KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Young Lady at Wood, Struck by a Fiery Bolt.

Granite, O. T., May 28.—During a rain storm Miss Hattie Maddox, 16 years old, living at Wood was instantly killed by lightning. She was sitting on the bed by a window sewing, when a bolt of lightning struck the house, tearing off a major portion of the roof. The lightning traveled down the side of the house taking with it nearly all the weather boarding and entered the window tearing up the bed and killing the young lady at once.

A needle she had been sewing with was shattered into a thousand pieces. A brother was in the room when his sister received the death blow. He was quite severely shocked. The young lady was the daughter of a prominent farmer at Wood and was the pride of the family.

Fearful Mine Explosion.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 28.—A special from Dayton, Tenn., to the Times says:

At the Richland mine of the Dayton coal and iron company, two miles from Dayton, at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon a terrific explosion of gas formed in the coal dust resulting in the death of twenty-one men all white and most of them married and with families.

The Richland mine is the property of the Dayton coal and iron company, composed of Glasgow capitalists.

The company operates an iron furnace at Dayton and operates coal mines in connection therewith.

December 24, 1895, a similar explosion occurred in the Nelson mine, situated a few hundred feet from where today's explosion occurred in which twenty-eight miners were instantly killed.

American Ship Burned.

Tacoma, Wash., May 28.—The American ship, R. D. Rice, which arrived at Kobe from Philadelphia, April 10, was totally destroyed by fire April 28, together with 35,000 cases of kerosene. She has discharged 25,000 cases. The crew jumped overboard, swimming to the British ship, Dumfriesshire, lying close by. Nothing was saved except part of Capt. Winn's effects.

The crew, numbering twenty-six, were all shipped from Philadelphia. The fire was burning fiercely when discovered by the night watchman. Its origin is unknown. The Rice is a full-rigged ship, built in 1883 at Thomaston, Me.

HEATH SAYS ITS A JOKE.

Thinks He is Due a Scolding—Hanna is too Modest.

Washington, May 28.—Perry S. Heath, secretary of the Republican national committee, has the following to say of the Hanna presidential boom, which he recently fired from London:

"It all came about in the most casual way imaginable, I was talking to a party of friends and relating to them how I tried to surprise a number of Senators here in Washington by telegraphing them that I believed Senator Hanna would be the easiest man to nominate and elect to the presidency in 1904, and how they refused to be surprised, but agreed with my views.

There were a number of newspaper men in the party, and afterward they expressed much interest in the matter, and I talked to them further along the lines quoted in the cabled interview.

"Nothing is further from my thoughts than springing a presidential boom for Senator Hanna. In the first place, it is by far too early for such an enterprise, and secondly, I know nothing is more distasteful to Senator Hanna than this talk of him for presidency. I never mentioned it to him but once, and then he sat down on me like a ton of bricks. I don't like to think of the things he will say now when I see him again. It was my honest opinion that I expressed in London that Senator Hanna is the most available man for the presidency, but I know he has never given a moment's thought to it.

Shot While Asleep.

Vinita, I. T., May 28.—News has just reached here that James Buzzard a fullblood Cherokee Indian, was shot while asleep at his home, ten miles from Tahlequah. Buzzard was asleep by the door when the would-be assassin fired the shot that tore away a part of his face. The bullet, which is supposed to have been fired from a 44-caliber Winchester rifle, entered just above the chin and ranged upward through the cheek, coming out at the ear and then cutting off his left thumb. The ball was found on the pillow. The wound will not be fatal.

I am now ready to do your repair work of all kinds. Upholstering and repairing furniture a specialty. All work fully guaranteed. At Robberson building, South Washington Street. 17-1m F. H. ROGERS.

Shot by Her Friend.

Pond Creek, O. T., May 28.—Word has just reached here of the shooting and death of a school teacher at Deer Creek, this county, Saturday afternoon. Bernard Johnson and two ladies were fishing near town. They had a target rifle and in some way Miss Bishop shot Miss Wolfson. The coroner's jury completely exonerated Miss Bishop.

A Two Sided Man

Is a queer fellow. He thinks he is keeping you in the dark, but you can see right through him. Now, in business it is bad policy to be two sided. Everything in business should bear the light. No announcement should be made that can not be fulfilled to the very letter. It is after this fashion that our business is conducted. We are not owls. The light doesn't hurt us. We crave it. We crave honest criticism and critical comparison with any competitor. We'll abide the result. It ought not to be against us. Our prices on Clothing, Hats & Furnishing will bear the light.

Is the Choctaw Road Sold?

Oklahoma City, O. T., May 28. It is believed here that the Santa Fe has purchased the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad. The belief is strengthened by the fact that the officials of the Santa Fe made a tour of inspection over the Choctaw route a few days ago. It is also reported that the company will move its shops from Purcell and Shawnee to this place and build a union station at the crossing of the two railroads.

Presbyterian Creed.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 28.—The Presbyterian assembly this morning decided in favor of creed revision. A committee of thirty-one will undertake the work. The revision chiefly affects the Westminster confession which is the foundation of the orthodox Presbyterian creed and belief. The vote for revision was almost unanimous. The commissioners and audience joined in singing "Old Hundred" when the vote was announced. It was a memorable scene.
