

Music Will Feature Easter Services in Tulsa Churches

Special Programs Prepared for Enjoyment of Worshipers Today.

FAIR SKIES ARE PROMISED

Knight Templars Will Attend Afternoon Ceremony at Trinity Episcopal.

With the promise of fair skies a rainy temperature and a bright sun are expected to accompany the festive Easter morning parade.

If the weather should be disappointing there will be the certainty of a musical feast and a wealth of flowers at every church in the city.

In some of the larger churches the regular choirs have been augmented for the occasion and large choruses will join in the rendition of the sacred music appropriate to the theme of the Savior's resurrection.

The pipe organ recitals, as will be seen by the reference to the church announcements on another page, are especially attractive to the lover of music.

Many flowers were brought to the city from distant florist shops for the decoration of the churches of the city and there will be a springtime touch to the Easter surroundings.

Grace Methodist Church. The Easter program will be given at 11 a. m. Instead of the regular preaching service. A photograph of the members of the Sunday school is to be taken. There will be a special musical program.

Knights Templar. A special Easter sermon will be preached to the Knights Templar of Trinity communion at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon by the Rev. C. V. Kling, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. The Knights Templar will meet at Masonic hall and go in a body to Trinity church.

Emmanuel Baptist. Special Easter services for Odd Fellows will be conducted at 11:45 a. m. at the Emmanuel Baptist church. Choralists will attend in uniform. There will be a special musical program.

First Methodist Church. The choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Fifth and Boulder streets, will render the cantata, "The Crucifixion," by John Stainer, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, closing with the Easter anthem, "Christ is eternal," by Protheroe.

The choir consists of: Miss Arnes Dunigan, soprano; Mrs. J. R. Hadley, contralto; H. W. Hollingsworth, tenor; G. E. Bennett, tenor; R. E. Howe, basso; Mrs. A. W. Hine, organist and musical director.

Temple Israel. Temple Israel will hold Passover services at 8 o'clock Sunday evening in the superior court room of the county courthouse, Sixth and Boulder. Rabbi J. B. Menkes will speak on "The Spirit of the Feast" and an invitation is extended to all to be present, irrespective of creed.

The First Christian Church. Charles K. Steele, director; Miss Eulalie Parks, pianist. Morning worship, 10:45 o'clock. Prelude, "Triumph," Processional Hymn, Prayer, Choir Response; Hymn of Praise; Responsive Reading; Hymn; Prayer; "Hymn of Meditation"; Communion Service; Soprano Solo, "The Resurrection," Miss Harvey; Offertory, Nocturne G. Miner; Quartette, "I Am He That Liveth," Miss Harvey; Mrs. Dutt; Mr. Steen; Mr. Leslie; Sermon; Hymn of invitation. Evening service, 8 o'clock: Prelude, Lenora; Opening Hymn; Anthem, "Fling Wide the Gates," Hans Solo, "And When They Had Mocked Him," Mr. Leslie; Quartette, "Day of Wonder, Day of Gladness," Miss Simril; Mrs. Sanger; Mr. Fleming; Mr. Leslie; Scripture Reading; Hymn; Prayer; Offertory, Serenade; Anthem, "Hail to the Risen Lord;" Sermon; Hymn of Invitation; Benediction.

It Happened In West Tulsa

New items for this column can be loaned to or left at the office of The World's West Tulsa Bureau, where The World's West Tulsa Bureau has been established.

Wyatt Elliott, an Osage Indian, again went on a rampage Friday night. At the dance below the West Tulsa hall, Elliott decided to collect some "coin" so he posted himself in the entrance of the hall and began to collect admission to the dance, resulting in several of the patrons having to pay twice. Patrolman Garton was called and Elliott was taken to the city jail.

Patrolman Garton made a midnight raid on several gambling houses Friday night and made a large haul. Several of the "dice tappers" were women.

E. J. Hills returned home from Pawhuska Saturday morning after having spent several days on business.

Five old frame buildings across from the postoffice on Division street, are being torn down to make room for several new homes which will be built by M. V. Walters.

