CURRENT HISTORY OF WORLD WAR IN U. S. OFFICIAL FILM

"Pershing's Crusaders" Gives a Graphic Pictorial Record of Our Accomplishments in First Year.

"Pershing's Crusaders," the first United States official war film now being shown at the Majestic. This is really a pictorial history of America's part in the great war, living history, full of human interest and patriotic thrill.

LIBERTY

Any motion picture which finds its source in the Saturday Evening Post is bound to be out of the ordinary. And the writer who is successful enough to obtain a recognition of his merits by the acceptance of one of his stories by this magazine is acknowledged to be an unusually able author.

RIALTO

Clara Kimball Young, one of the greatest stars in screenland, scores another distinct success in her latest picture, "The Claw" at the Rialto today and tonight for the last time. The story is from the well-known novel of the name by Cynthia Stockley, which is a guarantee of its entertainment value when it is remembered that Miss Stockley is the author of "The Claw" in the past.

BROADWAY

Japanese from the land of the or words, the Four Menakas are showing at the Broadway this week. It is seldom that there are American songs by Japanese, but singing and comic playing, hand balancing and general athletic feats are presented in this wonderful act.

Closing Out All Tropical Worsted and Two-Piece Wool Suits

A sale of such suits in times like these is a tribute to the liberality of the house that sells them.

The opportunity to our patrons is certainly wonderful in view of the rising costs of manufacture. Little of the merchandise involved can be reproduced to sell at wholesale, much less to retail at former selling prices.

Suits that formerly sold at $18 and $20

Former low selling price, mind you! There is not much virtue in prices which are marked up before they were marked down. These suits were a fine buy at the old prices. They are that much finer now.

Clearance Price $13.45

Palm Beach Suits

In spite of the fact that next summer is bound to be a heavy season for Palm Beach suits, owing to the high cost of wool suits, we wish to clear out every last one of them rather than store any in the warehouse for next year. So we quote a price that is sure to interest you enough to buy one or two.

Genuine Palm Beach Suits That We Sold for $12.50—at $8.95—most of them sold elsewhere at $15. Blue, Oxford, Grays, Tans.
