MONTAVILLA DEFEATS ST. HELENS WHITE SOX

bleacher inhabitants made up a purse of $2.30 to cover. Alex has not said what he did with the extra 39 cents.

The score board is entirely too small. Manager Ballagh should either have the board made larger or else furnish all who pay their good coin to see the game with magnifying glasses. This would save the fans the trouble of keeping the score.

Donaldson showed good control at several critical periods. In two instances after the umpire had called three balls, Alex showed how he could hit the plate and throw three strikes, fanning the batter in each instance.

Both pitchers worked well, Zweifel striking out 11 batsmen (we call them batsmen because they have bats in their hands when facing a pitcher) and Donaldson striking out nine hitters. Each club artist gave four walks.

Manager Ballagh has released Catcher Hayes and Outfielder Druhot. He has signed as a catcher, Geo. Armistiger, who has been catching for the last several years with Eastern Oregon teams. His last engagement was with Tillamook.

Press reports state that Ward, the shortstop for Walter McCredie's Beavers, is to be released. This is not surprising to the sporting editor, for after Joe Day saw the opening game, he expressed the opinion that McCredie would have to get a shortstop. Joe knows and we have an idea that he told McCredie just what to do.

Gresham has lost its franchise in the Inter-City League and Salem will get it. Salem should prove more of a drawing card.

The next game will be with the Bradford team. The League's leader, Pearl Casey, formerly of both the Pacific and Northwestern League, will probably be in the Bradford line up.

Inter-City Baseball League Standings

Batting Averages of White Sox

Graham	11	2	.182

A team batting average of .193 won't make any half way good pitcher afraid of the White Sox. In Sunday's game the boys could have done better if they had stood up to the plate. Also, it is not a good idea to swing too hard at a fast ball—meet it little easy.

ROD AND GUN CLUB

Result of Sunday's Shoot at St. Helens

E. I. Ballagh	50	42
C. D. Sutherland	50	42
E. Laws	50	41
B. Copeland	50	40
A. J. Kelly	50	40
C. Burgess	50	39
E. Lindgren	50	38
J. T. Tabor	50	38
S. Devera	50	36
L. Muir	50	35
J. Marler	50	34
A. Gesanen	50	30

Burgess shot 80 per cent on the last string of 25 birds, breaking 12 without a miss.

Kelly had high string of 15 straight birds.

Ballagh looks like a high score man, while Laws and Tabor are coming up in the per centage column every shoot.

With six men shooting 50 per cent, St. Helens has an excellent showing in trap shooting.

The club expects to install an automatic trap this week for next Sunday's shoot.

In addition to the participants, there were 30 spectators.

THOSE WE KNOW

Henry Morgan, so far, is the only man we know who absolutely refused nomination on the recall ticket.

Dr. J. L. Zipperer indignantly denies the report that he has put out on the political ground; he states that most of the time it is glued to the telephone.

Dr. A. J. Pool states that during his many years of study on various medical cases, and after consulting the best medical authorities, he has discovered that the panes of the window are in the wash. Correct diagnosis.

Bert Stone gave us this one: Why is a Ford automobile like a death rattle? Because every one wants one, but no one wishes to be seen in them.

M. E. Miller claims he can make a very good impromptu speech if he is given plenty of time for preparation.

Van Orsheim, the surveyor, states it is much easier for him to run a straight line than to follow the straight and narrow path.

BOOSTER VERSUS KNOCKER

When the creator had made all the good things, there was still some dirty work to do, so He made the beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when He had finished, He had some scraps that were too bad to put into the rattlesnake, the hyena, the scorpion, and the skunk, so He put all those together, covered it with suspicion, wrapped it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak, and called it a Knocker.

This product was so fearful to contemplate that He had to make something to counteract it, so He took a sunbeam and put in the heart of a child, the brain of a man, wrapped them in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet, and a grasp of steel and called it a Booster; made him a lover of fields and flowers and manly sports, a believer in equality and justice, and ever since these two were, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his associates.—Author unknown.

CLASSIFIES LANDS IN NATIONAL FOREST

Announcement is made by the District Forester, Portland, Ore., of the final classification by the Secretary of Agriculture of practically all the lands within the Oregon National Forest. This forest covers a total area of 1,140,520 acres lying between the Columbia river and Mt. Jefferson and includes the Bull Run reserve and the Columbia Gorge Park.

This classification is a part of the classification work which is being carried on by the Forest Service to cover all the National Forests within the state, and practically finishes the work upon the Oregon National forest. The lands in the Wamic Project were classified in 1915; the Bull Run reserve is closed to the public by act of congress, and does not, therefore, require further classification. The Columbia Gorge Park has already been classified and is set aside by Secretary's order, December 24, 1915, as a recreation ground for the use of the public. The balance of the area within the National Forest boundary, and the subject of the present report, covers approximately 527,422 acres, and with the exception of 1180 acres (which were not classified), the whole area was pronounced, by the secretary, to be chiefly valuable for forest purposes and not suitable for opening to entry under the homestead acts of June 11, 1906, and August 10, 1912. It is said that most of the agricultural lands within this forest were taken up within two years after the passage of the act of June 11, 1906.

In general the topography of this 527,422 acres is very rough, it is heavily timbered, in many places reaching as high as 100,000 feet B. M. to the acre, and the high altitude makes agricultural pursuits impractical. There are also several high peaks within this area, such as Mt. Hood, Gable Butte, Battle Axe Mt. and Mt. Wilson. In fact, the greater part of the area is above 2000 feet elevation.

STEAMER HOO HOO CHANGES HANDS

The steamer Hoo Hoo, which has been operated by J. H. Waldgren and J. J. Smith, was sold Saturday to Geo. Jackson and Orin Shepherd, both of St. Helens. The Hoo Hoo will be operated under the command of Geo. Shepherd, with Hauserman as first engineer, thus again bringing together two old "shipmates," as Houseman was steerman on the steamer America when Shepherd commanded her. Their business announcement appears elsewhere in these columns.
