AMERICAN SOLDIERS WANT NO PREMATURE WAR CLOSE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—"If our people at home have the same feeling as our splendid boys at the front, there will be no premature peace," said Representative Young of North Dakota today on his return from a visit to the European battle fronts. He declared American soldiers are more than maintaining American standards of temperance and morality.

Representative Young returned from abroad with a party including Representatives Kinchloe of Kentucky, Tillman of Arkansas, Eiston of California and Chandler and Thompson of Oklahoma. The delegation brought word that France, England and Italy are not behind the front lines and often had to use deserted cafes, stables and roofless houses. Part of the time she has worked 15 hours every third day because there were only three to help with the work and the soldiers simply had to have their hot chocolate at night when government supplies were not to be had. Miss Van Norden is in this country now on a short leave of absence but she expects to return to France in the future. The army citation was made just as if she were a regular member of the regiment and she is the only woman who is permitted to wear the regimental insignia.

The Luke-Lippa Wedding.

The following from the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Post of August 15, will be of interest to friends of the bridal couple. A pretty wedding was solemnized last night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Luke of New Bethlehem, when their daughter, Miss Mary Helen Luke, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Lippa of Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. Kate Ockleton Lippa of Anderson avenue, Orchards, Pa., and smilax formed a bridal arch in the living room before which Rev. J. W. Hays read the service at 7 o'clock. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white georgette crepe, heavily beaded, and fashioned with short skirt and tunic beads shadowing a white satin panel. Her tulle veil was caught with a circle of orange blossoms, which fell in a shower at the altar. She carried white gladiolus in a silver vase. Miss Lillian Luke, as her sister's only attendant, appeared in a frock of shell-pink organdie, and carried summer flowers in tints of pink to harmonize with her costume. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo, and toward L. Hanlon of Tulsa was the best man.

A reception followed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Luke and Mrs. Lippa received with the bridal couple. Mrs. Luke wore cream net with a corsage of Ophelia roses, and Mrs. Lippa was attired in ecru-tinted flannel combined with net. Her flowers were Cattleya orchids.

Covers were laid for eight at the bridal table at which the center-piece was orchids and pink and white summer flowers. Mr. Lippa and his bride have gone for a wedding trip among the northern lakes, and after September 1 will be at home in West Twelfth street, Tulsa. Among the Pittsburghers who attended the wedding were Miss Elsie Louise Yingling, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Yingling of Wood street, Wilkinsburg; Miss Louise Stevens Golden of North Avenue, Wilkinsburg, and Miss Doria Jane Hall of Hill avenue. The bride was educated at Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, D. C., and Mr. Lippa attended private schools in Pittsburgh, and later studied in England for several years. Mrs. Lippa will return to Pittsburgh today.

Only Recently Married.

Lieutenant Hanbery and his wife, who are well known in Kansas, both having been members of the faculty of the Pittsburg state normal school, were married immediately after the lieutenant's enlistment, November 27, 1917. He sailed for France May 4 this year. He and his company participated in an engagement in the Chateau-Thierry region near Soissons. The story of the advance of his company is told in a letter from him written in the hospital:

"Our command moved over the top at 4 a. m. The enemy immediately opened fire upon us and the whole area was made bright as day by rockets of various descriptions. With our bayonets we captured machine guns, artillery of all forms and a constant stream of German soldiers. "I got two miles without being hit. This brought me to the crest of the hill overlooking the German positions. Here I lost a few men out of my company by shrapnel fire. The men began to crawl through a wheat field. Instantly, however, machine guns opened up upon us. Here I got a bullet in my left thigh. We continued our progress after we had located a German observer and made him pay for his observation with his life. Our progress continued very rapidly until the enemy fell down in masses. We lost considerable men here. A shrapnel gun of the enemy fired seven times at me without injury. But with the eighth I thought my legs were torn from my body.

Miss King Maid for Trans-Mississippi

Official announcement was received yesterday of the appointment of Miss Jennie Yergler King as maid of honor for the trans-Mississippi division during the Confederate reunion. The honor came to Miss King through General K. M. Van Zandt. Other members of the trans-Mississippi party are: Mrs. J. C. Muse of Dallas, matron of honor; Miss Shingo Cavell of Dallas, sponsor; and Miss Mae Briant of Hope, Ark., maid.

Miss King was born and reared in the south and will carry with a great deal of charm and grace the honor which has come to her. She is a daughter of Col. R. H. King of the Newsom apartments.

Miss Blanche Bowman of 42 West Thirteenth street, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Charles J. Bowman entertained informally at tea Sunday evening, having as her guests Miss Blanche Claggett, Miss Vivian Cozier, Maj. Harrison Fuller, Capt. Torrence Pike, Lieut. Eugene Lill from the school of fire and Lieut. Granville Hixcock, who is noted over in his aeroplane from Post Field, Fort Sill.—Daily Oklahoman.

WOULDN'T ADMIT AN ARMY DEATH REPORT

Guest of Tulsa Family Had Strange Feeling Her Husband in France Was Alive in spite of Report.

"We must send our men out to live, not to die," declared Mrs. Hanbery wife of Lieut. James W. Hanbery. Her husband was reported dead from wounds received July 19 when acting as company commander, he led his men "over the top."

"I would not believe my husband was dead," Mrs. Hanbery said yesterday. "The message from Washington, July 31, did not convince me, nor the letter sent later confirming it. I would not attend the memorial held for him at Pittsburg, Kan., August 4 because something seemed to tell me that he was alive."

Mrs. Hanbery is visiting her sister, Miss J. Claire Cray, teacher of history in the Tulsa public schools, at 110 West Eighth street, and is convalescing from a collapse occasioned by the news. First of the death and later of the six times wounding of her husband July 19, any one of which was enough to kill him, he writes. The lieutenant is now in a base hospital at the mouth of the Loire river and expects to recover in two or three months. The last letter received from him was written August 4, and news from the government received by his sister, Sunday, August 18, that, contrary to the former report, he was still living.
