RESTORATION PLOT FOUND

Behind Movement to Bring Ex-Emperor Back.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Catherine Callan Hayden, daughter of Patrick Callan, who lost his life when the Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Ireland, today appeared at the United States district attorney's office and asked that a warrant be issued for William Hohenzollern, former kaiser of Germany, charging him with murder.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 2.—A number of the soldiers and workmen's councils in Germany have requested Emperor William to have the former Emperor William tried by a German tribunal, according to a news agency telegram from Berlin.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A plot to restore imperialism and secure the return of Emperor William has been discovered in Berlin, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Express.

According to the dispatch which was filed at Amsterdam on Friday, the chief men behind the plot were Field Marshal von Mackensen, General von Bern and General Count Six von Arnim. It is said that they intended to have Emperor William return to Germany to lead the army.

The plot collapsed owing to the fact that a secret service agent overheard the Prussian officers conversation. Many arrests were made in Berlin and other cities, while the government has long lists of suspects who had planned to seize members of the present government.

No direct evidence of William Hohenzollern's connection with the plot has been found, it is said, but it is believed that the outline of the plan was brought to Berlin by two of his suite who recently went to the German capital for the ostensible purpose of taking the wife of the former emperor to Amerongen, Holland.

Lieut. Dr. Gustav Krupp von Bohlen is said to have been in control of the financial arrangements. Field Marshal von Mackensen is said to have attempted to induce Field Marshal von Hindenburg to join, but the latter refused, saying that he intended to retire after the demobilization of the army.

The whole Prussian court, it is said, was in sympathy with the plotters and it is said that Prince von Buelow and Dr. George Michaelis, former imperial chancellor, had promised to help. The plan was to have a Prussian government organized under Field Marshal von Mackensen or some other military leader and then urge William Hohenzollern to return.

Believing the Irish question will be settled during the conferences soon to start in Europe, the Tulsa Irish-Americans through A. F.weeney, their secretary, sent the following telegram to President Woodrow Wilson yesterday:

"Irish-Americans of Tulsa hail you as the world's greatest exponent of true democracy and wish you to speed on your historic mission. May it not be hoped that your memorable enunciation of American doctrine of government will prevail at conference and that the right of self-determination will be extended to Ireland, the oldest nation in Europe and the closest to America in location and ideas?"

Infant industries in Tulsa have been adopted.

A parent corporation with a million dollars capital stock, considerable of it subscribed, was organized last night at Hotel Tulsa when 180 representative citizens met for the purpose of taking up industrial conditions and mapping out a plan to make the bucket brigade a living, breathing thing.

Stock in the Tulsa Financial Corporation is on the market. It's capital stock is selling at $100 per share, and every penny of the issue is to be used to promote the wonder city.

Everyone Enthusiastic.
The meeting last night was the outgrowth of the work of the directors of the chamber of commerce, and when the citizens present heard the plan outlined by H. H. Rogers, spokesman of the directors, they endorsed it to a man, and plans for bringing about the immediate organization were perfected.

Tulsa's Greatest

Many important events have occurred in Tulsa. Events that have left the impress of their importance not only on Tulsa, but upon the state and in some instances upon the nation generally, but the most important occurrence in the entire history of this city occurred last night at a dinner given by the directors of the chamber of commerce and attended by over one hundred of the leading spirits which have made Tulsa the city which it already is and gave new impetus to what it will be in the future.

At the meeting last night the initial steps were taken for the organization of a million dollar corporation for the purpose of aiding and encouraging the permanent industries now seeking to locate here.

No such comprehensive plan perhaps was ever before undertaken by any city big or little throughout the length and breadth of the land and the enthusiasm of the land and the enthusiasm of the real Tulsa builders who were present at last night's meeting is a guarantee of its success.

Each stockholder in the parent organization will share in the profits of the individual corporations that are backed by the Tulsa Financial Corporation.

Cummins Asks Senate to Send Eight Members to Attend Sessions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Senator Sherman of Illinois, republican, announced today that he would introduce a resolution to declare vacant the office of president because of Mr. Wilson's absence and proposing that the president's powers and duties should immediately devolve upon the vice president.

Senator Sherman's resolution as given out by the author, is similar to one offered by Representative Rodenburg in the house except that it would declare the office of president vacant and require the vice president to serve "until a president shall be duly elected."

A joint resolution introduced by Representative Rodenburg of Illinois, republican, proposing that congress declare President Wilson's trip to Europe constitutes an inability to discharge the powers and duty of the office of president and that so long as he is away from the country the vice president act as president.

The resolution was dropped into the bill box without discussion on the floor. It was referred to the judiciary committee.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, republican, introduced today a resolution proposing that a senate committee of four democrats and four republicans be sent to France for the peace conference to keep the senate informed on questions arising there.

Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, republican, declared he would oppose the resolution and hoped it would be sent to the foreign affairs committee and there killed.

Lansing Asks U-Boat Victims to Prepare Statement of Loss

LOVETT MAY BECOME NEW RAIL DIRECTOR

Announcement by President of Appointments is Regarded as Certain to Be Made Today.

President, Still at Washington, Expected to Depart Today—Clears Up Business Before Going.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Wilson did not leave Washington tonight and the assumption was that he would depart some time tomorrow for New York, where he will board the liner George Washington, on which he and the other members of the American peace delegation will make the voyage to France.

After addressing congress today, the president devoted his time to clearing away executive affairs in preparation for his trip. He walked from the white house to the office of the federal trade commission for a brief conference with Chairman William B. Colver. Later he went to the war department for a talk with Secretary Baker and afterwards called on Secretary McAdoo at the treasury department.

