

SWEENEY SEES IRISH FREEDOM

Says Granting of Independence to Egypt is Good Omen.

LAUDS HIS NAMESAKE

Says Lord-Mayor of Cork Exemplifies Spirit of His People.

Some encouragement for the friends of Irish freedom is seen by A. F. Sweeney, president of the local body, in the news dispatches from London that the British government is about to recognize the independence of Egypt and that a conference is being held in Dublin, made up largely of Unionists, favors the withdrawal of British troops from Ireland.

"Of course," Mr. Sweeney said, "we should always take such reports with a large grain of salt, but at that one can see that a new day is dawning. True, there have been conferences held before and promises made to be broken. And it is also true that there is no need of a constituent assembly to find out what the people of Ireland want—they decided that in the referendum held within the last two years, and the answer was the Irish republic. But it is encouraging to find that the conference, a majority of which appears to be Unionist, the Sinn Feiners having little or no representation, appears to be of one mind in denouncing British rule and in suggesting the withdrawal of British troops. One man is reported as saying this and if it is refused, asking that all Irishmen in official position resign. That would be splendid, and everybody will endorse the demand that they resign the liberation of my namesake, a heroic lord-mayor of Cork.

"It is significant that those in the conference, like all the rest of Europe, ignore the league of nations as the great peace forum, and favor direct representations with the British government. Equally significant, if true, is the report that the recognition of the independence of Egypt comes direct and not through league channels. They don't take the league as seriously over there as its advocates here in America take it. "However, if Egypt attains independence without any strings tied to it and is to resume the place it held 1,900 years ago, it is the first recognition by any modern government of the policy of self-determination, and an independent Ireland is the actual corollary. Even Lloyd George could hardly be capable of trying to explain to the world why Ireland should remain in chains and the Egyptians be free. It's good news, if true, but it is best to await official confirmation before starting to celebrate.

Hotel Dove Feasts May Prove Costly to Tulsans, Warden Says

A dove feast, indulged in at one of the leading hotels in this city, prove expensive to a number of Tulsans, according to E. V. Visart, United States game warden whose headquarters is Little Rock, Ark.

Visart stated that owing to the number of offenses, it would take until the end of the season to complete his evidence, and have the accused persons brought before the federal judge at the next terms of court.

There is a federal law against the killing of woodpeckers, meadow larks, and all insect eating birds. The penalty attached is a fine of not to exceed $500 or six months in jail or both. The open season on doves is from September 1st to December 15th.

SUE CAR DRIVER AFTER ACCIDENT

Collinsville Woman Asks $35,000 Damages for Injuries to Son.

Two suits for damages aggregating $35,000 were filed in the superior court, today, against W. A. Smith and Paul Smith of Collinsville, for injuries alleged to have been inflicted upon Jesse Arp, when Smith's motor car, driven by his son Paul, ran down the Arp boy at Twelfth street and Prairie avenue, Collinsville, on August 2d.

Mrs. Julia Arp, suing in behalf of her son, states in her petition for damages that Smith's car was speeding down grade and that the driver was careless and negligent, and that the car struck her son and passed over his body breaking his arms and hands, and injuring him internally. One hand, she states in the petition, will have to be amputated. For the pain and suffering and the loss of his earning capacity Mrs. Arp asks that the son be granted damages in the amount of $25,000.

W. A. Arp, using the same premises, petitions that, for the loss of time due to his son's illness, for doctor bills, and for the mental suffering due to the circumstances, he be granted damages in the amount of $10,000.

Committee to Secure Funds for Removal of Debt on Guard Armory

A committee composed of J. E. Abbott, P. J. Harley and Alva J. Niles was appointed by directors of the chamber of commerce yesterday to help raise $7,500, the amount needed to finish paying for the armory on the east side of the city. The building has already been turned over to the local guard, even though it is not quite finished, and Mr. Abbott is the contractor of the building.

MAY ABANDON CITY KITCHEN

Financial Shortage May Force Disruption of Organization.

Whether the community kitchen, located near the city market on Archer and Boulder, will survive depends to a great extent upon the finances it receives. A letter from Mrs. Lillah D. Lindsey, president of the community club, to the city commission yesterday stated that unless aid is forthcoming immediately it may be necessary to make other plans regarding the kitchen.

Accompanying the letter was a request for $500 from the city to help pay a note for $1,000 due at a local bank. Members of the city commission said that due to the recent action of the excise board, the money could not be donated, even through the community kitchen is recognized as an important institution among housewives who receive instruction there, and who use the kitchen as a medium for exchange of pastry products.

Got Board and Room But Not the Kind He Expected to Obtain

DENVER, Aug. 27.—J. B. Henderson's eyesight was nearly gone, and he was unable to read the sign over the Capitol Hill police sub-station. The flower-bedded windows gave no indication that the majesty of the law held forth within, so Henderson entered and inquired of the desk sergeant if he could "square a little change to buy some supper with." The officer had no small change he said, but assured Henderson of free board and a room, and forthwith locked him up on a charge of begging.

Women for Parliament. PERTH, Aug. 27.—Among the legislative proposals to be submitted in the forthcoming session of parliament here will be a bill to remove the disqualification against women offering themselves as candidates for parliament.

Cox All Over. Governor Cox deals in generalities. He recently charged the republicans with raising a campaign fund "sufficient in size to stagger the sensibilities of the nation." Yet he fails to produce the evidence. The people want the facts, not a lot of loose-tongued gossip. If the governor has any evidence to bear out his charge, it is his duty to produce it. If he is talking carelessly he is setting a bad example, contrary to the expressed wish of his running mate that the campaign be free of "mud slinging."—Calumet (Mich.) Mining Gazette.

HAD SUFFERED FOR 15 YEARS, SHE DECLARES

Grandniece of Founder of the Christian Church Gains 35 Pounds by Taking Tanlac.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have actually gained 35 pounds in weight," was the statement made recently by Mrs. W. T. Conway, 809 East Hydepark street, South St. Joseph, Mo. Mrs. Conway is one of the best known and highly respected women in South St. Joseph, and is a grandniece of Alexander Campbell, founder of the Christian church.

suffered so from dizziness that I have actually fallen to the floor. I had pains all through my body especially bad in the small of my back. My nerves were so upset that it was simply impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. Finally I became so run down and weak that for months at a time I could not do my housework or even leave my room.

"I tried many different medicines, but nothing seemed to reach my case until I started taking Tanlac and the first bottle of it did me more good than everything else I had taken put together. I am still taking it, although I have been practically relieved of all my troubles. Things I had not dared to eat in years now agree with me perfectly. I am almost entirely relieved of pain, and never troubled with dizziness. I can do my housework without a particle of trouble. In fact, I don't remember when I have enjoyed as good health as I do now. It is all due to what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Tulsa exclusively by the Quaker and Puritan Drug Companies.—Adv.
