ET a man ask you six months after you buy an IHC outfit, "Why are you using a cream separator? Is it making money for you?" and the question will sound as sensible to you as though he had asked why you used a binder.

This excellent combination pictured above, will give you more cream from your milk, saving from $5 to $15 per year for each cow you milk; separator skim milk, sweet, warm, and wholesome, will give you healthier, fatter pigs and calves, and this again means more milk and increased soil fertility; you will save hundreds of miles of going-to-the-creamery every year, with its wear and tear of wagon and harness, and so save the time of yourself and horses for many more hours in the field. There are other things an will do for you. Then the one-horse power IHC engine mounted on a portable truck, will pump water, run a washing machine, churn, sausage grinder, grindstone, and run various other farm machines.

Various points—heavy phosphor bronze bushings, trouble-proof neck bearings, dirt and milk-proof spiral gears, etc., make IHC separators the best to buy. Each style has four convenient sizes. See the local dealers who handle these machines, and have them demonstrate the working to you, show you the close skimming qualities, and efficiency, and go over the mechanical features with you. They will give you catalogues and full information.

WIRE BRIEFS.

Goldendale, Wash., Sept. 1.—When the sheriff went to the farm of J. C. Warner to serve an attachment on a $3,000 stallion, he found the thoroughbred animal hauling hay with a Missouri mule as a teammate. Warner claimed exemption under the law. The courts will decide.

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—"He shot at me but I threw sand in his eyes and he missed. Then he and his wife clubbed me with the gun," said Anton Schlegel to the police. Anton is in the hospital and Alec McDonald and his wife in the coop as determined scrappers.

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—Two mature and apparently respectable women who fought on the street hold the key to a police mystery here. They mixed it over a gold necklace. When questioned at police headquarters, it was revealed as a case of one man, two women and one gift.

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—Omar Woolforth, after laughing himself into hysteria, arrived at the receiving hospital in an ambulance unable to tell his troubles. His wife substituted: "He swallowed a sardine tail first. He said it tickled his palate, and then began laughing at himself."

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—After falling four stories through a skylight Katherine Dale, 17, was rescued uninjured from the debris caused by her precipitate arrival in a hotel lobby. She fell from a window while scuffling with a girl friend.

Portland, Sept. 2.—Charles Blake, a logger, discovered one Japanese with patriotic regard for America when K. Moduchi kicked him into the street for attempting to tear down an American flag which adorned the Japanese poolroom. Blake arrested; Jap commended.

Portland, Sept. 2.—If he'd only thought of it sooner. Manager Wolverton, after Sacramento dropped seven straight to Portland, yesterday decided to stack the bats against the grandstand instead of leaving them lie on the ground. Result: Sacramento took both games.

Sacramento, Sept. 2.—"Stop," yelled Motorcycle Policeman Brown to a man and a girl on a speeding machine. And then he followed them 18 miles with his revolver out. When caught Brown found them to be deaf mutes who thought him an up-to-date highwayman.

Los Angeles, Sept. 2.—A fair maid who left only the initials "B. S." complained at a suburban police station that her watch, usually worn strapped above her ankle, had been lost or stolen. "I must have lost it getting on a street car," she suggested to the sergeant.

Los Angeles, Sept. 2.—Some one neglected to prune the splinters from the greased pole at the Ocean Park Labor Day celebration. A member of the Los Angeles plumbers union was the only man to reach the top.

NO DIFFERENCE.

The Proof is Here the Same As Everywhere.

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here in Grants Pass people have used Doan's and Grants Pass people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Grants Pass proof. Investigate it.

Henry Nutt, 400 Isham St., Grants Pass, Ore., says: "For a long time I suffered from weak and painful back. At times I was so bad I thought my back would break and I could hardly work. Others of my family having been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and they strengthened my back and kidneys and made me feel like a different man."

GERMAN-AMERICAN ALLIANCE IN SESSION.

St. Paul, Sept. 2.—A program of German folk songs and patriotic American airs today marked the opening of the annual sessions of the German-American Alliance, one of the strongest German societies in the United States.

CLOSER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ENG. AND U. S.

Montreal, Sept. 1.—Pleading eloquently for a closer relationship between England and the United States, the Right Hon. Viscount Richard Burdon Haldane, lord high chancellor of Great Britain, today spoke as the guest of honor of the American Bar association, which is holding its annual convention here. Lord Haldane took for his topic "Higher Nationality; A Study in Law and Ethics."

