GERMANS ORDERED TO HOLD OFF YANKS

By The Associated Press.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES
NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct.
13.—"How great is the importance attached by the Germans to holding back the Americans is shown in a recent order of General von Der Marwitz, commander-in-chief of the fifth army, which has reached American intelligence officers.

"It is on the unconquerable resistance of the Verdun front," reads the order, "that depends the fate of a great part of the western front, perhaps even of our nation. The fatherland must rest assured that every commander and every main realizes the greatness of his mission and that he will do his duty to the very end.

many had accorded Spain cession of several of the German ships interned in Spanish ports. The vessels named are the Eripiua, Klio, Mattide, Trinfield and Rudolph, with a total tonnage of 21,600.

Spain, it was added, could also claim at a later date tonnage to make good "previous losses on other torpedoings."

It is not believed, however, that the Germans will be able to offer the same sort of resistance, but, on the other hand, will adopt a more open form of warfare, such as they did north of the river Marne, concentrating here and there forces in places best suitable for delaying a general advance into a slowly compressed area. When the British forced their way

When the British forced their way through the second defenses near Cambral, it is pointed out, the Germans rapidly fell back to their third defenses, but the strategical reasons for their continued resistance in the onen at that part of the sector is not to be compared to those in front of the Americans.
