TULSA MUST WAIT 40 DAYS BEFORE VOTING

Plan to Take in Collinsville Can't Be Decided at the August 6 Primary Election.

A special election will be necessary if Collinsville is to be admitted to Tulsa county before the election of county officers next fall.

It was first thought that the matter of annexing the district could be put up to voters of this county at the primary in August.

There seems to be no doubt that Tulsa county is unanimously in favor of separating the neighboring county.

The only problem is to effect the annexation as soon as possible.