"What one who finds himself face to face with this assemblage naturally thinks of is the future of the three nations; a future that may depend largely on the influence of men with opinions such as ours," declared his lordship. "The United States and Canada and Great Britain together form a group which is unique; unique because of its common inheritance in traditions in surroundings and in ideals. And nowhere is the character of this common inheritance more apparent than in the region of jurisprudence. The lawyers of the three countries think for the most part alike. At no period has political divergence been strikingly apparent. Where the letter of their law is different, the spirit is yet the same.

"It is this identity of spirit, largely due to a past, which the lawyers of this group have inherited jointly that not only forms a bond of union, but furnishes them with an influence that can hardly be reproduced in other nations. I take my stand on facts which are beyond controversy and seek to look ahead. I ask you to consider with me whether we, who have in days gone by moulded their laws, are not called on to try in days that lie in front to mould opinion in yet another form, and so encourage the nations of this group to develop and recognize a reliable character in the obligations they assume towards each other.

"For it may be that there are relations within such a group of nations that are not possible for nations more isolated from each other and lacking in our identity of history and spirit. Canada and Great Britain on the one hand, and the United States on the other, use a common language, have common interests and common ends, resembling a strong society. If there be such a society, it may develop within itself a foundation for international faith of a kind that is new in the history of the world. Without interfering with the freedom of action of these great countries, or the independence of their constitution, it may be possible to establish a true union between sovereign states. This union will doubtless, if it ever comes into complete being have its witnesses in treaties and written agreements. But such documents can never of themselves constitute it. Its substance, if it is to be realized, must be sought for deeper down in an intimate social life."

Lord Haldane urged lawyers to assist in the freshening of the conventional atmosphere which surrounds men in public life by omitting no opportunity to think rightfully and contribute to the fashioning of a more hopeful and resolute kind of public opinion.

WATER OF PACIFIC LET IN PANAMA CANAL.

Panama, Sept. 1.—Following the removal yesterday of the last remaining barrier at the Pacific end of the Panama canal, dredges tomorrow will start to remove the last barrier of the Atlantic channel. When this work is finished ships may navigate to the locks from both ends.

The Pacific barriers were blown up by an electric switch which was turned on twice yesterday, first at 9:30 o'clock and again at 1:30 p. m. The first blast constituted about 44,800 pounds of 45 per cent dynamite and hundreds of tons of mud and stones were thrown high in the air. The explosion tore a big gap in the barrier, but was not to a sufficient depth to permit the water to flow through as the tide was too low. The actual breaking of the barrier came in the afternoon when the second charge was let go. Then a workman with a shovel made a trench through which a rill of water trickled. It widened gradually and in an hour was a raging torrent, with a 35 foot fall of water pouring through an opening 400 feet wide, into that part of the canal between the Gamboa dike and the Miraflores locks, which previously had been excavated by steamshovels.

AMERICANS REMAIN IN CITY OF MEXICO

Mexico City, Sept. 1.—The expected exodus of American residents from Mexico as a result of warnings voiced in President Wilson's message to congress, has failed to materialize. A few Americans left the capital today, but a majority will remain, being unwilling to sacrifice business interests unless the situation becomes alarming.

Provisional President Huerta is expected to ignore anonymous charges that a group of Americans here plotted to bring about American intervention.

Vera Cruz, Mex., Sept. 1.—Fifty American refugees are here and no transport is available to carry them to the United States, and no regular vessel sails for several days. United States Consul Canada has arranged to accommodate the penniless at a local hotel.

John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy, will spend tomorrow at a plantation near Terra Blanca. He has given no indication here as to what he believes the future holds in the American-Mexican dispute.

SLIT SKIRT SENDS BLIND MAN TO MUNICIPAL FARM.

Kansas City, Sept. 2.—M. J. McCarty, fake blindman, who was sentenced to serve 100 days on the municipal farm because he gazed for 30 seconds at the aperture in a slit skirt, was far from being downcast today.

"Believe me, gentlemen," he said, "when I tell you that it was worth it. I would do the same thing over again and then some."

McCarty was wearing a "Help the Blind" sign when a buxom brunette, with a skirt slit to the knee, dropped a dime in his cup. J. W. West, a clerk, saw McCarty fix his eye on the aperture. After West had done some staring himself, he called a policeman.

"JAY WALKERS" ARE DOOMED.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 2.—A campaign of ridicule directed toward the extermination of the "Jay Walker Family" was inaugurated here today by the local automobile club. The "Jay Walker Family," according to explanations made today is numerous. It is composed of those pedestrians who cross congested streets without first looking to see if it is safe to do so. The local automobile club today adopted resolutions suggesting propaganda to be distributed all over the country to "kill off the Jay Walker Family." Automobile clubs all over the country, it was decided today, will be asked to aid in exterminating "Mr. and Mrs. Jay Walker and all the little Walkers."