Inquirers were assured today that it was the president's purpose to resign the office of general and director general of the railroads before he departs for Europe. Tonight the president had a second conference with Mr. McAdoo at the secretary's home, at which Mr. McAdoo's successors were discussed and an announcement of both appointments is expected tomorrow.

In many quarters it is now regarded as almost certain that the president will select a new director general to succeed Mr. McAdoo from the present railroad administration staff and Robert S. Lovett, director of capital expenditures, is known to be under consideration.

At the same time, without check or an official welcome of any sort, 1,000 wounded soldiers returned by the steamer Koonland from the trenches where they were held, were helped to disembark at Hoboken, Jersey City and Staten Island.

PACKING PRICES FIXED IS CHARGE

Trade Commission Claims Live Stock and Fresh Meats Are Controlled.

NEW REPORT IS SUBMITTED

Evidence Is Submitted in Additional Findings Given to Congress.

OKLAHOMA CITY IS "50-50"

Morris and Wilson Have Pact in All Southern Towns, Board Asserts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The federal trade commission in supplemental report submitted to congress today, charged the five big meat packing companies of the country with a combination in restraint of trade and with controlling the sale of live stock and fresh meats.

Evidence is cited at length to support the charges. Swift & Co., Armour & Co., Morris & Co., Wilson company, Inc., and the Cudahy Packing company are named.

"The buyers begin buying at the same time," the report stated. "If one holds off the market all hold off. So strong is the influence of big packers buying that the market is not 'made' until their buyers begin bidding."

"There exists, therefore, for each of the big packers, a centralized buying system so simply contrived and organized that it controls the smallest details of live stock purchases at each of the markets and can be set in motion and directed by a single man. Only a few men in each company need know that there is an agreement or understanding."

Check Up Operations.
The report said "the big five" jointly employ men at markets to gather market conditions and thus check each other's operations. Another check is the fact that the packers organized that it controls the smallest details of live stock purchases at each of the markets and can be set in motion and directed by a single man.

At Omaha and Sioux City, the report declared, the Cudahy and Armour plants are the largest, and Swift has recently acquired a small independent plant at Sioux City.

"At this market (Sioux City) the arrangement is for Cudahy to buy just as many hogs as Armour buys," the report declared. "The 50-50 division of hogs at Sioux City is of long standing. The report added, quoting messages from E. A. Cudahy to Manager M. E. Murphy:

"At Omaha, the commission said, 'the division of hog purchases for many years was on the following arbitrary percentages: "Armour 20, Cudahy 30, Swift 25, Morris 15."

The commission said Wilson & Co. in 1917 tried to establish a "right" to buy at Omaha, but was refused by Arthur Meeker of Armour & Co.

"Southern Towns '50-50."
Oklahoma City, Fort Worth and Denver, the report stated, all are "50-50" markets.

"That is," it was stated, "there are only two big packers operating at each of these markets and each packer is expected to purchase an equal amount of livestock. At Oklahoma City, Morris & Co. and Wilson & Co. control the stock yards and buy practically an equal number of animals."

"At Fort Worth and Denver, Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. are the only big packers. The stock yards and allied facilities are jointly controlled. Therefore, both must support the market alike."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The war department announced today that the steamer Koonland had sailed from a French port on November 29 with 1,343 soldiers, including the headquarters and headquarters detachment of the 76th division.

President Says Duty Is at Peace Sessions

Tells Congress Deeds of Soldiers Must Be Secured.

UNDECIDED ON RAILS

Wilson Has No Program to Submit Yet; Advises Study.

CONTROL IS RELEASED

Government Is Lifting Grip on Industry Rapidly.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Congress in joint session today heard President Wilson announce formally his purpose to attend the peace conference and give his views on the part the government should play in dealing with after-the-war problems.

Democrats of the house received the announcement with cheers in which some senators joined; the republicans were silent almost throughout the address except when the president referred to the valor and efficiency of America's soldiers and mentioned the names of Pershing and Sims. Threatened interruptions by members who disapproved of the trip and of the president's failure to include a senator among the peace delegates, however, did not materialize.

The president's annual address was read before a crowd that filled floors and galleries. He reviewed at length the country's accomplishments in the war, paying tribute to the armed forces and to loyal workers at home. Among other things, he declared that he thinks the problem of readjustment is taking care of itself without government aid.

The president said he will be in close touch by cable and wireless and that congress will know all that he does on either side.

Referring to his announcement that the French and British governments had removed all cable restrictions upon the transmission of news of the peace conference to America, the president said, he had taken over the American cable systems on expert advice so as to make a unified system available. He expressed the hope that the world would have the cooperation of the public and of congress, saying, through the cables and wireless, constant counsel and advice would be possible.

Each of the addresses was devoted to the railroad problem, for which the president said he now had no solution to offer. He recommended careful study by congress, saying it would be his duty to permit a return to old conditions under private management without modifications.

The president declared he stood ready to release all railroads from government control unless a satisfactory plan for readjustment could be worked out.

The president said he hoped to see a formal declaration of peace by treaty by the time spring has come.

No definite program of reconstruction can be outlined now, Mr. Wilson said, but as soon as the armistice was signed, government control of business and industry was released as far as possible. He expressed the hope that congress would not object to conferring upon the war board or some other agency the right of fixing export priorities to assure shipment of food to starving people abroad.

Favors Tax Plan.
As to taxation the president endorsed the plan for levying six percent on income in 1919 and for notifying the public in advance that the 1924 levy will be four billion dollars.

The new three-year naval building program was endorsed because, the president said, it would be unwise to attempt to adjust the American program to a future world policy as yet undetermined.

Paying tribute to the people's conduct in war, he spoke particularly of the work of women and again appealed for woman suffrage by federal amendment.

He had no private thought or purpose," in going to France, but that he regarded it as his highest duty, the president added.
