DEMOCRATS OF CANADIAN.

Lining up For Nominations For County Offices.

The Yukon Sun sizes up the political situation in Canadian county as follows: Present indications point to the re-nomination of Probate Judge Phelps, Register of Deeds Standard, Sheriff Ornum, and County Superintendent Dickford.

Pat Kelly and Robert Bretz, both good west side Democrats, will go into the primary as candidates for the nomination for county clerk.

John W. Clark, M. B. Cope, Harry Lee Fogg and possibly A. M. Baldwin and others will contest for the nomination for county attorney.

John H. Russell, of Yukon, Geo. Haworth, of Reno, and Geo. D. Hill, of Osarcho, will fight it out in the primary to see who gets to run for county treasurer. Geo. Dixon, of Union, was urged to get into the race, but declined to do so.

Major Simpson and Judge Lowe, of El Reno, are being boosted for the council. Kingfisher county will probably concede the nomination to Canadian.

We have heard very little gossip about the prospective candidates for commissioners. It is said that P. Key, of Union, may be a candidate in the second district, and we understand Mr. Leeper will run if the party manifests a desire for him to continue as commissioner. We presume

W. H. Johnson will run again in the Third district, though there is some talk of ex-Commissioner Robert Crowley entering the race.

An El Reno "wise one" suggests these candidates for commissioners: First district, R. E. Steele; Second district Ben Wilson; Third district Jack Barker.

There is not much talk about the office of representative so far as we know, but the present incumbent will doubtless line up for reelection as soon as the campaign opens in earnest.

Dark Horse

Liable to Upset Democratic Presidential Calculation

Washington, D. C., May 9.—"The Democratic nomination for president will be made at St. Louis and not before the convention meets," said a prominent New York Democrat today. "The men who are playing this game are using candidates as tentpins to knock out one another and keep the way open for a dark horse in the convention."

"A month ago the old line Democrats who were not in the confidence of the managers were fearful that Mr. Hearst would run away with the nomination. There is no danger of that. Hearst was allowed to spend his money and draw the fire of the Republicans and the independent Democrats. The Belmonts and those who were working with them and looking to them for a campaign fund had no idea of allowing Hearst to be nominated. He was a good enough Morgan to keep out Mr. Bryan and also Mr. Cleveland, neither of whom could possibly unite the party. When the time came for New York to express a preference the players looked about for a man to check Hearst."

"Mr. Belmont came to Washington to confer with Democratic senators and representatives. He named Judge Parker. He was asked by some of the leaders if he meant that Parker should be the candidate, and he was advised, if he did, to keep Parker in the background until the convention met in St. Louis. He did not follow that advice, but united with David B. Hill to instruct the New York delegation for Parker. Parker is a clean and able man, but has no political record. His negative record and his judicial dignity might have been a valuable asset in a political campaign, had he been held in reserve."

Parker Used to Check Hearst.
"But he was put forward to check Hearst, and that in itself makes him impossible as a harmony candidate. The followers of Bryan and Hearst will never support him. They would aid a third ticket, or even the Republican ticket, against Parker. In connection to this, Judge Parker is now carrying three heavy handicaps. The first is David B. Hill, whose record is not one to give assurance to even the conservative wing of the party, and Parker, being politically unknown, his identity as Dave Hill's choice is a very heavy handicap."

"His next handicap is the indorsement of Grover Cleveland, who has for eight years been denounced by Democrats as a traitor to his party, and who is hated throughout the south. The support of Hill and Cleveland is a heavy burden for Parker as a harmony candidate, and the ungrammatical platitudes strung together as a platform stamp Parker so completely the creature of Hill that he can have no identity of his own."
Look Out for Towne.
"Hill used Parker's name to secure control of the Albany convention, as Murphy, the new chief of Tammany, sought to use Cleveland's name. It was a game for New York and Hill won. Parker has bowled over Hearst, and the question now is who will be used to bowl over Parker."

"Who will it be?"
"Look out for Charles A. Towne. There are several moves yet to be made before the convention meets in July. The best man to bowl over Parker is Charles A. Towne, who left the Republican party to aid the Democrats in their silver campaign. He would have the help of the Bryan Democrats, because of what he did in 1896 and 1899, and he would not be absolutely opposed by the New York capitalists, because for four years he has been one of them as a Texas oil magnate."

"Towne is now a good Tammany man, and Tammany has not given up the fight against Parker. With Tammany and Hearst and Bryan fighting Parker's nomination, it would mean certain defeat at the polls to nominate him for president. And with Tammany and Hearst and Bryan openly fighting Parker, and Hill and Belmont having won their game in New York by securing the control of the state machine, it would not be difficult for Mr. Towne to bowl over the judge and come to the front as the next favorite."

Belmont Friendly to Towne.

"Belmont would not throw stones at Towne. He offered to put forward Towne in place of Parker, but Towne did not care to be used as a club to beat Hearst and offend Bryan. It will be easier and more consistent to use Towne to club Parker out of the race, and Towne can hold the situation for awhile until the players get ready the real candidate, or are ready to use some one else to knock him out and keep the situation uncertain until the convention is assoned."

"There will probably be no delegates instructed for the real candidate of the convention. He will be a harmony candidate, selected because he has been loyal in the past and not mixed up in the contest for the nomination. It may be Gorman or Gray, or some other man, but it will not be Parker. It may possibly be Towne, but not probably. If there is any chance for a Democratic candidate, Senator Gorman will try to take that chance himself, and some of the most forceful manipulators of conventions will be with Gorman."

WANT HAINER REMOVED.

Lawyers Will Ask for an Investigation by Congress.

Special to Daily Leader.

Perry, Okla., May 9.—The failure of the attempt of a majority of the members of the bar in the court district of Judge Bayard T. Hainer to secure prompt action in Washington in their demand for his removal will cause one of his opponents, possibly a lawyer of Blackwell, to start to Washington in a few days to make a personal appeal to President Roosevelt and Attorney General Knox. This will be done at the request of Republican lawyers who wish to avoid, if possible, a plan that will be followed, should unsatisfactory answers be made by the president and attorney general.

This plan contemplates the publication in pamphlet form of all the charges and affidavits against Judge Hainer, and their submission to proper Washington officials and members of the house and the senate. The pamphlet will form the basis of a resolution to be introduced next winter, calling for a congressional investigation in the senate.

S. H. Harris, active in the opposition to Judge Hainer, says publicly that the special agent sent to investigate the charge declines to accept sworn evidence injurious to Hainer.
