

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Too Much Hair Tonic.
John Snyder, Indian, drank too much hair tonic Saturday evening with the result that he spent the night and Easter Sunday in jail. Later he gained his liberty by paying $10.

Dogs Catching Time Here.
With the coming of April the time for payment of the annual dog tax has elapsed and Chief of Police Roberts has made arrangements for a crusade against the unlicensed canines. Dogs licensed will be taken up and impounded where they may be redeemed within a certain time. After that time the dogs will be killed.

Tribute For Local Organization.
In his report to the central state Liberty loan committee, J. D. Kuecher, field agent who attended the county meeting here on the 22nd, pays a strong tribute to the war drives organization and the Liberty loan committee of Umatilla county. "There we found the work well organized," he is quoted as saying, "probably better than any other county that I visited."

Speaker at High School.
Mrs. Jennie Kemp, Field Agent of the Federal Food Administration, spoke to the students of the high school this morning on the subject, "How to win the war." She said that one of the best ways for an-complishing this is to cut down our food consumption so the soldiers in the trenches will have plenty. She congratulated the high school on having a service flag, saying it was the proudest one she had ever seen. Mrs. Kemp urges that "team-work" be the motto of every American citizen.

Meeting in Old Quarters.
The regular monthly meeting of the Commercial Association will be held tomorrow evening in the old quarters of the club.

New Hotel Clerk.
H. W. Powers of North Yakima has arrived to take the position of chief clerk at the Hotel Pendleton, succeeding Clarence F. Vernon who has been transferred to the U. S. Marines. Mr. Powers is an experienced hotel clerk.

Stanfield Man Dies.
John H. De Witt, a shepherd in the employ of Stanfield Bros., died Friday at the local hospital and the body has been sent to his old home in New Brunswick for burial. He was 49 years old and for many years had been handling sheep for big operators. He was counted an extremely valuable man.

Calendar Slips Backward.
Though the government set all clocks forward an hour yesterday, the weather man turned all calendars backward a month or more, judging from the brand of weather served up. A furious wind and dust storm came up yesterday about noon and blew all afternoon and evening. The calm, springlike weather of the past few weeks gave way to wintertime temperatures. This morning shortly before 8 big flakes of snow began falling and all day overcoats have been very much needed.

Willbur Estate Appraised.
The estate of the late E. J. Willbur has been appraised at $5941.52.

Daughter is Born.
A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. William Courter of 209 Tustin street.

Dies at State Hospital.
Louis Gagon of Baker died Saturday night at the state hospital and his wife has come over to take the body back.

Dr. Morrow is Here.
Dr. J. W. Morrow, who is a candidate for democratic national committee man from Oregon, is here today. Dr. Morrow has an opponent in W. H. Hornbrook of Albany.

Bought Phelps Ranch.
Through a deal closed today by E. T. Wade Judge G. W. Phelps has sold his 265 acre ranch adjoining Irvington Heights to W. J. Morrow, right of way man for the C. & N. Co. The consideration is $12,000.

Pierce Will Run.
Portland papers yesterday carried announcements to the effect that Walter M. Pierce of La Grande has formally announced himself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor and that Will H. King has filed for the democratic nomination for senator.

Ford Man is in City.
W. H. Goodwin, representing the Ford Motor Co. is here on a visit with Robert Simpson, local Ford agent. Mr. Goodwin is to be here for several days and is engaged principally in the sale of closed Ford sedan cars.

Part of Hospital Unit Through.
Five of the nurses and doctors of the University of Oregon-base hospital unit passed through Pendleton Saturday evening. Included among the nurses were Miss Stasia P. Walsh who enlisted from this city. They are en route to Pennsylvania and it is expected they will soon sail for France.

Caught Record Bass.
Earl Kirkpatrick has the honor of having caught the largest bass on record out of the government reservoir. Yesterday he landed a six and a half pound bass and it is on exhibit at the Baum store today. Others in the party fishing yesterday were Roy Kirkpatrick, Elmore Hassell and Bob Sanders.

Mrs. Kemp's Dates Announced.
Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, federal field agent for the food administration, will make the four minute talk tomorrow evening at the Alta Theater and, immediately following will give her address on food conservation at the Methodist church 8:15. This afternoon and evening she is at Helix after spending the weekend in Pendleton.

Volunteered for Ever Green.
Vernon Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy of this city, was one of the American soldiers who volunteered a few weeks ago to submit to the injection of French fever germs into his body so that the physicians might study the disease and develop some prophylactic treatment. A letter has just been received by his parents stating that he is now out of the hospital and feeling fine again.

No Confusion Over New Time.
Pendleton has adjusted herself to the new order of hours without any difficulty. Saturday evening practically every watch and clock in the city was set one hour forward and people got up yesterday morning according to the hour registered by the clock. The churches conducted their services according to the new time and trains are now running on the old schedule with the new time. Most people are fast forgetting they are an hour ahead of the sun.

BRITISH SOCIETY WOMAN GOES INTO THE MOVIES

Hon. Mrs. William de la Poer Beresford, whose husband has come to the war, was discovered by the World Film Company the other day in its studio at work with a picture to be known as the "Cross Deavor." There she had been plain Mrs. Beresford, and no one had paid great attention to her. When it became known she was a sister-in-law of Sir Charles Beresford and of Lord Decies, who married Vivian Gould, granddaughter of Joy Gould, the movie people became interested. Mrs. Beresford was Miss Florence Miller of Providence before her marriage.

PATROL VESSEL RUNS ON ROCKS.
The Admiral is Total Loss Off Massachusetts Coast.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A naval patrol vessel, the Admiral, ran on the rocks off Scituate, Mass., last night and is a total loss, the navy department today was advised. All officers and the crew were saved and considerable small materials were saved.

Figures Show Attempts To Smash West Front

Here are dates and figures showing when and where both sides have previously tried and failed to break through on the west front.

February, 1915—British at Neuve Chapelle advanced one mile on two mile front, then were stopped.

April, 1915—Germans at Ypres first gas attack; net result, advance of three miles at certain points of the line; advance then stopped.

Many and June, 1915—French in Artois; they took villages, thousands of prisoners, captured Lorette Heights and almost cleared Vimy Ridge. Then their advance was stopped.

September, 1915—British and French at Artois and Champagne; French advanced over eighteen mile front, took 25,000 prisoners, 100 guns; were checked at third line. British at Loos lost 50,000 men, gained a few square miles of devastated territory; then were stopped.

February, 1916—Germans at Verdun; gained nearly five miles in six days; advanced little over one mile in succeeding six months; then were swept back; lost 500,000 men. Front of attack less than six miles.

July, 1916—British and French on the Somme; advanced six miles in six months; British lost 50,000 in killed on the first day. Net result: Release of 1,000 square miles of French soil, Germans forced to retreat from Arras to Noyon.

April, 1917—French and British, above Aisne and at Arras respectively;

French made local gains, British were stopped five miles from starting point.

Summer of 1917—British at Ypres gained six miles in four months, wiped out Ypres salient, won most of Passchendaele ridge, then were stopped.

March 21, 1918—Germans on west front—will the history of offensives repeat itself?

Magical Pair Pulled $750,000 Out Of Hats

This the Susskind's Gross Income From Checking Privilege. Says a Brother.

NEW YORK, March 29.—That a quarter of a million dollars was netted in the last seven years by him and his brother, Harry J. Susskind, by checking hats and coats in hotels, restaurants, theatres and other public places in this city was asserted by Joseph A. Susskind in a suit filed yesterday with Supreme Court. Justice Scudder of Brooklyn. Joseph wants a receivership, an accounting and a dissolution of the partnership.
