaining witness caused the discharge of Eddie Williams, accused of petit larceny.

THE COMBINATION of a wife and a child by a former wife seemed to contribute to Charles Adams' inability to make a living. His wife married the lynch and gives Charles money to send to his child in Oklahoma City. This did not "set well" with Judge Warren who gave the negro the balance of this week in which to get a job or serve out a $25 fine.
