"Barall's Is My Store"

A Child Can Buy as Cheap as Anybody.

Is a sentiment heard on every hand since our big bargain counters have been advertised to the people, and it is a sentiment worth ten times more to me than the paltry sums made by selling you a piece of goods at more than it is offered below. The pocketbook argument of my goods is unanswerable. I never miss an opportunity of giving my customers bargains. That's why I bought the big stock at Galveston that I told you about last week. Now, you'll listen if it will pay you, won't you? You will come and see these offerings because there is a big saving to you. Saving money is easier than making money. We see the same faces week in and week out and the story they tell is confidence in my goods and my prices. The wealthiest ladies of Ardmore and the farmer who lives fifty miles away have alike shared these bargains.
