

FUND OF $159 A MONTH PLEDGED FOR EXPO MAN

COUNTY COURT MAKES GOOD APPROPRIATION

One Hundred Dollars a Month Will Be Given by County Toward Maintaining a Representative at the Klamath County Booth at Exposition—Besides This, Business Men and Others Pledge $58.50 Monthly

A total of $951 has been pledged for the maintaining of a well informed representative at the Klamath county booth at the Panama-Pacific International exposition for six months, according to a report prepared by the committee named by the Chamber of Commerce to solicit this fund.

This, divided into six installments, will mean that there is $158.50 available for the salary of a representative, and for covering other expenses incident to active participation, such as shipping down new exhibits, putting up additional signs, etc., in the Oregon building, and similar minor expenses.

Of this amount, $100 a month will be paid by the county court. At yesterday's session of the court the matter was discussed, and expressing the opinion this was a matter that was for the benefit of everybody in Klamath county, and that the cost should be equitably borne by all, the members directed the preparation of a resolution for the appropriating of $100 a month for six months.

The appropriations received thus far are as follows:

Klamath County	$600
Klamath Development Co.	60
Captain J. W. Siemens	30
First National Bank	30

Tories in British Coalition Cabinet

Here are the most prominent Unionist political enemies of Premier Asquith and his whole party, who have been taken in to form the new coalition cabinet. For many years Bonar Law, now leader of the opposition, and Sir Arthur J. Balfour have fought Premier Asquith. But when the war began they forgot party lines and went to the support of the government. Lord Lansdowne is past 70 years of age. He began his political service as a lord of the treasury from 1869 to 1872, and since then he has held one important position after another. He was governor general of Canada for five years, and was foreign secretary from 1900 to 1905. He becomes a minister without a portfolio. Lord Curzon of Kedleston, Unionist opponent of Lloyd George, Asquith and practically all of what these two men have stood for in English politics, recalls India. It was in that country that the present minister made his greatest reputation. At one time Lord Curzon was private secretary to the Marquis of Salisbury, and during his ministry he became under secretary of state for foreign affairs. From 1896 to 1905 he was viceroy and governor general of India. Arthur J. Balfour can now look back upon a lifetime of able service to the empire. Secretary to Lord Salisbury, he succeeded that distinguished statesman as prime minister. The Balfour ministry lasted from July 12, 1902, to December 5, 1905, when Campbell-Bannerman came in power. Andrew Bonar Law since 1911 has been leader of the opposition and of the Unionist party. Mr. Law is 57 years old. Interest is added to the appointment of J. Austin Chamberlain as secretary for India through the fact that he is a son of Joseph Chamberlain. He is also a unionist, and among the posts he has held may be mentioned those of civil lord of the admiralty, financial secretary to the treasury, postmaster general and chancellor of the exchequer from 1903-06.

WHAT PROJECT WILL BE BUILT BY GOVERNMENT?

MATTER IS UP TO THE LAND OWNERS

Reclamation Service Has Money for Commencing One of Three Apparently Feasible Extensions to the Klamath Project—Project Making Most Favorable Showing Will Be the One to Have Water on Lands.

The Reclamation service has $100,000 for the commencement of new extension work on the Klamath project in the fiscal year beginning July 1. Whether this extension will be the construction of the Horseshy project of 16,000 acres around Bonanza, the pumping of water to irrigate 4,700 acres above the canals between here and Olene, or the putting in of a combination gravity and pump system to irrigate 13,000 acres in the Sand Hollow country is a matter that is up to each of these communities.

These three extensions are apparently possible. The appropriation committee of the house of representatives will be here soon to look over the project, and by that time, the three projects are to make some definite report, showing the number of land owners signed up on each, and also the amount of work the farmers will be willing to do on each project free of cost to the service. The project making the best showing will be the one started.

The people in Sand Hollow country are keen for the project, which in their case would be an extension of the east branch canal, and a plant to pump from this for the higher lands. They have expressed a willingness to make their own distributing system, and to excavate the extension of the canal. This would materially cut down the per acre cost of the project.

