Clerk LaBare this afternoon issued certificates of election to A. L. Clark, County Judge, A. E. Harvey and B. J. Keelan, Commissioners, but did not issue one to Glen R. Metaker as District Attorney as he says he has no authority to issue a certificate of election for a state officer and will leave that for the Secretary of State and Governor.

Henry Kratz and S. M. Hall of Clatskanie had an exhibit at the fair this week from the Clatskanie Co-operative Fruit Canning Co. Their exhibit consisted of canned fruit and vegetables which were the products of the plant at Clatskanie and proved what could be done with our fruits by concerted effort. The exhibit attracted considerable interest and the samples of fruit given out caused many favorable comments. The people of this community are much interested in such an enterprise if the Clatskanie company expands along the river as they are contemplating, there is no doubt of hearty support in this section of the County.

St. Helens, Sept., 25, 1914.
Editor Mist;

I do not think the so-called recall in Columbia County could affect me unless I voluntarily resign an office it would be very distastful to me to further fill. For that reason I can speak of the result without much feeling of self interest. Though I cannot fully discuss the facts at this time, owing to the possibility of intended legal inquiry, I am satisfied, however, that a candid person who would read the connection of Major H. L. Bowlby with the Columbia County Bond Issue and resultant highway imbroglios and recall would not hesitate to pronounce it the "history of crime". I fear he has been instrumental in unheard of financial extravagances and in the ingendering of sectional strife which cannot be recalled.

I do not hesitate to express the opinion that our people will soon discover that they recalled the wrong party. The almost unanimous vote at the County Seat where the records are before the world stands as a vindication of a Court that had seemed to know Bowlby for what he was worth.

SCAPPOOSE

Monday evening the Christian Endeavor gave a reception in honor of the home coming of their President Miss Helst. There was a short program:

Address of welcome by Athline Tolly; Solo by Mr. Niblock; Reading by Athline Tolly; Duet by Helen Watts and Mr. Niblock; Complimentary address by Rev. Myers.

Ice cream and cake were served after which games were played. The Congregational Church was prettily decorated with autumn leaves for the occasion.

The refreshments were served on small tables and the appearance was that of the Ladies' Aid Tea. All report a pleasant evening. The reception was an entire surprise on the president.

The C. E. work has prospered this summer and they are in a good condition for the winter work.
