

World's Fair Notice.

The blast furnace workers' and smelters' union of America met last week at Youngstown, O. The meeting next year will be held at St. Louis during the World's Fair.

André Ingh, who is to play the part of Ixma the Egyptian beauty, in Behr, it is said will pose for Hamilton King who will paint Miss Ingh in the character of Cleopatra. The picture will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

Prof. Halsey C. Ives, chief of the department of art for the World's Fair, has recently returned from an extended trip through the art centers of Europe. Professor Ives says that he is assured that France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Hungary, Spain, Egypt, Italy, Holland, Russia, Greece, Norway and Denmark will make large and excellent displays.

Enclosure will occupy 10,000 square feet at the World's Fair in showing the advancement of that enterprising South American government. In the palace of agriculture she will occupy 2,800 feet, mines 1,500 feet, forestry 1,500 feet, manufactures 2,000 feet and classified 2,500 feet.

A house built entirely of fish bones will be one of the oddities encountered at the World's Fair. A St. Augustine Fla. judge is the architect of this unique structure. It will be 15x18 feet and the gable ends will be an exact reproduction of the old city gates of St. Augustine. The scales of the drum are exclusively used for the work, as they are susceptible to chemical treatment which renders them peculiarly adapted for building purposes. The bones used are those of the shark and an occasional saw fish. The furniture of this is also a novel addition. The mattresses and pillows for the bed are made of bass scales which by a certain process are rendered as soft as feathers. Nine barrels of drum fish scales are required to complete the house and these have to be carefully assorted as to size to insure uniformity.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kofol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never-failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kofol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.

A train load of young women is on its way from Virginia to marry lonesome bachelors in Montana, where girls are scarce. The magic initials F. F. V. may be interpreted to mean the First Families of Virginia.

"It Goes Right to the Spot."

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Lotion will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, proprietor Smith House, Teahua, Texas, writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Lotion in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy, for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1 at W. B. France's.

Dowie has a least one friend in New York. Ex-Chief Dorey puts in a good word for him: "Why can't they leave the old fellow alone? He's got his own graft and is working it right."

The Salve That Heals.

Without leaving a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel. It is applied to many sores, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only Witch Hazel salve made that contains the pure unadulterated witch hazel. If any other Witch Hazel salve is offered you it is a counterfeit. E. C. DeWitt invented Witch Hazel Salve and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, lacerations, or blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by all druggists.

No matter what a fair a fellow may be, he will never stay when the dog-skin comes around.

It really pays to be good if you don't believe it ask pay of the high-salaried preachers you happen to hear.

A Woman's Complexion.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local treatment," as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New sizerial bottle 25 cents; regular size 75 cents. At the City Drug Store.

A POET'S ALOOFNESS.

The Manner in Which Wordsworth Was Regarded by His Neighbors.

The worthies of Wordsworth's village in the lake country of England had their own ideas of his value as a man and a poet. When questioned after his death as to his personality they readily admitted that he was kind to those who were in sickness or need. They could count on him on a pinch, but he did not hobnob with his neighbors.

"He did not notice them much," said an old man in answer to questions asked by the author of "Lake Country Sketches."

"A Jen. Crow and an odd blue clean was his rig," continued the old man. "And as for his habits, he had none. Never knew him with a pot of beer or a pipe in his mouth."

After deep probing the author brought out:

"Yes, Wordsworth was fond of a good dinner at times if you could get him to it. That was his job."

Then the poet's aloofness was again touched upon.

"He was forever pacing the roads and his own garden walks and always composing poetry. He was terrible through in visitors and folks ye mun ken at times, but if he could get away from them a spell he was out upon his walk."

"And then he would set his head a-bowling and put his legs behind his back. And then he would start a bunting, and it was him, bum, burd, and so on bunting for long enough right down and back again. I suppose, ye ken, the bunting helped him out a bit."

Not a Good Looker.

From the mountains of Camden, Mo., comes a story of a Philadelphia merchant who has a summer cottage in that village and who wished to exchange a lively horse which he owned with a French Canadian who had a more gentle animal, which women and children could drive. The Frenchman was willing to trade, but for some reason insisted upon repeating to the visitor that the local horse did not "look" as well as the one belonging to the Philadelphia man.

An exchange satisfactory to both parties was eventually made, and the first time the visitor's wife took the new horse out for a drive she discovered that the beast was as blind as a mole. A few days later, when the rickshawer met the Frenchman, he said: "See here, you rascal. That horse you swapped with me for mine was stone blind. Why didn't you tell me of it at the time?" "Ah'm bin try tell you all Ah'm bin know how fer to tell. Ah'm bin say my horse was no look lak your horse—say so axer, nine tams. Ah'm no bin blam-ef you no hear me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Trees Shaped by the Wind.

The effect of wind upon trees is powerful. Even the presence or absence of forests may be determined by the character of the prevailing wind or the conditions that modify it. The wind acts as a drying agent, giving a special aspect to many plants. When it is almost always from the same quarter the plants show greater development upon one side. Trees are smaller on the windward edges of forests, and trunks and branches are bent to leeward. The deformations are most marked near the sea or in flat regions. The cherry, plum, walnut, black poplar, ash and certain pines are very sensitive to the wind, but mountain pines and certain firs offer great powers of resistance, and these are recommended for reforesting wind swept lands.

History Made Palatable.

Joseph Salvador, the French historian, and Jules Sandeau, a novelist, made their meeting at a public reception on the occasion of a dispute as to the respective places which they occupied in the world of letters.

"The reading of history is like a pill—it needs the sugar coating to make it palatable," argued the novelist.

"Ah, but it is the ingredient which cures, not the coating," remarked the historian.

"Then let us divide honors," said Sandeau, "for if it were not for my sugar coating your historical facts would dry on the shelves."

The Duration of a Dream.

One evening Victor Hugo was dictating letters to his secretary. Overcome by fatigue, the great man dropped into a slumber. A few moments afterward he awoke, haunted by a dream which, as he thought, had extended over several hours, and he blamed his secretary for sitting there waiting for him instead of waking him or else going away. With this surprise when the bewildered secretary told him that he had only just finished writing the last sentence dictated to him.

A Stalking Stumble.

Old Employer—You know as well as I do that I have been as faithful as clockwork in your employ.

Old Employer, chattering—Yes, just exactly as faithful as clockwork. You struck every time you could and never gave more than five minutes' warning.—Baltimore American.

Classifying Him.

"Yes, ma'am," said the peddler, "this here hair tonic will raise hair on a billiard ball."

"But will it raise hair on a pumpkin?" asked the lady of the house.

"Well, I should say so!" "I'll take a bottle and get my husband to try it."—Judge.

A Chicago man observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it, for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by City Drug Store, F. J. Ramsey and Ardmore Drug Co.
