The First National Bank of Chickasha are putting out some very neat advertising in the shape of small nicely engraved slips of paper, being works of art in engraving and printing. The slips are 7x3 1/2 inches, bearing a portrait and a big lot of "fives" in different portions. The paper bears the signature of four individuals and the beauty of the whole advertisement is that the slip of paper can be used to buy chuck, Chickasha town lots, beer or almost any good thing. You need not be told that it is a five dollar bill, but there may be a curiosity to know how the editor came to have one of them. The adv is all right and will go in any community at par value.

The circulation of the Daily Express continues to climb up every day. The people know and appreciate a good thing when they see it.

The reception given to Rev. Leonard at the Presbyterian church last night was well attended and highly enjoyed. It was simply a reception and nothing more. Mrs. Light, Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Dawson were the receptors and visitors coming in were made "at home" in such a charming manner that it was a mix from beginning to end. It was nothing but talk, talk, talk until a goodly hour when a luncheon of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served, and THAT was enjoyed. The church building was nicely arranged and seats were in plenty for all. It was a very pleasant affair, where every one did their best to make the other feel that they were all akin.

A Sad Accident.

Last Monday Mr. Henry Kirkendall, about 18 years old, son of Mr. Joe Kirkendall, living 12 miles northeast of here, went out to ride the pasture. As he did not come home during the day, a search was made for him and he was found in an unconscious condition from which he never recovered and died Tuesday morning, whether his horse fell on him or how he met his death is not known. He was worthy and bright young man of good promise.

MARRIED, WILSON—WATKINS.

At the Methodist parsonage in Chickasha, on Saturday, September 15th at 2 p. m., Miss Susie Wilson and Mr. Charles Watkins, Rev. Camera officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present. The happy couple left on the north bound train for Okarche to visit the parents of the groom, and where a reception and supper was given in their honor. After visiting relatives of the bride in Wichita and other towns they will remain some time in Wellington, Kansas, returning to Chickasha in time of the opening of Kiowa and Comanche country.

The bride, Miss Susie Wilson, is the only daughter of Mrs. Henry Martin, and step-daughter of Mr. Martin, the stone and brick contractor. She has made many friends in Chickasha since coming here a year ago.

Possessed of all the characteristics and womanly traits which go towards making "perfect woman, nobly planned," Miss Susie as her friends loved to call her endeared herself to all who knew her. Handsome, good and accomplished, her husband is indeed to be congratulated in having won a prize.

Mr. Watkins is highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. He is a brick and stone mason, industrious, energetic and intelligent, the kind of man desirable in any community as a good citizen, and an upholder and upholder of everything good and honorable. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for their happiness and prosperity.
