THIS GOVERNMENT'S STAND.

Showing the Administration's Chinese Policy.—To be as Speedy and Complete as Possible.

IS EASILY UNDERSTOOD.

Means Just What it Says and it Says Just What it Means.—No Long Unintelligible Sentences

Department of State, Washington, D. C., Sept. 21, 1900.

Chinese correspondence, Sept. 17-21, 1900. Inquiries of the Russian government and replies thereto:

Memorandum handed to Mr. Adee by the Russian charge d'affairs, Mr. De Wollant, September 17, 1900, 10:45 a. m.

(Translation.)
"1. Has the federal government the intention to transfer the residence of the legation from Peking to Tien Tsin? This step has been recognized as practical and appropriate to the end even by the powers which find it necessary to leave troops at Peking.

"2. Are the full powers of Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang recognized as sufficient by the federal government?

"3. Is the federal government prepared to charge its representatives to enter without delay upon the preliminary negotiations with the plenipotentiaries of the emperor of China?"

Memorandum in reply to the Russian charge's memorandum dated September 17, 1900:

"1. The government of the United States has not any present intention to withdraw its legation from Peking.

"2. The government of the United States accepts the plenipotentiary Earl Li Hung Cheng and Prince Ching as prima facie sufficient for the preliminary negotiations looking toward the return of the imperial Chinese government and to the resumption of its authority at Peking and toward the negotiation of a complete settlement by the duly appointed plenipotentiaries of the powers and of China.

"3. To these ends, the United States minister in Peking will be authorized to enter into relations with Earl Li and Prince Ching as the immediate representatives of the Chinese emperor.
"Department of State, Washington, Sept. 21, 1900."

Four Men Dead.

Equinoctial Storm Was Severe at Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 24.

Four men at least met death in the equinoctial storm that went over the Gulf of Georgia. A fishing boat was seen to capsize just inside the Narrows and its four occupants were thrown into the water. A boat sent to the rescue was also upset but the men were picked up by a tug. The fishermen however were not found. Great anxiety is felt for other fishermen who are still out. Several small steamers and scows broke loose from their moorings and were damaged or sunk as they smashed into the wharves.

Home industries properly patronized are worth more to a town by way of making it a substantial place to live in and do business in than anything else. A town that has the natural resources to make it an industrial and commercial center should not criminally neglect any opportunity.

The Autumnal Equinox

A touch of the regular equinoctial gales visited Muskogee last night, and with the remembrance of the Galveston horror so fresh in the peoples minds, many were considerably alarmed. Small trees were blown down and limbs scattered about. The rain and mud will perhaps last until after Sunday, the day of autumnal equinox when the day and night are of equal length all over the world. The sun will enter the first point of Libra about 11:40. The celestial equator and ecliptic intersect each other at that time.—Muskogee Times.

THE STRIKE CRISIS IS NEAR.

To-Morrow when the Mines Open The Climax is Expected.

TROUBLE IS FEARED.

The Hills Around Shenandoah are Dotted with the Militia Camps and Troops are Constantly Arriving to Protect the Collieries.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 22—With 2,200 troops camped on the hills surrounding the town and with four Gatling guns and two field rifles commanding the roads Shenandoah has had a day of peace.

The crisis is expected Monday. Then the collieries will be reopened and many miners will return to work. Trouble is feared and the authorities are preparing for a struggle with the thousands of Lithuanians and Slav strikers, who declare no coal shall be mined till their demands are granted. Late this afternoon Brigadier General Gobin, in command of the state troops here, held a long conference with the officials of the Lehigh and other mine interests.

A HEAVY BET ON BRYAN.

Twenty Thousand Dollars Bet on the Nebraskan.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 24—Having full faith in his judgment, formed after close observation of conditions, Colonel W. H. Dewey of Idaho, has made a wager of $20,000 that William Jennings Bryan will be the next president of the United States. Colonel Dewey got odds of 2 to 1.
