

WARDENS RESTORED

Finley and Clanton Again in Former Offices.

State's Fish and Game Interests in Former Hands Despite Attitude of the Governor.

At a meeting of the State Fish and Game Commission held in Portland Monday, W. L. Finley was restored to his office of State Game Warden and R. E. Clanton to that of Master Fish Warden. They vacated the offices last February, following action taken by Governor West. Four members of the commission were present at the meeting: D. E. Duncan, C. F. Stone, George H. Kelly and M. J. Kinney. Mr. Duncan presided in the absence of Floyd Bilyeu, chairman of the committee, who was out of the city.

Last February C. F. Stone, of Klamath Falls, Frank Hughes, of Salem, and B. E. Duncan, of Salem, resigned from the board. Governor West appointed Floyd Bilyeu, of Portland; C. H. Evans, of Leaticoe, and H. H. Clifford, of Baker, to replace them.

Although the Governor stated at the time there was no political significance in the action, Mr. Evans is a brother-in-law of Claude McCulloch, who managed Dr. Smith's campaign for governor, and Mr. Bilyeu is treasurer of the Democratic state committee. This new board had been in charge but a short time before W. L. Finley was removed from the office of Game Warden, and C. H. Evans, one of the newly appointed members of the board, named as his successor. The former was given a position at the head of the educational and biological department at a reduced salary.

Theodore Opund, who had been a clerk in Mr. Clanton's office, was elevated to the Master Fish Warden's position, while Clanton was placed in charge of the fish hatcheries, a position created at the time.

Mr. Evans, in order to accept the position of Game Warden, was forced to resign as a member of the commission. This office was not filled for some time, but the Governor finally named R. E. Duncan, one of the former members of the board, who resigned.

Five weeks ago H. H. Clifford resigned and was shifted to a place in the State Insurance Department. C. F. Stone, who has been on the original board, succeeded Clifford. This leaves Frank Hughes the only member of the original board who has not been restored.

NOTES OF THE FORESTS.

Warriors Showing Spirit of Conservation of Timber in Their Otherwise Devastating March.

Although there were an unusual number of forest fires on the national forests of Oregon and Washington this year, the loss of merchantable timber has been relatively small.

It is said that the German invaders of Belgium, whatever else they may have destroyed, have been careful not to injure park trees. The cavalymen, so a report goes, are forbidden to tie their horses to trees for fear that the animals will gnaw the bark. Germany was the first nation to apply forestry on a large scale, some of the crown forests having been under scientific management for over a hundred years.

A surprisingly large number of substances, ranging all the way from the condensed fumes of smelters to the skimmed milk of creameries, have been tried or suggested as means of preserving wood from decay. Most of them, however, have been found to have little or no value for the purpose. Certain forms of coaltar creosote and zinc chloride are the most widely used wood preservatives.

The propellers of aeroplanes such as are used in the present European war may be made of selected ash, which is both strong and light and will not split under vibration or shock, or of built-up layers of spruce with mahogany centers. The framework of the machines, too, is generally made of wood, spruce being much used on account of its straight grain and freedom from hidden defects.

Forest Supervisor Merritt, at Bend, has just received word of the final decision of the Secretary of Agriculture regarding an area of 28,500 acres in the Deschutes National Forest along the Metolius River. The secretary has decided that the land is chiefly valuable for timber and is not subject to entry as agricultural land. The yellow pine timber on this acreage is estimated to amount to about 500,000,000 feet. Eighty-nine persons have filed applications for land in this section and under this decision of the secretary their claims will not be allowed.

CHANCE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

Every boy and girl in Oregon will have a chance next year to take part of a hog raising contest to be backed by the Portland Union Stock Yards, the State Bankers' Association and other organizations interested in the agricultural development of the Northwest. It is planned to permit the young people to borrow money on the security of their parents or school principal which will enable them to buy their hogs for cash at current market rates, the money to be repaid when the stock is sold. The boys and girls will be required to keep an accurate record of all their expenditures and to submit a complete report of their operations at the end of the year.

SUCCESSFUL CO-OPERATION.

A meeting of stockholders in the Co-operative Creamery was held at Junction City recently and attended by 450 ranchers. The secretary's report showed that during the two years the plant had been operated, 233,933 pounds of butter have been made, valued at $67,035, and the sales of by-products has brought the gross receipts up to $68,531. The average price of butter for the two years has been 33 1-3 cents per pound, the lowest price having been 25 cents and the highest 40 cents.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Class Organizing Has Been Perfected.

Work of Beautifying Grounds by Rose Culture is Being Instilled in Youths.

The Juniors are thinking of publishing a high school annual.

There is a crying need for playground apparatus in the schools.

The Physical Culture girls are enjoying themselves these fine days by short walks.

The Demosthenes's and Cleero's are very busy these days working for the debate tryouts, which come soon.

The High School students are almost learning to sing DO under the competent instruction of Dr. Enna, from Portland.

The Manual Training boys under the able instruction of Mr. McNulty, are busy every day in their work, and many useful pieces of furniture are being made by them.

The members of the English II class are astonishing their instructors by the wonderful literature they are turning out. There may be some second Shakespeares and Miltons among them.

A High School and Y. M. C. A. conference is to be held in McMinnville, Nov. 27-29. There was a Student Body meeting Wednesday for the purpose of electing delegates. Clarence Goin and James Adams will represent S. H. H. S.

The school received several rose slips from University of Oregon several weeks ago. They were taken from a rose bush at the U. of O. Each grade in the school planted one and next year we hope to have our lawn beautified by blooming roses.

The High School gymnasium is in a very deplorable condition. The floors are disfigured with numerous holes and the first grade is holding full sway over it at present. There is a basketball game scheduled with Clatskanie on November 27, and our boys have no place to practice.

Two literary societies were organized in the high school about two weeks ago. The members of the societies themselves, the Alpha Omegas and the N. O's. The former gave a very interesting and entertaining program Friday afternoon. Programs will be given every two weeks, the next one by the O. N. O's.

Messrs. Perry and Smith and Miss Keturah Discon may be seen most any time with a debate book in their hands. S. H. H. S. has the negative side of the question for the county high schools: Resolved, "That the Federal Governments should own and operate all interstate railroads acting as common carriers including interstate lines competing with them, constitutionally waived."

LEVY IS 20.7 MILLS.

Astoria, Ore., Nov. 17.—Special.—The City Council has fixed the tax levy on the year's roll at 16 mills for municipal purposes. The high rate is due in part to the fact that several saloons have announced that they will not take out licenses during the coming year.