Several Pine Grove people have been in to talk the matter over with the reclamation officials. They have made no definite decision.

Accompanied by Secretary Fleet of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce, County Agriculturist Glaisyer, County School Superintendent Peterson and J. B. Mason, Project Manager Camp yesterday visited Bonanza, where the Horseshy directors were in session. Through the efforts of the others in the party, about twenty people were out at the meeting, in addition to the directors.

Mr. Camp stated that the estimated cost of the Horseshy project is not less than $45 an acre. His proposition was for the farmers to pay 5 per cent of the total construction cost when the water was delivered to their farms, four years later begin the payment of 6 per cent per year, and continue until paid up. In addition, the operation and maintenance should be paid each year, and he pointed out that the farmers could do much of the ditch digging, etc., to reduce the total cost.

There was some discussion of the matter, one faction contending the project was a folly, and the other contending that it should be built as soon as possible. In the end, though, it was decided to have the matter taken up at once with each land owner, and by getting their opinions, have it decided at once whether this project would be in line for improvement or not.

Scottish Terrier Club of America United Press Service NEW YORK, June 2.—The Scottish Terrier Club of America today holds its annual show at the Italian gardens at the Hotel Biltmore. An innovation will be the introduction of two judges to work in concert. The idea is to have separate judges for dogs and bitches who will unite for the awards in the open and club specials.

In all the regular classes $20 will be the prize money, first getting $10, second $5, third $3 and fourth $2.

Latest Photo of Young Millionaire

John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

This is the very latest photograph of John D. Rockefeller Jr., who has been telling the Industrial Relations Commission in Washington that he was not responsible for the strike conditions in Colorado. There was a time when the young millionaire shied from the camera, and photographers had a hard time to get him. Now, however, he is not afraid. This photograph was taken shortly after he left the meeting of the commission, where he had undergone a severe cross examination.

MERRILLITES TO MARRY TONIGHT

TWO PIONEER FAMILIES WILL BE JOINED BY MATRIMONIAL CEREMONY THIS EVENING IN ALFALFA CITY

A marriage license has been issued Robert S. Adams and Miss Ruby Van Brimmer, both of Merrill. This evening the ceremony will be performed at the bride's home.

Both the bride and groom are well known in the county, and they are both of fine old pioneer stock—the real sturdy people whose efforts have been great factors in the development of the county. Adams is the son of J. Frank Adams, Klamath county's best known stockman, whose hospitality and generosity are known all over the Klamath Basin, and who has befriended more people in distress than any other man in Klamath. Miss Van Brimmer is a daughter of the late Dan Van Brimmer, builder of the Van Brimmer ditch, and father of irrigation in the Klamath country.

SEBASTIAN LEADS IN MAYOR RACE

INDICATIONS ARE THAT HE WILL BE THE MAN AT THE WHEEL IN AFFAIRS AT LOS ANGELES FOR TWO YEARS

LOS ANGELES, June 2.—Judging from the returns already in, Sebastian will be Los Angeles' next mayor. John Snowden, manager of the Whiffin campaign, admits that Sebastian has apparently been elected.

After the next election in Chicago, women will be barred from acting as election clerks and judges.

WILSON LETTER TO MEXICO IS IN PLAIN WORDS

MUST UNITE, OR UNITED STATES WILL STEP IN

Terrribly Unsettled Conditions During the Past Four Years Are Reviewed, and the Various Factions Are Told to Get Together and Decide Upon Something That Will Re-Establish the Nation.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—President Wilson's note on the Mexican situation, on which he has been working privately for some time, was made public today.

The message demands that leaders of all factions in Mexico must act together promptly for the "relief and redemption of their prostrate country." Wilson reviews the conditions in Mexico for the past several years, and declares that the present situation is intolerable.

Unless action is taken at once, the leaders of the several factions are warned that America will be constrained to decide what means should be employed to help Mexico to serve her people and help save herself from the reiterated revolutions of the past two years. On account of the disagreement of the leaders it is asserted that Mexico is as far as ever from a solution of the revolution.

