Christmas in Chickasha.

The Christmas dinner at the Early House yesterday was an event in the history of dinners in Chickasha.

The dinner room was elaborately and beautifully decorated with Christmas greens, flowers and a Christmas tree, with a myriad of toy wax candles, all ablaze.

The word "welcome", outlined with cedars and flowers, greeted the guests, and was supplemented by beautifully laden tables.

The windows were darkened, but the brilliancy of hanging lamps made every one forget that the dynamo was taking a Christmas lay off. The dinner—and such a dinner, may the giver of all good have a special blessing in store for the givers of good dinners, and may he bless into hot and hostess of the Early House, early and late and all the time. The menu was printed to express a few days ago, but the dinner far surpassed the menu, although that was a work of art.

The menu cover, embossed in bronze lettering, "Christmas Greeting, 1900," was further embellished with photographs of typical scenes in this country. Landlord Early and his charming wife, aided by Miss Fessler, made their guests at home and happy, and the superb and delicious dinner was the most enjoyable and complete in every respect of any on record in Chickasha.

Invited guests were Mrs. Spelker, Messrs and Mesdames H. B. Johnson, W. F. Grantee, Clay Donagan, A. M. Dawson, Miss Kate Remington, Dr. Hodge, besides these and the regular patrons of the hotel, a number of Chickasha people enjoying the occasion. Messrs and Mesdames G. W. Armstrong, R. W. Shepherd, G. W. Mayford, Mr. A. S. Golley, George King, J. W. Speake, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sudder.

Miss Kate Remington treated the guests to fine piano selections rendered in her faultless style, in the half hour before dinner.

The day in Chickasha was everything in weather that any one could wish: bright, sunny, and warm enough to go out without wraps. Business was generally suspended, and the business men were out for the day. The usual display of crackers and bombs and fireworks, were on dit for the day, and the boys were in all their glory. Christmas day in Chickasha was one to be remembered.

Resolutions of Respect.

The L. O. F., and the Evergreen Rebekah lodge of Chickasha, Ind. Terr., wish to testify to their love and respect, and their sympathy for their brother, Mr. A. Haight and their sister, Mrs. Hattie Haight, in their recent bereavement and sorrow, in the suffering and passing away of their son, Frank Haight.

Therefore they have Resolved, That the brothers and sisters, members of these orders, do hereby express their sympathy with their brother and sister Haight. That they commend to Him that doeth all things well these sorrowing hearts and say to them that inasmuch as their beloved son was a true and worthy Christian, that his peace with God was sure and everlasting. So may they be happy in his release from pain, and await a glad reunion with him in that bright world where there shall be no more death but all is joy and peace and love.

We are sorry to note the continued illness of Mrs. Judge Grigsby, and hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Louthan entertained a fine dinner yesterday at their home on west Hill. An elegant dinner and a pleasant time. Guest were, Mrs. Louthan, son, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Light, his father and Mrs. Mathers, Messrs and Mrs. Dault and Frank Louthan.

Judge H. L. Grigsby has his new residence on West Hill about completed and will move into it in a few days. The Judge has planned his home and has four nice well arranged rooms with an old fashioned fireplace and two large closets.

Major E. W. Anderson is moving his stock of groceries to the building formerly occupied by the Copeland Hinnery. Major Anderson will enlarge his stock and expects to be up to date in every respect.

Porter Bros expect their bake oven in a few days, and will then be ready for business.

Too many men draw their sorrows in the cup that should be used to keep off snake bites.

Housewife—My dear, I see a two-column article in the Sunday paper about how flowers are being adulterated. Husband—Well, I don't care, per se, but you. We can't get nothing strong with our stomachs if we take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. All druggists sell it, or see E. Honert.

NOTICE.

The regular annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank will be held at its banking rooms at Chickasha on Tuesday, the 5th day of January, 1901, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock.
