THE NEW YORK RACKET

Is run on a well established plan of business. Buying for cash from headquarters; selling for cash only, they enable the customer to get his goods at the very lowest retail prices. Our profits are small, which has resulted in giving us an exceptionally large trade. If we sell you for $2.10 a fine dongola shoe that usually retails for $2.50, we have saved you 40c. with which other articles may be purchased. If for 5c you can buy a paper of the best brass pins usually sold at 10c, and all other articles in the same proportion, you can easily see that it will be greatly to your advantage to trade with us. We can save you money on boots, shoes, hats, shirts, window blinds, table linens, towels, laces, embroideries, ribbons, pants, overalls, hosiery, underwear, and notions.

A GREAT LOVE.

The Effect of a Refusal on a Fin de Siècle Young Man.
Dashaway—And is there no hope?
Miss Summit—I am sorry to say it, Mr. Dashaway, but there is none.
Dashaway—Maude, you do not know what you say. I am no ordinary man. Love to me is not a passing fancy, the idle amusement of a summer hour. Beside this great undying passion of mine what is death? Nothing, I say—absolutely nothing. You cannot know what it means for a man like me to love. It came to me, not suddenly, but slowly, until it filled every crevice of my being, and now this great passionate yearning for you must have its answer. I will win you yet. I will be patient. You do not know me, Maude. I am a desperate man. I can wait. I do not ask you to love me yet.
Miss Summit—Mr. Dashaway—George—I am so sorry. I know it must be just awful for you, but what can I say? Don't you know that my heart belongs already to another?
Dashaway—To another? (Burying his face in his hands.) I did not dream of this. Then, indeed, there is no hope. But (proudly) do not think that I will kill myself. No! I am far too much of a man for that. I shall go to Africa. I will yet show the world that I am not a coward. I will plunge into jungles. I will court deadly disease, for death now is robbed of all its terrors for me. But one thing you cannot deprive me of. My love for you. That will ever remain. Its chastening influence shall ever surround me. You may never see me again. Think of me sometimes as one who loved you, not wisely, but too well. I go. Farewell. (Rushes madly out.)
Clevertown (the next day at the club)—I see Von Blumer's engagement is announced.
Dashaway—To whom?
Clevertown—Maude Summit.
Dashaway—That girl! Well, she's a nice little thing. I used to be in love with her myself.—Life.

MILWAUKEE BANKERS

Of the Late Failed Plankington Bank.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS INDICTED

Raking the Ruins of the Cold Storage Warehouse.

FINDING OF MORE VICTIMS.

A Big Capitalist Believed to be in There.

STOCKS FEVERISH IN THE BIG MARKETS.

More Failures Reported and American Securities Weak.

Bankers Indicted.

MILWAUKEE, July 12.—The grand jury indicted all officers and directors of the Plankington bank for transactions leading to the failure of that institution.

THE FIRETRAP.
Search in the ruins of the Cold Storage warehouse at the Worlds Fair for more bodies continues. It probably will not be completed before the end of the week. The meats and vegetables in the warehouses are already beginning to taint and the odor is becoming extremely disagreeable and the men find it difficult to work steadily at the ruins. It is now believed that Blenbuber, a Capitalist of Marquette, Mich. is among the victims of the fire trap. Louis J. Frank, a fireman who jumped from the tower, died this morning.

New York Markets Feverish.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Stocks opened with enormous business and weak with losses of 1 1/2 and 2 per cent. The market is flooded with unfavorable rumors. When found the rumors could not be verified, a more hopeful feeling developed and a sharp rally ensued. At noon money on call is stringent at 10 and 20. After all stocks weakened again. At noon market feverish.

One of the chief items of contribution to excitement and weakness was the fact a well known trader was forced to throw over some 40,000 shares of high priced Vanderbilts and the bears took advantage of the fact to pound the market. The general opinion is there is nothing in situation to warrant yesterday's and today's breaks. On the contrary among banks and in financial circles a better state of affairs is reported.

Failures.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 12.—The Bank of Commerce failed. Last statement showed assets of $256,000; surplus $10,000; deposits $176,000.

GARNETT, Kansas, July 12.—The Bank of Garnett, one of the leading institutions in Anderson county, failed. No statement. Bank held $13,000 county funds. It is believed to be able to pay in full.

World's Fair News.

CHICAGO, July 12.—A viking ship arrived at the fair grounds today, meeting with appropriate welcome.

The handsome South Dakota building at the world's fair was dedicated today.

Chicago News.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Charles W. Barnes, stationer and bookseller, was assigned this morning. Assets $177,000; liabilities $113,000.

London Flat.

LONDON, July 12.—Stocks are flat. There is considerable excitement. American railroad securities declined 1/2 to 5/8 per cent.

The failure of Frank Boyer is reported. At the close of the market it is unsettled. It is feared other brokers will fail tomorrow. American railroad securities are exceedingly depressed.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

War in Samoa.

Sydney, N. S. W., July 12.—Advices from Samoa indicate that war is imminent between the Malletos and Matafa factions. A British warship has been ordered to join the German and American vessels to protect foreigners.

The Irish Question.

LONDON, July 12.—The house of commons in committee of the whole continued the discussion of clause 9 of the home rule bill. This clause concerns the question of Irish representation at Westminster. Henry Seton-Karr, conservative, moved that Irish members of the Irish parliament be elected for the same constituencies which would elect the Irish legislative council. Under this amendment the Irish members in the house of commons would number forty-eight, instead of eighty as proposed by the bill.