Over 60 members attended the meeting of the Knights of Pythias in the Marcus hall Friday night. Seventeen applicants were accepted to take the work of the order. Thirty-five members will be initiated at the meeting next Friday.

Dr. E. Y. Bass returned Saturday morning after several days' visit with friends and relatives in Talala.

Over 50 children attended the Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon which was given by the ladies of the Baptist church in the Red Fork park.

B. Kirkland of St. Louis, who has been spending several days with his brother, D. Kirkland, left for his home Friday night.

Due to the heavy wind storm which visited West Tulsa Friday night the store en route westward was compelled to land. Waiting un-

It Happened In Sand Springs

Genevieve Bowman, 413 North Lincoln street, entertained at bridge Thursday night a large number of friends. The following were present: Genevieve Willet, Doris Vance, Olive Baxter, Georgia Aiken, Bernice Derby and Kathleen Campbell of Tulsa, and Helen Corning and Heddie Hamilton of Sand Springs. The largest score was made by Olive Baxter.

James Moore, 620 North Lincoln left for Ponca City, where he has accepted a position with a cafe owned by his brother Ira.

The members of the sixth grade of the Fairfield school were taken on their annual outing to the Sand Springs park Friday under the direction of their teacher, Miss Bernice McNeil.

James Renner has let a contract for the erection of a new home on North Washington street.

Mayd Mellet of Norman has been the guest at the M. E. Parsonage during the week.

James Trimble of the Pierce restaurant left for Claremore Friday night.

The inside of the Baptist church has been remodeling during the past week and new pews have been installed.

Miss Nathaniel White of North McKinley took her Sunday school class out on an all-day picnic Thursday.

Harold James is critically ill at the home of his brother-in-law, Bert Weaver, North Washington, suffering from a severe case of pneumonia.

A special Easter service will be held in the Broadway Baptist church Sunday evening. John Smith of Third and Washington streets will have charge of the service.

The members of the Sand Springs high school were the guests of Genevieve Bowman Saturday evening. The evening was spent in dancing and bridge.

Roy L. Wagstaff returned to the city after having spent several weeks in Weleetka, Okla., convalescent from a severe case of the flu.

The plans for the high school and ward buildings, which are being prepared by an Oklahoma City firm of architects, will soon be completed.

Miss Lela Glover visited Tulsa Saturday where she met her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grove, formerly of Collinsville, who are stopping in the city for a few days before they depart for the east.

Genevieve Bowman acted as one of the judges in a musical contest held in Ada Friday evening.

Bert Sutton, proprietor of the North Side Furniture Store, is transacting business in Wichita, Kan., this week.

Work on the annex of the colored school in Southtown is progressing nicely under the able direction of Brickner Laws, contractor of Tulsa.

Charlie Robins is confined to his home suffering with a severe case of the grip.

Mamie Kipner and Lawrence Waddell were quietly united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The couple was attended by Vera Glover and Walter Mosger with the Rev. W. D. Watkins officiating. Miss Kipner has been employed in the postoffice and has made a host of friends in the city. After a brief honeymoon the couple will reside at Wild Horse, where the groom is engaged in the grocery business.

The Easter egg hunt at the park Saturday was a great success. The youngsters had the "time of their lives."

The Liberty theater gave a play Friday evening for the benefit of the local ball club. The club received half of the net receipts for the purchase of uniforms and other necessities.

Misses Bernice and Coala McNeil paid a visit to their aunt, Mrs. F. E. Hawn, 620 North Lincoln, last week.

Miss Mamie Kifer and Lawrence Waddell were guests of Miss Vera Glover, 618 North Lincoln, at dinner Friday evening.

The Reverend Corning of the M. E. church was called to Wichita, Kan., the first of the week in connection with the Centenary movement.

Tulsa Oilman at Sanitarium. Bert Schooley, a Tulsa oil man well known in the Oklahoma field, is learned, is in the Mayo institute at Rochester, Minn., undergoing treatment which will probably keep him there for several weeks. Friends of Schooley who are aware of his long illness are making inquiry as to his needs. His address at Rochester is 71-2 Second street, southeast.

