

If you buy any clothes this fall—maybe you won't need to—be sure you get the best quality. All wool fabrics are just as certainly "best" now as ever; good tailoring is as important and valuable as ever. Don't be satisfied with less than the best.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes SAVE

You've been asked to save—food, labor, resources and you want to do it. When you buy clothes this fall, you can save labor and wool, if you buy right. The good quality in Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes save for you. We feel that we're fortunate to be able to give you such a service.

YOUNG MEN'S FALL STYLES

Not all the young men have gone to war; some can't go, and ought not to go; many who stay wish they could go. But they have to have clothes; and many of the older men who are here want young styles. There are no better models made than these; we can promise you something that's right.

GET THE QUALITY IN THE FABRICS

Fine wool fabrics are scarce; but Hart Schaffner & Marx use no other. Their policy seems to be—"If we can't make good clothes, we won't make any." You'll find greys and blue, browns and tans; you'll find plain colors, stripes, plaids, checks; and many combinations of color and pattern.

50 Quarts Poured in Street.

A large crowd of mourners stood on Court street in front of Justice Parkes office yesterday evening and saw the officers pour in the street 50 quarts of perfectly good booze. In the lot there were bottles of Old Crow, Public Ford, Old Taylor, Guggenheim, Sunny Brook and other names that were quite popular in the days before John Barleycorn was put on the shelf.

Fined $300.

Before Justice J. H. Parkes Wednesday afternoon Lawrence Janice was fined $300 on a bootlegging charge, having pled guilty. He has paid the fine and been released by the sheriff. Wants Comfort Kits for Vancouver.

Miss Ida Debell, state leader of the Girls' Honor Guard has written to Miss Virginia Todd, county leader, and requested that Umatilla county members of the organization make and equip comfort kits for men in the service who are stationed at Vancouver barracks. She says that many of the men lack three and that it is the duty of the Honor Guard to assist in filling the need. There is also a need for gaited articles and for rags for gun wipes, she said. Especially is the need noticeable in the spruce camps, according to Miss Debell. Miss Todd says the matter will receive attention at the Honor Guard meeting Saturday night at the city hall.

BARS CARNIVAL SHOWS

Oklahoma Defense Council Says Many Are Undesirable

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 13.—The recent order of the Oklahoma council of defense in barring all carnivals and tent shows has occasioned much talk among the theatrical following all over the United States. In answer to a recent query the following reasons were given:

"First, the carnival and tent shows employ a number of people who should be in profitable industry; next a large number of the shows which operate in this state are far from the best morally—many of them being of the 'forty-niner' variety; they take from the country a large amount of money which could be used for war purposes, without bringing any benefit to the people in exchange; especially in the harvest fields and places where laborers are employed, they decrease the efficiency of farm labor."

REN TRAIN AS

TRAVELERS QUAL.

Man, With Hand on Hip Pocket, Bosses Crew.

SANDUSKY, Sept. 13.—Single-handed and unarmed, John Novak, 55, laborer of Chicago, held the passengers and crew of a New York Central passenger train under his command from the time the train left Toledo until it arrived here early this morning.

He is in jail here awaiting the prepayment of charges by railroad officials.

Novak, according to the police, who arrested him in response to rumors by telephone from the station, had been drinking. He declared some one had stolen his ticket and with his hand on his empty hip pocket threatened to shoot anyone who attempted to leave the train.

At the police station $286.40 was found in five tobacco sacks sewed into Novak's clothing. He said the money represented the savings of a lifetime and that he was en route to Pittsburgh to divide it with his grandchildren.

Girl Telegraph Operator Faints as Death News Comes

DENVER, Sept. 13.—The war department regrets to announce—
Miss Georgia Orell read that much of an official telegraphic communication passing through her hands at the Western Union Telegraph office Friday. The lines ran together in the Denver dark. She fell over on the floor in a faint. Fellow workers rushed to her aid. The crumpled message was clasped in her right hand. They read it and understood.
Her brother had made the supreme sacrifice Over There!
He had died on the battle line—a martyr to the cause of freedom and world liberty.
Georgia Orell is a clerk. She handles all government official communications. Though much of her work is mechanical, she had been watching with increasing interest and much foreboding the flashes of the wires during the past few months, since she had learned that Homer B. Orell was on the fighting front with Pershing. She had tried to sympathize with those who received through her hands the fateful messages at all hours of the day. They all commence with the expression of regret.
Georgia Orell knew what that official word "regret" meant when she reached it in the dispatch which came Friday addressed to her father, William F. Orell, 569 Adams.
Homer B. Orell enlisted in June and was stationed at Fort Logan, and was stationed at Fort Logan, he had learned that Homer B. Orell was on the fighting front with Pershing.