The note adds that America must soon do what it "has not hitherto done or felt at liberty to do: lend its active moral support to the man or group of men who can rally the suffering people of Mexico to their support in an effort to ignore, if they cannot unite, the warring factions, and return to a constitution so long held in abeyance, and set up a government which the powers of the world can recognize."

United Press Service GALVESTON, June 2.—Captain Lane of the steamer Winnifred, which arrived here today, said that a dozen Americans were killed near Tampico recently by Mexicans. The bandits are terrorizing the country.

FEAR F-4 WILL BREAK IN TWO

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Admiral Moore, in charge of the work of raising the F-4 in Honolulu harbor, reports that there is danger of the vessel breaking in two, but that it would be possible to raise the pieces.

If the submarine does not break, there is danger of the entrance to the harbor being blocked temporarily by the bow of the sunken boat.

WILSON CONFERS WITH GERMANY'S REPRESENTATIVE

BELIEVED DISCUSSION SMOOTH ED MATTERS

London Advises Say Roumania Is About Ready to Get Into the War, and Will Do So Unless Territorial Demands Made Are Accorded by Austria—German Artillery Reported Active Again at Rhems.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and President Wilson held a conference for half an hour this morning. No statement was made afterwards, and its importance is indicated by the fact that secret service officials prevented anybody from approaching the room where it was held.

It is understood that von Bernstorff told the president that Germany will do all that is required in the way of reparation wherever it is shown that neutral rights have been infringed upon. Regarding the Lusitania affair it is reported that von Bernstorff stated that Germany has reason to believe in the soundness of her attitude regarding vessels that act in defiance of the rules of warfare. Wilson is reported to have said that there must be some understanding between the two nations regarding the conduct of unarmed neutral vessels.

BERLIN, June 2.—It is reported that the Germans have recaptured the sugar mill at Souches, which has recently been the scene of the most desperate fighting in Flanders. The Bavarian troops have occupied Dunkowizski, near Przemysl.

PETROGRAD, June 2.—Unconfirmed sources say the Russians operating near Libau have captured General von Prittes, German commander there.

LONDON, June 2.—Roumania is preparing to enter the war if Austria rejects her territorial demands. The war party is bringing strong pressure to bear, and the situation is serious. Germany seeks to have the trouble mediated. It is reported that the Roumanian demands have been rejected by the Austrian cabinet.

PARIS, June 2.—It is announced that the German artillery is again shelling Rhems, and that the cathedral there has been further damaged.

ROME, July 2.—The Italian fleet has destroyed the Austrian wireless station on Lissa Island, off Delmatia, and the semaphore station on Curzola Island.

An Austrian aviator dropped bombs near the cathedral, on the bishop's palace, and on the shipyards at Mol-fotta yesterday. One workman was killed.

Water Users Meeting to Be Very Important

Matters of vital interest to the Klamath Water Users Association will come up for discussion Friday afternoon at Houston's opera house, when the annual meeting of the stock holders will be called to order. The proposition of branching out as a co-operative organization will be taken up, and among the matters to be talked of under this head will be a co-operative farmers' national bank, a co-operative telephone system, to connect all of the farmers under the project by telephone. These matters are being more or less discussed by all the land owners, and there will be some real action taken Friday, it is understood.

There will be five candidates for five places as vacancies, there being no opposition in any place. J. R. Dis-

Main Witness for the State Has Disappeared

Taking of testimony for the state in the trial of Edward Warner on charge of setting fire to the Peter- steiner cafe last march has been nearly completed. At 3:30 today there had been sixteen witnesses examined. Isadore Maustilshah, the youth who swore to the information resulting in the arrest of Warner, failed to appear to testify in the trial. Instead, his testimony in the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Gowen was submitted by the state.

The witnesses examined today have largely been called to prove that the location of the fire in the building and other circumstances surrounding the affair tended to show it to be of incendiary origin. Members of the fire department and others were asked regarding the matter. It is believed that the state's testimony will be all in by tomorrow. The defense will make a strong plea against the veracity of Maustilshah, and will seek to prove his activities in the case were actuated by revenge.
