SCOTT FERRIS ALWAYS ON THE JOB

Congressman Scott Ferris' untiring support of the Shackelford Good Road Bill, which provides for the expenditure of $25,000,000 on the public roads of the United States, should be commended by all patriotic farmers of the country. The biggest question before the American people today is the question of good roads and Ferris' efforts in behalf of this bill is only another indication of the bigness of the man. The Literary Digest of Feb. 28th, commenting on Mr. Ferris' speech in support of the bill, has the following to say:

"Here are some paragraphs from a speech in the House by Congressman Ferris, of Oklahoma, one of the members called 'bucolic' by the New York World. Mr. Ferris attempts to state the case for the farmers:"

"We must spend more within and less without. Improve the conditions within, and we will have no fear from without.

"Internal improvements, in which the plain people have a deep and immediate interest, rather than a remote one will do more to keep us a happy, closely united, and contented people than all the subsidies paid to railroads, to mail ships and steamships, to tariff subsidies and high duties laid on the one least able to bear and for the benefit of the class least in need. I tell you, sir, the American people will not sit idly by and be ground down by inequalities and inequities for which you can give no good or adequate answer.

"Millions for post-offices and public buildings for a few towns of the country and no assistance for the post roads and the little towns, will not satisfy them, and is wrong, as well

"A billion dollar session of Congress and not one cent for post-roads or internal improvements will not satisfy the producers who send abroad annually $600,000,000 in products from their toil, zeal, and industry, thereby replenishing our Treasury to the brim.

"You have arranged tariff schedules for the manufacturer, so that his riches are greater than he ever anticipated. You have subsidized the railroads with land grants until they have grown corpulent with wealth. You have increased the appropriations for the war and navy until the patience of this citizenship is almost exhausted, and now, when asked to do something for the plain citizen, who produces more every year than he himself consumes, this bill will, and deserves to be, the most popular bill passed. It is the starting of a great improvement that will go on and on after we are gone. We shall all be proud of the beginning." This bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 282 to 42.

An Oil City, Wilson, Town Lots Offered at Auction

A town lot proposition that is attracting far more than the usual attention, is that at Wilson, the oil center at the western terminus of the Oklahoma, New Mexico & Pacific Railroad (Ringling Road) Wilson has had a wonderful growth, being now only sixty days old but having a population of 1500. The building of this new railroad westward and the discovery and rapid development of the Wilson-Healdton oil field together with inexhaustible supplies of natural gas, have caused Wilson to go forward at a surprising rate.

The town lot sale, 600 lots being on the market, will take place on March 5, 6 and 7 (three days) with Col. John B. Queen of Perry as auctioneer.

Wilson is in the western portion of Carter County, near where the counties of Carter, Jefferson and Stephens join, and in the center of a wonderfully productive agricultural and live stock country. There are untouched riches, in fact, all around and under Wilson.

The natural gas possibilities are beyond comprehension. Cheap natural gas means factories and allied industries, and the big oil field means refineries, and Wilson is bound to win. Nothing can prevent it.

The same conditions that made Tulsa, Beaumont and Wichita Falls are Wilson's and even more so for Wilson has no opposition. It is the only Wilson-Healdton oil town.

All the 600 lots are to be sold at the purchaser's own price, absolutely none to be reserved. The conditions are 30 per cent down and the remainder in 10 per cent monthly payments.

The sale pavilion will be located on the lots, and rain or shine the sale will be held.

Free every day, also, will be given away two choice residence lots, and each person attending the sale will have an opportunity to draw these. Tickets will be given each morning to all comers and the lucky number gets the lots.

This is an opportunity to get a home or a business site in the fastest growing city in the southwest, and one that is bound to become an important industrial and agricultural center. The soil around Wilson grows a bale of cotton to the acre and the farms are teeming with cattle and hogs.

This is a business opportunity, of the brand that pays.

For these three days, March 5, 6 and 7, the Oklahoma & Pacific Railway (Ringling Road) will sell a round trip ticket for one fare.

Jake L. Hamon is the owner of the townsite, Frank L. Ketch is sales manager and John B. Queen, auctioneer.

Remember, buy your tickets via Ardmore, to Wilson.