Wm. Broderick, conservative, for Guildford division of Surrey, agreed with Sir Richard. He said Irish were both impetuous and garrulous and therein lay two reasons for reducing their representation in the house to the minimum. Thomas Sexton, anti-Paranellite for North Kerry, interrupted Broderick to say that such language was grossly impertinent and ought not to be tolerated in the house. The chairman told Sexton that he was out of order and must withdraw his expressions concerning Broderick's speech. Sexton expressed a willingness to obey the chairman in case Broderick should first express regret.

For two or three minutes the house was in an uproar. Gladstone spoke a few words in favor of the chairman's decision, but added that the person striking the first blow ought to make the first overtures for reconciliation. Balfour, leader of the unionists, said that acting under his advice his honorable friend (Broderick), refused to apologize. The chairman turned appealingly to Sexton. "I'm willing to do anything consistent with my duty to please the prime minister," Sexton said, "but considering the gravity of the insult offered to my countrymen I have decided not to make an apology. I submit myself to the judgment of the committee."

Loud cheers greeted this statement. The chairman hesitated and finally ordered Sexton to withdraw. Sexton shouted, back "such a course is unprecedented. Why am I not named and my conduct submitted to the house?" Carr's amendment was rejected.

LONDON, July 12.—In response to an inquiry in the house of commons G. E. Russell, parliamentary secretary of the Indian office, stated the object of the silver legislation in India was not to fix the value of the rupee at 16 pence or any other amount, but to prevent a future fall in price. He added he had not yet fixed the ratio of value between the rupee and sovereign.

Union, Or., has had a copious rain.

Civil service examinations at the Salem postoffice, Saturday, Aug. 6th.

The silver league convention is in session at Denver.

Township ten south range five east in Santiam district Linn county, has been opened for settlement.

The purpose of recent action on silver in India, was to prevent further decline.

Mrs. Stanford gave ten thousand to the San Francisco midwinter fair.

Corbett and Jackson have signed to fight next June for ten thousand dollars.

Gold to the amount of $335,000 was shipped from London for New York yesterday.

Governor Markham arrived last night at Frisco. He would not state who would succeed the late Senator Stanford, nor when he intended to make the appointment.

Silver is advancing. There was but one response to the counter proposition of the government at Washington to the silver brokers, and that was limited to an offer of 100,000 ounces at 7 1/2c. This came from New York by telegraph. It was promptly accepted. Today another effort will be made to secure more silver, and as the price in London is up to 8 3/8, maybe the department will have to pay more than 7 1/2c, if it decides to buy at all. It is stated the purpose of the acting director of the mint just now is to secure steady quotations rather than to affect the market one way or another, and when the quotations become steadier it is probable the purchases of silver will be resumed in larger amounts.

Opium Smuggling Indiments Found at Portland.

CHICAGO, July 12.—William Kehoe, a well known heavy weight pugilist from California, is taken to detention hospital, violently insane. Before being taken in custody he made a violent attack on his room mate, Carl Edelmuth, another western pugilist. They arrived here about a week ago, from Portland, Oregon, and were trying to arrange for a fight before the Columbian Athletic club, at Róby. Edelmuth is in a dangerous condition.

Smuggling Opium.

PORTLAND, July 12.—An additional libel was filed upon steamer Haytian Republic today by federal authorities. The indictment contains five counts, all referring to smuggling of opium. In July 1892 the steamer is accused of smuggling in four hundred pounds. In August eight hundred, in September fourteen hundred, in January, 1893, ten hundred, and in February nine hundred, making a total of forty five hundred pounds since July 1892.

Prohibition Thrown.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 12.—In a letter to A. J. Richard, of Fort Scott, Attorney General Little intimates the State administration has thrown prohibition over.

Civil Service Examination.

The regular semi-annual postal examination for the Salem office will be held Saturday, Aug. 5, 1893. Persons desiring to take this examination will please apply at once to the secretary of the board at the postoffice.

No applications will be received after the close of business on Monday, July 17, 1893.

The civil service commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations. All such citizens whether democrats or republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded, and certified with entire impartiality and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions apply at the postoffice to the secretary of the board.

PENNOYER ON POLITICS.

Governor Pennoyer was seen at the depot as he left for Portland this afternoon. He was asked if he was urging the nomination of Judge R. P. Boise, of Salem, for his successor.

"I am not suggesting anyone," said the governor. "We have in Oregon three distinct party organizations and three state tickets will be nominated next spring. If this coming session of congress fails to do anything for free silver, the Populists will sweep this state by five thousand plurality. In that case Boise for governor and Pierce for secretary of state, will be a winning ticket."

"How about Boise on the Republican ticket?" was asked.

"He nor anyone else could be elected under the conditions I have stated." The governor admitted that he was being criticized a good deal in certain Populist papers that were run for personal purposes and were doing all in their power to divide the ranks of that party. At this point he stood off a delegation of horticulturists who wanted him to address their convention, saying he was not making speeches not submitting to interviews.

THE FARMER'S COLLEGE.

Treasurer Shipley is Lying at the Point of Death.

Representative Bently of Corvallis was in the city today enroute for Spokane Falls on legal business. He said to a writer that matters at the O. S. A. college were proceeding nicely. The new building was going up at once.

Contract is not yet let. Eckert of Corvallis will probably get it, as two bidders before him have not materialized. The treasurer of the Board of Regents, Hon. A. R. Shipley is lying at the point of death. He is unable to sign warrants or resign. He will not appoint anyone to act for him. The board could declare a vacancy which really exists and name his successor, and that will probably be done.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Burnett has been sitting at chambers in the county court room today. His Honor looked a little ugly. The fruit growers had taken charge of his temple of justice upstairs and virtually turned him out. A Yamhill county warehouse occupied his time all the forenoon. District Attorney McCain is in attendance, and also has some cases in the supreme court.