More than 100 Tulsa Masons are expected to attend the Scottish Rite reunion at McAlester on Monday. The party will leave via the Midland valley railroad at 8:25 o'clock Monday morning, arriving at McAlester in time for the master's degree. The return trip will be made on a special train, leaving McAlester after the work is over.

LEAVE FOR REUNION OF SCOTTISH RITE MASONS

SALE
Positively
Closes
April 22

JUST THINK OF IT!

SALE
Positively
Closes
April 22

Only Two More Days and then the Great Sale of the Water Damaged Stock of the BERRY-BEALL COMPANY will be a matter of history.

THE UNION DEPARTMENT STORE

112-114 SOUTH MAIN

Has Prepared Some Remarkable Bargains for Your Selection.

HERE ARE A FEW OF THEM

A Big EXCURSION to TULSA Monday and Tuesday From All Surrounding Cities. Join the Crowd—Your Fare Will Be Refunded EXTRA SPECIAL FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY One Hundred $30 and $40 Men's Silk Lined Suits $14.95

OUR MONDAY AND TUESDAY SPECIAL 1c TABLE IS READY

SPECIALS FOR YOUR APPROVAL:

- Extra heavy ducking; only 10 yards to a customer; special value 50c; extra special, only 29c
- Men's pants, special 98c at
- John B. Stetson derby hats; blue, green and black; to $7.50 values; special 25c
- 1,000 hats trimmed in silk, etc.; take them away, 14c each
- Woolnap blankets, $1.98 only
- Leather gloves 39c for
- Ladies' silk lined dress coats 99c
- Men's undershirts, $1.25 grade. Not over two to a customer; at 25c
- Muslin, as good as Hope; per yard 10c
- Ladies' waists; the $1 grade 25c
- Men's 25c hose; 12 pairs for $1.49
- Ladies' skirts; $5 and $10 values 98c
- Ladies' corsets; small sizes 49c
- Children's wash suits 50c at
- 100 kimonos, worth $2 to $2.50 after you wash them, 71c for
- Kayser silk gloves; 16-button; the kind that sell for $1.25 and $1.50, for 39c at
- Men's hose 9c at
- Boys' suspenders, slightly damaged by water, 12½c at
- Wash ties; 25c values; two for 25c
- Heavy plaid blankets for $1.97
- Cotton gloves; worth double; per pair 12½c
- Gray blankets $1.49 at
- Comforts $1.98 at
- Velvet ties; choice grade, 9c for
- Boys' balbriggan and athletic union suits 39c
- Men's white handkerchiefs, each 5c
- Men's white handkerchiefs; embroidered 8½c
- Ladies' vests; your choice 12½c
- Stylish and handsome silk dress coats $1.99 for
- Blouses, each $1.00
- Skirts $1.14 for
- Large bunch of flowers 4c for
- Field hats 4c at
- Boys' hats 49c at
- Full dress shirts 25c at
- Men's belts, 50c, 75c and $1 values at 25c
- Khaki belts 5c at
- Children's caps 17c at
- Self-forming dress frames; $1.25 value, 19c at
- Ladies' leather belts 5c at
- Large American flags; 50c value for 25c
- Parasols; $1 values 25c at
- Ladies' leather half soles; pair 19c
- Loose-leaf cover and filler; 50c value 25c
- Children's school copy books at 4c
- Children's tan hose 8½c at
- American Beauty silk hose; all colors 49c at
- Silkatine, three for 10c
- Shopping bags 19c at
- Sandals; boys' and girls' at 65c
- 1,000 soup bowls; big assortment; at 8c
- Auto caps; choice of $1 and $2 caps 39c
- Head scarfs; $2 and $3 values 39c
- Polka dot percale; one yard wide 14½c
- 25c gingham 12½c at
- 10,000 cards of buttons; values at from 50c to $1.50, 5c at

As the goods dry we put them on sale. Please dry your purchases. Don't leave them wrapped up in the bundle.

UNION DEPARTMENT STORE

112-114 SOUTH MAIN STREET