

LOCAL NEWS.

Roger James, one of the enterprising full blood Choctaw Indians in this vicinity, lives on Salt creek, and has been building him a nice house, and then dug a well. In doing this he had to go 100 feet before finding water, and when he did he found in abundance, but so salty as to be unfit for use. He will test it by boiling and thinks it is strong enough to manufacture salt from. He will report the result.
