

At Your Service

ROYALTY AND VULGARITY

RUSSIAN PRINCE TO WED VARIETY ACTRESS OF SHADY REP.

Millions in Money Had no Effect on the Young Man With Mad Infatuation for a Woman of Commonplace Debauchery.

Ardmore Special.
Berlin, Oct. 27.—According to his expressed determination, Prince Joachim of Prussia, a cousin of Emperor William, will tomorrow lead to the altar Marie Sulzer, a variety actress of shady reputation and questionable past. Extremely fat of paunch and with ten years the senior of her prospective husband, her face and form a caricature of vulgarity and commonplace vice. Cousin Bill will have slight cause to be proud of his new relative. That the young prince is infatuated to the point of madness with this adventuress there can be no doubt. In vain have his relatives, from the kaiser down stormed and threatened. In vain they have dragged from the depths of depravity the filthy record of the creature he intended to marry the woman of a thousand "affairs," bloated with debauchery, the cast-off wife of Baron Liedenberg, who married her as the culmination of a drunken spree.

Prince Joachim is about 30 years of age, and is the second son of the emperor's uncle, the late Prince Albrecht, who died last month. Before he died, Prince Albrecht learned of his son's mad infatuation for the actress, and in an effort to break up the match reduced the young man's inheritance from 8 millions to 4 millions. Evidently the prince considered the frowsy-haired, bleary-eyed actress worth the 4 millions, for he paid as little attention to the exhortations of his father as he has since to the threats of the emperor.

If Joachim carries out his intention of marrying Marie Sulzer, it is certain that he will be forever barred from court circles and will be relieved of his title of major in the Grenadier guards, the crack regiment of the German army. In so far as it is possible to do so, all of his titles and honors will be stripped from the prince by the outraged kaiser.

Joachim has long borne the reputation of being the "black sheep" of the royal family of Europe. His escapades, although attempts have been made to cover them up, are known to have been numerous and at times almost bestial in their vulgarity. Of late years he has become more sedate, however, and has affected a love for literature and art. His apparent change of heart made the announcement of his proposed marriage to the fat and vulgar daughter of a kitchen scullion all the more startling to his friends.
