The Wapples-Platter Grocer
Company of Fort Worth

Coming to Chickasha to Locate

It Means an Investment of $100,- 000.00 in Building and Stock.

Mr. Wapples, of the big grocer firm of Wapples-Platter Grocer Company of Fort Worth, was here yesterday and bought the lots on corner of 3rd street and Choctaw avenue, now occupied by F. M.
Denton as a music store. This building will be moved off and in its place this company will erect a two story and basement brick of 50x165. The building will be pushed to an early completion, the contract stipulating not longer than six months.

W. L. Sawyers will begin next week to put up an iron warehouse on the corner north of the Citizens Bank, to be 25x70 feet to be used by this Grocer company as a ware-room while their house is building. It is expected that this house will be doing business in Chickasha by the 1st of January.

This is one of the largest and strongest wholesale grocery concerns in the southwest and needing more room for their increasing trade have chosen Chickasha as the point for a branch house.

The new building will have a most eligible location with south and west fronts, and extending back to a switch connection in the rear.

The Express feels jubilant over the affair and the whole people can rejoice over it.

In a letter from Sergeant John J. Williams, company B 32d U. S. volunteers to an aunt living in the city, he gives the following prayer as being the common one in use in the army of the Philippines:

"Our Father who are in Washington; Bill McKinley be thy name. The day has come thy will be done in the Philippines as its done in America. Give us this day our daily sowbely and hard luck, and forgive us as we forgive those niggers, who try to ambush us, and lead us not in to China, but deliver us, from the Philippines and we will vote for you for ever and ever. Amen.

From the tone of reports from Washington congress at this session is going to do something for the Comanche reservation. It is in the air and will be an accomplished fact. There is no need to lose courage over the Comanche reservation being opened next spring or summer. The Express has never lost its grip and believes the country will open on or near schedule time.
