PORTION OF ARMY LOST

WHILE ON A PRACTICE MARCH IN SOUTH TEXAS.

Found by a Ranchman Who Keeps Them Overnight and Starts them on Their Journey Next Morning—In Mesquite Bushes.

San Antonio, Oct. 9.—An Artesia platoon, who was in San Antonio tonight, said the second battalion of the Twenty-sixth infantry had a thrilling experience in La Salle county Friday in the course of its march from Fort McIntosh to Fort Sam Houston. They took the wrong road out of Encinal early in the morning and got lost among the prickly pear and mesquite. Fortunately before nightfall they were discovered by a ranchman, who guided them to his house and invited them in to supper and to share his humble abode.

"A Texas ranchman," said he, "is proverbially large-hearted, and while it is not every evening that an army is lost at his doors, they are always welcome to come in and spend the night."

This morning he directed them to Artesia, which place they passed about 8:30 o'clock. As they emerged from the brush and saw the railroad again, cheers arose from a thousand throats, with cries of "found and lost again," such cheers as must have started Aguinaldo when they pursued him daily through the jungles of the Philippines.

Saved His Life. J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was gone and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief. Two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Sold by City Drug Store."
