CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

The church furnace is being installed this week.

Mrs. E. N. Watts has been quite sick with an old.

Mrs. O. M. Washburn is suffering with a severe cold.

George Ramsey is the latest to ship a carload of spuds.

Mrs. James Dodson and son are visiting Prof. Dodson this week.

The price of potatoes has taken a fall on account of the shortage of cars.

Mrs. D. T. Davis is out of the hospital and again located in her residence.

Mrs. Jessie McDonald has been quite sick in a Portland hospital but is reported improving.

Miss Libby Fowler has returned from a month's visit with friends in Salem and way points.

Miss Leda Baughman, niece of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, has come to live with her aunt and attend school.

Clara Barnett and wife have returned from Hood River, and Win. Barnett is reported improved in health.

M. J. Butler, section foreman, and his crew have been ordered to Clatskanie to lay track in that locality.

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams has moved her family from Portland and is at home to her friends in the Cornish cottage.

Most of the election bids have been paid. Some of our people look so sad we judge they were heavy losers.

St. Helens' football team will play our boys next Saturday afternoon. Everybody turn out and encourage the boys.

D. W. Price and daughter, Vera, Mrs. J. C. Watts, Miss Helen Watts and Miss Ardeth Hargreave motored to Portland Saturday.

Last Friday night was the regular choir party night. They met at the home of Miss Gypsy Johnston and indulged in gaiety.

Frank L. Smith began Monday to dig 200 acres of potatoes. They have several machines digging and about 15 men sacking.

J. C. Windham, while working at camp, had his chest badly crushed as two logs came together. The injury is not thought to be serious.

Last Friday Herman Miller wrenched in smiles, wheeled Mr. Gilmore from the church to H. Neumann's home. Mr. Gilmore carried two flags.

Geo. Hartness, of Portland, was a week-end visitor with his cousin, Victor Watts. These boys are interested in wireless, each having a set and are progressing nicely.

At the Community Club last Wednesday night, Rev. Johnson put on picture slides of Columbia river, Rainier national park, and eastern views. They were all exceptionally good.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnston have gone to Portland to attend a ministerial convention, after which they will make the circuit of Rainier, St. Helens and back to Scappoose for the opening here of the remodeled Congregational church. The church will be dedicated next Sunday.

Miss Maudie Watts is preparing a readable of home talent, to be given the 15th of this month for the benefit of the piano fund. The young people are working hard and giving much attention to the costumes for this special occasion. They hope to draw a good fall house.

The Parent-Teachers' Club met last Friday. Calabrese and others

lectics was the general topic. Mrs. McCord's class gave a drill in catechisms, after which Mrs. McCord read a paper on that subject, followed by a paper by Mrs. Crowled. They decided to postpone the next regular meeting until January.

WARREN

(By Student Body News Committee)

M. O. Evans spoke before the grangers last Thursday night, at which meeting more than a hundred grangers were present. Mr. Evans presented the county agent question, after which the grangers thrashed the matter out in debate. In fact, very little was left unsaid in the way of wit and sound argument.

Miss Hattie Groselle returned from Multnomah last Saturday evening to stay with her parents a short time.

Harry Thompson, the station agent, expects to be transferred soon to Gearhart, his former station.

Wednesday afternoon was parents' day at Warren schools, and a large number of parents were in attendance. The different rooms were visited. The regular programs of the day were carried out in the various rooms. The needs of the schools were pointed out by the teachers, who were elected by the student body.

The Warren high school caps are expected in a few days. They will be of the knitted style with green body and pink rings near the base and pink bands at the crown.

Mr. Lind, of Warren, has sold his farm to Mr. Corlison, a Netada miner. His children will remain in Warren, but Mr. Lind expects to go to California.

The Warren grange will hold an open meeting next Tuesday evening. A splendid program will be the principal event of the evening. Every body is cordially invited to attend.

YANKTON

There will be services in the church Sunday, November 20.

The farmers here will have digging potatoes, and Yankton grows some extra fine spuds.

The majority of votes at this precinct were for Wilson. Harless had 14 and Wilson 24.