FORMAL HAGUE CONFERENCE OPENS.

The Hague, Sept. 2.—The formal sessions of the Hague Conference opened here today with delegates from a score of the largest nations of the world attending. Among the United States delegates are Representative F. C. Stevens, of St. Paul; Representative Richard Bartholdt, of Missouri, and Representative James L. Slaydon, of Texas.

STEEL ARRIVES FOR MEDFORD STREET RAILWAY.

Medford, Sept. 2.—With the arrival yesterday of two carloads of steel rails for the interurban railroad the Bullis company announces that the laying of rails on Main street will be started the last of the week and the electric railroad will be in operation by the middle of November.

Three more carloads are en route, the electric cars are ready for shipment and from now on work will be rushed toward the completion of the line to Siskiyou Heights addition from the corner of Main and Front streets.

INVESTIGATION TO FOLLOW SLAPPING OF CHINK'S FACE.

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—Officers of the British ship Lord Londale, lying at San Pedro, declared today that they will demand an official investigation of the actions of Immigration Inspector R. Miller, who slapped the face of the ship's Chinese cook, precipitating an imbroglio that almost cost him his life. The cook seized a meat cleaver and rushed at Miller, a dozen yellow members of the crew at his back.

Officers of the ship helped the inspector, who had drawn his revolver, from the ship after the cook and two sailors had been overpowered. According to Captain John Forester, of the Londale, Miller's procedure when he inspected the Chinese crew was unusual. He declares the blow the inspector struck the cook was unprovoked. Miller asserts that the cook, when ordered to sign the inspection slip, wrote an insulting word instead of his name.

FIND BODY OF SALEM WOMAN IN RIVER.

Salem, Sept. 1.—A search of nearly two weeks is ended here today by the finding of the body of Mrs. Mary Guild, aged 60, in the Willamette river. She had been in ill health, and eluding the vigilance of relatives, disappeared from her home August 19, leaving a note saying she intended to drown herself.

ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF INTERSTATE COM. LAW.

Portland, Sept. 1.—Charged with securing a railroad pass from the O. W. R. & N. company for a woman not his wife, in violation of the interstate commerce regulations, E. S. Shafer, a telegraph operator of Huntington, Or., is under arrest here today. The woman, whose name was given in the complaint as Jane Dee, was also taken into custody.

ELECTRICAL STORM AND CLOUDBURST AT OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 1.—Damage estimated at $20,000 is done here today, flooding scores of retail and cloudburst which swept Ogden yesterday, flooding scores of retail and wholesale houses. Lightning struck a grocery store, melting the solder in hundreds of cans of vegetables, and spilling the contents.

7-YEAR-OLD BOY BUTCHERS BABY GIRL.

Munich, Sept. 1.—The crimes of Jesse Pemroy, the famous American pervert who is a life prisoner in Boston, were equalled here today when a boy of 7 years, found in the outskirts of the city, was discovered to have butchered a little girl 3 years old. The boy stunned the child with a club and then split her head open and severed her arms and legs. He is believed to be insane.

TO WALK FROM PORTLAND TO 'FRISCO IN 16 DAYS.

Portland, Sept. 1.—Leaving Portland on the morning of October 1, Dan O'Leary, 70, and claiming to be the champion walker of the world, will attempt to walk to San Francisco, a distance of 770 miles in sixteen days.

This will be the first attempt made to walk the distance in any given number of days. O'Leary recently celebrated his 70th birthday by walking 70 miles.

ELLIOTT SUCCEEDS MELLEN.

New York, Sept. 1.—Howard Elliott, formerly president of the Northern Pacific Railroad, today formally assumed the office of president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford line vice Charles Mellen, whose resignation, presented to the board of directors several weeks ago, took effect today.

KILLARNEY HOUSE BURNS.

Dublin, Sept. 1.—Built 32 years ago at a cost of $1,000,000 Killarney house, at Killarney, county Kerry, the home of the Earl of Kenmore, is practically in ruins today as a result of a fire which spread rapidly because of lack of water. Many priceless works of art were burned.

COQUILLE, CITY OF GOLDEN PAVED STREETS.

Coquille, Sept. 2.—The streets of this town are paved with rock that will yield $6.40 in gold to the ton, it was learned today following the receipt of an assay of specimens sent to Virginia City, Nev., by J. C. Wilson, a miner, who detected traces of the precious metal in the paving material. The rock is secured from a quarry five miles from town.
