

"INSIDE INN" ADVANTAGES.

Why the Only Hotel in the World's Fair Enclosure Promises to Be a Popular Hostelry.

Comfort at Modest Prices.

There is one large hotel on the grounds of the World's Fair at St. Louis called "The Inside Inn." It has a capacity of accommodating with comfort and safety, 6,000 guests.

The Inside Inn is embowered in natural forest trees. It is in fact a bit—a big bit—of suburban enterprise set in the edge of a great city.

In short, the guest at the Inside Inn will be practically a summer resort, away from the din and clamor and dust and heat of the busy city.

The guests at the Inside Inn will be the only visitors who can see the world's Fair from their own front door, so to speak.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

(Atchison Globe.) When they have you dead to rights, don't deny it; refuse to talk.

We like spring, and winter, and fall, but dog-on the good old summer time.

When a real meek man goes good and mad, he comes mighty near having fits.

There are lots of cooks who can make fresh vegetables taste like canned.

A woman isn't in it these days unless her hair is done up in the shape of a breakfast bun.

Have you been out to the woods to gather violets? Have you done your sacred duty to spring?

After a man has become real well acquainted with the Missourians, he never contradicts them.

When guests arrive their hostess' servant girl leaves, and her husband doesn't because he can't.

We have noticed that when people advertise for a girl now, they say: "Wanted—a girl to HELP with housework."

When a man and his wife walk along the streets they should avoid the appearance of wrangling. This may seem a happy hollow bun, but it is not.

Say what you please about the women being shielded from the world; when it comes to being carefully guarded, what is the matter with the married men?

Bill Simpkins, the farmer, was roaring today about hard times and about the country going to the dogs. "It ain't the country, Bill," a neighbor said, "it's you."

An Open Letter.

From the Chapin, S. C. News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief.

Colonel C. M. Hobbs, former president of the Farmers and Planter bank at Duncan, died last night.

CASTORIA.

The farmers of northern Oklahoma, and especially those of Kay county, are becoming interested in sugar beet culture, and there will be quite an extensive acreage of this crop planted this spring.

AT HALF MAST.

Sometimes we are greeted in the morning by flags at half-mast for some prominent official who yesterday was apparently in perfect health.

It is time people learned that indigestion or any form of "stomach trouble" is not a thing to trifle with. The result may not be fatal, but there can be no condition of diseased stomach which does not carry with it physical loss and weakness.

"Thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. Charles H. Gorman, of Leighton, Pa. "It is the only medicine that has done me any good."

This grand remedy does its work in a thorough manner; it gives the health that is all health; the strength that is solid, substantial and lasting; that is flabby fat, not false stimulus, but genuine, complete, renewed vitality and life force.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

A Boston girl named Sophia. Once died and went lower; not high. "Hey, devils," yelled Nick, "Get her out of here, quick; That woman will freeze out my fat."

"Jerry Pitts ought to study up on grain," says the Paw Paw Basoo. "He came to town Monday for a load of oats and got a load of rye. The town marshal showed Jerry his mistake."