C. S. Thomas, of Salem, and Mrs. Lottie Fowler, of Castle Rock, were Sunday visitors at the home of a. W. Thomas.

Mr. Cox is having a fine barn built on his land. The building site is on the high land near the Hunker Hill road.

The well-drilling crew has so many wells to drill in and around Yankton they have moved their families here from Portland and expect to remain here until spring. The Scandinavian Realty Company has employed them to drill wells for all purchasers of their land.

Mrs. Belle Abbernet and daughter, Georgia, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roeper and daughter, Phyllis, motored down from Portland for a short visit at the home of A. W. Thomas. The event was a pleasant surprise, as Mrs. Abbernet and Mr. Thomas are brother and sister who had not seen each other for a number of years.

RAINIER

Mrs. Clark Hale and little son Robert, of Portland, are house guests at the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. L. Phipps.

Will Silva has moved to Rainier and will take charge of Captain Smith's new tow boat which is expected to be put in service within the next few days.

Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phipps, their daughter Hazel was united in marriage to E. J. Silva, of Portland, the ceremony being read by the Rev. C. S. Johnson of this city.

A deal was closed last week whereby Dr. McDonald buys back his dental practice at this place from Dr. Butler, who purchased the business some three weeks ago. Dr. Butler has purchased another practice in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cooper, of St. Helens, was here last Tuesday for a chat with friends.—Review.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION CALENDAR FOR 1917.

The publishers of the Youth's Companion are presenting, as always at this season, to every subscriber whose subscription is paid for 1917, a calendar for the new year. It is decidedly unusual and strikingly artistic. The colors are well chosen and richly blended. It was made primarily, however, for actual use, and is well named the practical home calendar.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A number of the boys went to the football game in Portland last Saturday. They saw Dale Perry, who played in the freshman team of O. A. C. that defeated Multnomah club.

The delegates to the boys' conference at Corvallis were elected in a recent student body meeting. Caly Stanwood and Robert Harrison volunteered to go as representatives of the high school.

We suffered defeat by the second team of Franklin high of Portland. The score was 22 to 9.

The girls' indoor baseball team played a game with the freshman boys, the game resulting in a 36 to 10 defeat for the girls.

The school paper will be published in a few days. We wish the support of the entire town in order that our paper may be a success.

Rev. Hisey addressed the assembly Wednesday morning on the subject of "Opportunity."

The football team is going to play Scappoose Saturday, on the Scappoose field.

Windell McKee was a new pupil at school Monday morning.

The Curtis test in spelling was given on November 9. Out of about 100 pupils the following 17 received 100: Rex A. Miller, Phyllis Brown, Madge I. Morrill, Lois Payne, John W. McVey, Lawrence E. Davies, Mable Davies, Annette Payne, Marian Baker, Gertrude Brown, Edward Richardson, Kenneth Howell, Myrtle Larson, Fannie Cooper, Adelle Link, Larry Wilson and Marie Walker.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that in sixty days from the date of this notice it will be unlawful for stock to run at large in Columbia County, Oregon, under penalty of $10 for the first offense and $20 for each and every subsequent offense, to be recovered from the owner of the stock in civil action in the name of the State of Oregon before a Justice of the Peace of the Precinct in which such owner or keeper, or either of them, may reside; and such penalty shall be for the benefit of, and when collected paid into the common school fund of the County in which such action is brought within sixty days after such animal is proved to be at large.

Dated November 17th, 1916.

A. F. BARNETT,
County Clerk.

IN CONDOLENCE

Yankton, Ore., Nov. 10, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Soderberg and Family:

Dear Friends: Let me assure you of my heartfelt sympathy in this your sad hour of bereavement. Yet, you mourn not as they who have no hope; so

Let not tears flow down,
And hearts be sorely riven;
There's another gem in the Savior's crown,
Another star in Heaven.

These strange mysteries in the future will be revealed,
And "up there" some time will understand.

You can not call your precious Darling back, but you can go to him. Any way I can, I should be very glad to help you.

Yours very sincerely,
ETHEL B. LAWPAUGH,
(Teacher.)
